NEWTON HIGH WINS

Somerville High Defeated 19 to 7 the First Time in Three Years

Newton High defeated Somerville High at football Saturday afternoon on Claffin Field by the score of 19 to 7.

In the first period Frank Gilligan blocked a punt by Kilson on Somerville's 10-yard line. Dodging through the opposing line he crashed through to a touchdown. This tally took considerable heart out of the Somerville boys, yet they played doggedly and never gave up until the whistle sounded.

The other brother, Tom Gilligan, was responsible for the second Newton touchdown when he intercepted a forward pass in the second period and raced from midfield to the four-yard line. In the next play Stone took the ball across.

The third Newton score was made in the last minute of play. Somerville in a desperate attempt to register at least another touchdown, had carried the ball to Newton's 10-yard line by using a wide-open attack. Wilson hung the pigskin to McCarthy, but the ever alert Tom Gilligan intercepted the ball and after straight-arming his way past the secondary defense, ran 90 yards for a touchdown. This was perhaps the biggest play of the game and came a moment before the final whistle.

Somerville gained its seven points by virtue of a touchdown by McCarthy in the second period and a successful kick by Kilson. The score followed a forward pass by Wilson to McCarthy, who paced the remaining 35 yards to the goal line.

LARGE VOTE CAST AT STATE ELECTION

Over 20,000 Ballots Polled on Tuesday, President Coolidge Receiving Over 14,000 Votes. Claggart Carries the City for State Auditor. Referenda Attracts a Large Vote

Newton did its full share in augmenting the tidal wave which has swept Mr. Coolidge into the presidential office for the next four years. In the first place it heeded the President's advice to cast a full vote, as 91.3 per cent of the total registration went to the polls last Tuesday, the exact number being 20,542. Of this total Coolidge and Dawes received 14,738, Davis and Bryan had 3336 and LaFollette and Wheeler had 1364. Only two precincts, both in Nonantum had a plurality for the Democratic candidates.

Lieut. Governor Fuller was a close rival of the President for first place, having at total of 14,152 votes, Curley receiving 5893 and leading Mr. Fuller in only the Nonantum precincts.

The vote for United States Senator was a bit closer, although Speaker Gillett polled 12,978 votes and Senator Walsh had 6625, carrying five precincts, the two Nonantum precincts, the Mt. Ida precinct, the north side of West Newton and Lower Falls. For State Auditor, the Republican city of Newton repudiated the Republican candidate, A. B. Cook and gave Strabo V. Claggart, a resident of Auburndale, a most flattering vote. Claggart had 10,985 and Cook 7211.

Frank G. Allen had 14,097 votes for Lieutenant governor, Frederick W. Cook had 13,720 for secretary, William S. Youngman had 13,471 for state treasurer, and Jay R. Benton, had 13,446 for attorney general.

Congressman Luce received a fine vote, 14,071 to 4235 for his opponent.

Councillor Smith had 12,734 with only 4389 for his opponent. Senator A. B. Rice was unopposed for re-election and received 13,002 votes. Alderman Arthur W. Hollis with 14,491, Clarence S. Luitwieler with 13,525 and Leverett Saltonstall with 14,360 were elected representatives from this district to the Massachusetts House.

Of the seven referenda, five were approved and two were not approved by the voters of this city. The two amendments to the state constitution were readily approved, the first having 10849 Yes to 3353 No and the second had 11,162 Yes and but 3657 No.

To the great surprise of those interested, and recalling the action taken two years ago on a similar proposition, Newton actually favored the approval of the liquor legislation embodied in Referendum 3 by casting 10767 Yes votes to 6287 No votes.

The proposition to tax gasoline two cents a gallon did not please the electorate, there being only 6667 Yes and 10172 No.

The private banking law was approved with 10423 Yes and 2357 No. Daylight Saving was favored with a vote of 11397 Yes and but 5751 No.

The Child Labor Amendment was decidedly repugnant to the voters as it had but 4048 votes in its favor and 14,163 against.

The vote for the more prominent offices is given in detail in another column.

Other votes were as follows: President electors, Foster and Gittow, 11; Johns and Reynolds, 19.

Governor, Ballam, 59; Hayes, 22; Hutchins, 23.

Lieutenant Governor, Allen, 14,097; Cummings, 5045; Cunniff, 50; Nicholson, 34; Stevens, 39.

Secretary, Cook, 13,720; Dwyer, 156; Leger, 64; Rochelau, 4361; Williams, 91.

Auditor, Claggart, 10,985; Cook, 7211; Harris, 50; Lacey, 78; Reagan, 60.

Attorney General, Benton, 13,446; Carter, 100; Oelcher, 55; Sherman, 80; Swift, 4433.

United States Senator, Konikow, 66; Congressman, Luce, 14,071; Tuttle, 4235.

Councillor, Golden, 4389; Smith, 12,734.

County Commissioners, Cutting, 13,811; Wardwell, 12,931.

Register of Probate, Butler, 4396; Harris, 12,987.

County Treasurer, Hatfield, 14,414; McBride, 3817.

ANOTHER MIDNIGHT SESSION

Aldermen Listen To Protests Against Site of Proposed New High School But Refuse To Make a Change

The present board of aldermen believes most firmly in midnight sessions. The docket for the meeting last Monday evening was of a routine nature and certainly did not presage a lengthy meeting. And yet, the board took a recess about 9.30 which lasted until 11.30, and final adjournment was not reached until an hour later.

Alderman Ball and Tucker were the only members absent.

Many hearings were listed on the docket, most of them on petitions for private garages. Opposition developed to the garage of C. L. Heckman on Brewster road, his neighbor, Mr. J. H. Elwell, asking that Mr. Heckman lay out his proposed driveway on the other side of his house, and a letter of protest was filed against the garage of Emma M. Reineohl on Islington road.

Mr. and Mrs. Manson favored and C. J. Michigan opposed a sewer in Troy lane, the latter stating that the petitioners could use the present sewer in Fuller street.

Two gentlemen favored a sewer in Daniel street.

An echo of the attempt made a few weeks ago to prevent the erecting of a store on River street by Dominic Guzzi, by changing the zoning ordinance, was manifested in the hearing to widening River street at this particular point. No one spoke in favor, and Mr. T. W. Proctor, who appeared for Mr. Guzzi, said that the proposed widening would take land from Mr. Guzzi, leaving one corner of his new building on the street line. He had private garages. Mr. F. O. Whitney, one of the engineers of the city of Boston, as a witness to testify that the widening was not necessary. Mr. E. W. Ogden for Lawrence Bond also protested saying the widened street would increase the danger. On behalf of Mr. Bond he offered to submit to an eight-foot building line on the Bond property. Mr. J. J. Gannon said the widening would change the entrance to a storehouse.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by
High School Orchestra

Eighty candidates have signed up for the orchestra. To accommodate the candidates, there are two orchestras. Arrangements have been made for orchestra A to play at Monday morning chorus and remain during the first period for rehearsal. The members of this orchestra are as follows: Organ, Edward Center, Marguerite Russell; Clarinet, C. Feeney, Dorothy Anderson; Cornet, P. Russell, Geraldine Longwell; Cello, Elizabeth Savage, M. Roman; Drums, F. Sawyer; Saxophone, S. Webster, R. Clement, L. Bassett; Piano, George DeGrasse; Violins, Elizabeth Bicknell, Marguerite Burke, J. Burns, Emily Chamberlain, Richard Cummings, Lucille Dewing, Raphael Fox, Clayton Hoyt, A. Jones, Elfrida Kervorkian, W. Krzwicki, E. LaCroix, R. Lawson, C. Leary, F. Lopes, J. McCarthy, Eleanor Savage, D. Siebert.

Bigelow School

The highest attendance record for the month of October was that of Miss Searle's division—99.93 per cent; Miss Heloise Chase's class came next with 98.4 per cent.

Friday morning, October 24, at Assembly, Miss Hunt from the New England Dairy and Food Council gave a talk, illustrated with lantern slides, on "Putting Pep into the Automobile." She very interestingly showed how the proper kinds of foods keep the body in good condition and contribute to our efficiency.

The entire Bigelow School is enrolled 100 per cent strong in the Junior Red Cross.

Mr. Irvin D. Reade has been elected to the eighth grade and director of the Burr playground in place of George E. Caswell, resigned.

Mr. Reade trained at Hyanis Normal School and Rhode Island College of Education. He has served as principal of grammar schools in Hatfield, Mass., and Warwick, R. I., also having had charge of athletics in those places. We give him a cordial welcome.

Stearns School

Miss Eleanor Cleare, of the New England Dairy and Food Council, gave an interesting picture talk to a large group of third and fourth grade children and another to two hundred fifth and sixth grade pupils.

The Stearns School deeply regrets that Mrs. Witherill has resigned her position as teacher of the third grade to make her home in Waterville, Me. Mrs. Witherill has been much loved by children and teachers and her going is felt to be a distinct loss to all of us. Our good wishes accompany her in her new home.

We are glad to welcome Mrs. Edna Erret who has been assisting in the Clafin School this fall. She has been appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mrs. Witherill.

The Kindergarten has already reached the maximum number of pupils that can be cared for. Seventy pupils have been enrolled. No more can be entered because of lack of accommodations.

Mr. Charles Thomas, our janitor for several years past, has been transferred to the Underwood and Lincoln schools. Mr. John Cronin of the Technical High has been appointed to take his place.

The per cent of attendance of the Eliot School for the month of October was 97.3 and the Stearns School was 96.3.

Mr. Young's sixth grade and Mrs. Witherill's third grade had the highest—98.7 and Miss Smith's first grade at the Eliot was 98.3.

NEWTON DEFEATS LASSELL

"To do or die," was the motto of the Newton girls' hockey team as they swept down the field defeating Lasell 6-3 in the first game of the season at Lasell Thursday.

During the first two periods practically all the playing was done in Lasell's territory. Although Lasell put up a peppy game, Marion Frost's pretty hitting made it practically impossible for the team to break through to score. Estelle Abbott did excellent work for Lasell, making all three goals. Newton's goals were scored by Shirley Eddy (3), Dot Bryant (2), and Chille Auburn with her clever stick-work (1).

Mason School

The day after the national election, grade eight held its election of class officers.

Room 10 was turned into a voting precinct with booths, ballot box, and checking lists. The results are as follows: Caroline Lewis, president; June Wilbur, vice-president; Dora Cummings, secretary; and Galen Bloom, treasurer.

The girls of Newton Highlands met a team of Mason girls on Saturday at 10:30 on the Highland Playground and defeated them, 9 to 3. A return game is to be played this week Saturday on the Newton Centre ground.

The Newton Centre School Association has appropriated money for two subscriptions to the Popular Science Monthly, to be used as reference material for the science teaching.

Angier School

The fifth grade is still leading in the attendance race. This is the fifth week they have been entitled to display the Angier School banner in their room.

Former Coach Houghton's Fessenden Juniors lost to the Angier School in a football game at West Newton last Thursday, 19-7. A previous game resulted in a 0-0 score. Another game is to be played later in the season. Leach, Woolston, and Holmes showed well for the winners.

Tuesday the Angier School defeated the Bigelow School football team in a close but loosely played game, 20-19. Out in its first trial at quarter made a good showing. Woolston, Leach and Seignier played a fine game. Long forwards to Robbins featured.

Last week the second grade had charge of the Assembly. After the regular exercises Lucie Brown read the story of "The Proud Crow and the Peacock Feathers." It was then dramatized, Vernon Phipps, Philip Gates, Richard Anderson and Fred came taking the parts of crows and Martha Sneath, Charlotte Tobey, Lucie Brown and Priscilla Tobey, acting as the peacocks.

F. A. Day Junior High School

Considerable interest and effort are being shown in the preparation of selections suitable for the Prize Speaking Contest soon to be held for representatives from all the classes in school.

The eighth grade classes have elected the following officers for the year: President, Daniel Harrington; Vice-President, Constance Rachel; Secretary, Beatrice Armstrong; Treasurer, Donald Parker.

The Social Studies classes have held trial elections in true poll style in the class rooms.

Last Friday afternoon the Day Junior High School football team defeated the Wellesley Junior High team at Wellesley. The Newton boys were considerably lighter than in previous games due to the absence of Larabee, Lyman, and Paul. In the backfield, James Brown proved his worth by kicking three goals, throwing long, accurate forwards, and making long runs. The only Wellesley player who caused any noticeable trouble was Ramsden.

This week the Junior High had a strenuous schedule with the Country Day School on Thursday and Waltham South Junior High on Friday.

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

The Kindergarten children observed Halloween with a party to which the parents and friends were invited. Every child was present and there were thirty-six guests. The room was prettily decorated by the children who entertained their mothers with songs and games. The usual milk luncheon was amplified with Brownie cookies and cake. After that the children went out to walk and Miss Bennett held a short mothers' meeting speaking on the coming physical examination of the Newton school children.

On Tuesday, October 30, Mr. Dodge was invited to enjoy with the seventh grade a special entertainment prepared by the members of the "Sunny Hour Book Club." A play called "The Honest Woodman" was given by Dorothy Terriault, Arnold Seligman and Edward Osborne.

"Makers of the Flag," a dialogue, was presented by Alice Crowley and Walter Billings. This was followed by the salute to the flag and a patriotic recitation by the class.

Edith Wood and Margaret Bridley dramatize the first chapter of "The Courtship of Miles Standish."

Original Halloween stories were read by Helen Preble, Alice Yablonsky, Dorothy Terriault, Arnold Seligman, Walter Billings, Katherine Burley, Dorothy Lynes and Anthony Khorey.

The football team was defeated in the last two games, losing to the William Carter Junior High School, Needham, by the score of 11 to 5 and again to the Peirce School, West Newton, by the score of 19 to 0.

The occasion of Halloween was observed with parties in three primary classes, Miss Hunt's, Miss Dill's, and Miss Nickelson's. The children had much fun with games and jack o' lanterns.

The graduating class have received and are wearing their new class pins this week. The design is that of a shield with a raised center bearing the numerals '25. Above the raised center is the word Emerson and below is the word School, both being in blue enamel.

Miss Smith's class has set a new high mark in attendance on the report for the period which closed on October 30. A round 100 per cent is the record. This record extends even beyond the four weeks and covers now seven weeks. The attendance for the entire school for the second period was 97.4. Miss Kelly's class stood second to Miss Smith's with a record of 99.7. Miss Smith's class had a party on Wednesday afternoon to mark their high accomplishments.

The courtesy of a visit to the polling place on Tuesday forenoon, Nov. 4 was extended to the graduating class by the election officials. The class had an opportunity of inspecting the voting, reading the sample ballot, and examining the voting lists. Mr. Sawyer made explanations and answered questions.

The class of 1924 held an election of officers on Wednesday afternoon, using the equipment of the polling place which had been inspected on the preceding day. The procedure of voting as seen on Tuesday was carried out. The result of the election is as follows: Class President, Julia Azerski; Vice-President, James Murray; Secretary, Bronistarf Grudek; Treasurer, Nina Jacob.

Miss Ruth Sanborn of Cambridge was the maid of honor, and Mr. Frederick Garland of Cambridge the best man. The ushers were Mr. Chester F. Davis of Providence, and Mr. Edwin Bagley of Worcester. A reception for members of the families was held after the ceremony. The bridal couple will live in Boston.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Mothers' Council of West Newton was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Lauriat, 85 Temple street.

—Mr. Curtis, chairman of the Newton Board of Health, gave an interesting and instructive talk on medical inspection in the Newton schools. Dr. Curtis was followed by Dr. Richard Smith, the eminent child specialist of Boston, who talked on "The Care of Children." The next meeting of the club will be Gentlemen's Night, to be held December 1st, at which time Professor Dallas Lore Sharp, of Boston University, will speak.

—Last week Tuesday Miss Mary Richard of Hazelhurst avenue became the bride of Roger S. Hubbard of Crest road, Natick. The marriage took place at St. Joseph's Church, Waltham. Miss Alice Gallant was maid of honor and Mr. Thomas Richard also of West Newton the best man. The bride's gown was of white georgette crepe and that of the maid of honor of peach velvet trimmed with silver with hat to match. A reception was held last Saturday at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard are to live in Natick.

LIME TREE SPANWORM

At the present time the Lime Tree Spanworm, or the Lime Tree Wintering Moth, is attracting considerable attention. The moths attracted to the lights are the male species, as the female are wingless and to be found on trees. They deposit their eggs under rough bark at this time, and these eggs will hatch in the spring during the month of May. The caterpillars somewhat resemble the canker worm, but are considerably larger and feed on quite a variety of fruit, shade and forest trees.

These moths have been found in Lowell, Worcester, Brookline, and Boston.

Apparently the insect will be much more common next summer. For effective control, trees should be sprayed early in May with arsenate of lead.

Last Friday the first practice was held for the swimming team. The outlook for the coming season is very encouraging. New material has appeared which it is hoped will strengthen the team.

The Newton Y. M. C. A. will compete in the Two-State 1000 point athletic contest which starts this week throughout Massachusetts and Rhode Island in all Associations. Each Association conducts athletic events in their building and submits results to the State Office where they are compared. A different event each week will be contested. On Tuesday night, of this week, the senior class will hold the twenty-yard dash as the first event. The same event will take place on Thursday and on the following week the event will be two standing broad jumps.

Even though it was election evening, a large number of the directors came together for the regular November meeting. Mr. Harold T. Dougherty, the Treasurer, presented the budget for the year beginning November 1st, 1924. Plans for the older boys' conference in December were presented by L. Chase Kepner. Mr. C. V. Moore spoke about the work of the physical department and the General Secretary, Mr. H. W. Bascom, called attention to the increase in membership and use of the building during the past year.

Mr. F. D. Fuller, President of the Newton Y. M. C. A., has been elected a delegate to the first meeting of the National Council which will be held in Buffalo on December 5th.

The first meeting of the Fellowship Club will be held on Monday evening, November 10th. Mayor E. O. Childs will be the speaker. Supper will be served at 6:30 and the speaking will begin soon after seven. Young men are invited to be present.

November 9th to 15th has been set aside as a week of prayer for young men. "Youth and a New World" is the general topic.

SLACKERS IN POLITICS

Slacker! What a hateful word! No merit could be applied to Americans that would cut their pride more keenly than the one word "slacker." Resentment and denial of the charge would be prompt and bitter, but would the resentment be justified? Just because an accusation mortifies us is no indication that we are guiltless. Rather the inference is that if we are "touchy" the spot is sore. There are many kinds of slackers, particularly in politics.

Four Kinds of Political Slackers—Slackers in International Politics; Slackers in National Politics; Slackers in State Politics; Slackers in Local Politics.

Is your conscience clear on all these points? What do you think our relations with Europe should be? Will you work and vote for the group most likely to carry out your views of right? Things are in an awful mess over there. What are you going to do about it?

Do you approve of the Mellon Tax Reduction Program? Will you ask your representatives to vote for or against it? The tax question is nationally important. What are you going to do about it?

In this land of freedom and equality there are many laws glaringly unjust to women. In forty of the States a wife is not legally entitled to her own earnings. What are you going to do about it?

A slacker in local politics is a

A GOODLY CITY

In a recent symposium in a Boston newspaper of the reasons why the cities and towns in Metropolitan Boston are good places to live in, Mayor Childs had the following to say about Newton:—

Newton, the Garden City so-called, originally named "Nonantum" by the Indians, which means "Place of Rejoicing," is a good city in which to live for several reasons:

First—There is plenty of room—less than 50,000 people now occupy an area of 18 square miles.

Second—It is handy to the great city of Boston and yet is suburban, with beautiful country—a city primarily of homes.

Third—It has excellent railroad and good railway service.

Fourth—A fine spirit of good will is abroad in the community. Love is capitalized instead of hate. All kinds, creeds and colors, dwell together in unity, making relationships thereby both good and pleasant.

Fifth—Its citizenship is on a high plane. The people are intelligent, public spirited, patriotic and honest. This guarantees good government. Public officials realize that a public office is a public trust.

Sixth—It is a city of schools—public, private and parochial, where the minds of youth are led over the highway to truth; where patriotism, obedience to law and loyalty to the constitution are stressed by good men and noble women, who are devoting their energies not only to the education of the three R's, but also to the great task of ennobling, enriching and maturing personality.

Seventh—It is a city of parks and playgrounds, more than 300 acres in all. Eighty acres of playgrounds alone, supervised by one of the greatest experts in this country, who has behind him a corps of loyal and most efficient assistants.

Eighth—It is a city of libraries, wherein are available man's best friends—good books.

Ninth—It is a sanitary city where life and property are safe. Good water, sewers, streets, hospital and health. A police and fire service unsurpassed by any city of its size.

Tenth—It is a city where people place the proper appraisal on youth—a city's biggest asset. Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Catholic Club, Boys' Club and Scout troops flourish here, all aiming to make a "better citizen" tomorrow by giving due attention to the mental, physical and moral development of the boys and girls of today.

Eleventh—It is a city of fraternal organizations which hold up the principle of genuine brotherhood and lay great emphasis on "living the life."

Twelfth—It is a city of churches, all denominations, where godly men who are trying to make real the life of God in the souls of men, by precept and example, allure to brighter worlds and lead the way.

WINS $100

Arthur Jones, chauffeur for Mr. John H. Lesh of Beacon street, Newton Centre, was the winner of the prize of $50 recently offered by the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company for this letter: "I am writing to prevent automobile accidents." When Mr. Lesh learned of his success he immediately presented Mr. Jones with another $50. This is the letter written by Mr. Jones:

"Being a chauffeur for 12 years with a clean record, kindly let me tell you the rules that I always bear in mind. Keep my car under control at all times.

"Drive according to conditions of traffic.

"Take no chances whatever, as that is what causes accidents.

"Stop before going over an unguarded railroad crossing.

"If children are playing around, drive very slowly, and never know what they are going to do.

"Test my brakes every morning.

"Do not cut in and out of line in heavy traffic.

"Never pass a car until I have a clear view in front of me.

"Slow down for cross streets, so that I can stop in case the other fellow cannot."

Mr. Alfred M. Reichart is the scoutmaster of the new troop at West Newton. Mr. Reichart is another one of the old scouts who have come back to the movement as an officer, having been a scout in old troop 9. After seeing service in the World War he spent some time in Washington and now has come back to this vicinity to live and the Council are very glad to welcome him as scoutmaster.

THE LITTLE TOWN OF MALIN

By J. D. Monahan

I am far across the ocean, I am far away from home, And many years have crossed the trail

Since I left Old Inishone.

But not a day has passed away

That I have not heard the call,

"Come ye back to dear old Malin,

The little town of Malin,

In the county Donegal."

The picture of her wave beat shore

Her tall cliffs that breast the sea,

The little church and graves close by

Are memories dear to me.

I can hear her green hills whisper,

Hear her vales and rivers call—

"Come ye back to dear old Malin,

The little town of Malin,

In the county Donegal."

The very faces of my friends

Remain just as clear today,

As when they bid me fond good bye,

While they brushed the tears away.

I still can hear Dan Paddy Roe,

Sarah, Mary, Grace and Paul—

"Come ye back to dear old Malin,

The little town of Malin,

In the county Donegal."

Ah! yes, I passed some happy days

In this great land of the Free,

The truest friends I ever had,

Live on this side of the sea.

I must heed the Old Sod's call—

"Come ye back to dear old Malin,

The little town of Malin,

In the county Donegal."

THE BUILDING CODE

Public Hearing on Proposed Changes Advocated By Chamber of Commerce

A public hearing on the proposed changes in the Newton Building Code was recently held at City Hall.

The hearing was held by Aldermanic Committees. While the attendance was not large, those present indicated a deep interest in the proposed changes, no opposition being voiced by those present to the recommendations submitted by the Chamber of Commerce.

In opening the hearing, Chairman Pitts explained that a request for modification and revision of the present ordinances had been received from the Newton Chamber of Commerce, with specific recommendations for changes which were deemed desirable by a Chamber of Commerce committee which had been studying the subject. These recommendations were considered as a whole, rather than section by section.

The Secretary of the Chamber stated that the Chamber Committee had indicated several ways in which building costs could be reduced through modification and revision, without diminishing the effectiveness of the present Code.

It was also believed that certain sections of the Code were difficult of interpretation in their present form, while other sections were not in conformity with the Zoning Ordinance, adopted subsequent to the Building Code. Prompted by a desire to have the present ordinance clarified, as well as to seek out ways to reduce building costs, the Board of Directors approved the appointment of a special committee to study the present Code, and report back to that body.

This committee, of which Chairman G. Wilbur Thompson of the Building and Development Division is chairman, includes an architect, a construction engineer, a contracting mason, a contracting carpenter, a plumber, and an electrical contractor, with Buildings Commissioner Cecil C. Chadwick meeting with the committee in an advisory capacity.

The recommendations of this committee were incorporated in a proposed revision of the present ordinance, as it applies to construction, by a subcommittee which includes Buildings Commissioner C. C. Chadwick, Albert S. Kendall, and John P. Hurley, while another subcommittee, including Chairman G. Wilbur Thompson and Alfred G. Kerr of the Chamber committee is engaged in rewriting the plumbing section of the Code, and will report at a later date.

Chairman G. Wilbur Thompson of the Chamber committee stated that his sub-committee was working on the proposed changes in the plumbing ordinance and would be prepared to make a report within a few weeks, following such action as the Board of Aldermen may take in regard to the recommendations for revision of the ordinance as applied to building.

Former Buildings Commissioner Walter R. Forbush suggested various minor amendments, in the way of phraseology and helpful suggestions, to the Chamber recommendations. Buildings Commissioner Chadwick stated that he approved of the recommendations submitted, but said that one of the chief advantages to be gained would be to greatly clarify the present ordinance. While there were opportunities for reducing costs on residential buildings, most of the savings would probably be effected on larger structures. Various others spoke, it seeming to be the consensus of opinion that recommendations of changes and modifications in the plumbing code would perhaps offer more numerous opportunities for reducing costs than the proposed changes in the building sections of the ordinance.

AN OLD OFFICER ON PROHIBITION

To the Editor of the Graphic: An extended experience in police work in the City of Boston may entitle me to an opinion of some value to the public, respecting prohibition of the liquor traffic.

I was born in Chester, Vermont, in December, 1849. I had 41 years of service on the police force of Boston. I began my work in 1873 and was located in one of the worst parts of Boston. I had to deal with all kinds of crime. During the six years I was located in that part of the city, I made 71 arrests, relating to all kinds of law violations. There were wife-beaters, thieves, murderers, men so brutal that they would strike down their wives with large sticks of wood or any other implement they might find convenient. I rescued nine persons from drowning during that time, and recovered many dead bodies from the harbor. In all this list of crime and trouble, liquor was the chief cause. It would be impossible to overstate the curse it was to many of the homes that came under my observation.

I was later transferred to the South End (E. Dedham street station), which was a much easier place for police work. But I was soon given one of the most difficult routes in the South End, and again I came across people in all degrees of criminality and immorality, and found the same old story that liquor lay at the foundation of nearly all cruelty and wrong doing of all kinds. I remember particularly one family where a very beautiful girl got led away by her love of dancing, and soon engaged in drinking and went steadily down, and when her rescue was attempted fought all efforts for her reclamation.

I was greatly influenced by the temperance lectures of John B. Gough, and his dramatic presentations I assure you were in no way overdrawn, especially as to the horrors of delirium tremens and the degradation that follows liquor drinking.

I was later located in a section of the City of Boston. Much has been said about the advantages of beer. My experience with drinking is, that beer-drinkers become more gluttonous, more degraded and often more brutal than any other kind of drunkards. I know of one instance where the movement of a wife and mother of what was at one time a very respectable family, who finally came to drink four quarts of beer in four hours and at last committed suicide as a result of her habits of intoxication. Another instance, the son of a wealthy man, who owned a sail boat which he was forbidden to take out except under supervision. Disregarding all rules, and taking liquor with them, he with some other boys went out into the harbor and became too intoxicated to handle their boat. They were drowned and the body of the young man was washed ashore.

These are isolated instances of many that I could enumerate, but they all go to show that the greatest curse of humanity is liquor drinking in any case under supervision. As one familiar with the vices and crime incident to habits of intoxication, I am a hearty advocate of prohibition and believe that law enforcement in this direction should be as vigorous as in any other and that the public sentiment of the community should support all officers of the law who are trying to make Boston a clean city to live in.

EDWIN PIPER.

NEW PARKWAY

The metropolitan planning division of which Mr. Henry I. Harriman of this city is chairman, in a report filed recently with the clerk of the House, recommends construction of a new automobile highway seven miles long, at an approximate cost of $1,000,000, from the West Roxbury parkway, near Weld street, across Newton to Watertown. The report, filed in compliance with a resolve passed by the last Legislature, recommends the construction of two sections of the highway next year, the cost of this particular work being estimated at $500,000.

The document points out that the project has been under consideration for a number of years.

The proposed route starts at West Roxbury parkway, near Weld street, in West Roxbury and runs over public or private land to Newton street, south of South street, Brookline; thence along Newton street to the corner of Newton and Hammond streets; thence over land owned by the state through the lost pond and Hammond's pond districts to Beacon street, Newton; thence over a widened and approved layout of Hobbs road and Intervale road to Commonwealth avenue; thence westerly along Commonwealth avenue to the corner of Cedar street; over Cedar street, widened, to Mill street; over park property of the city of Newton to Cabot street; along Cabot Park, Lewis terrace, Jackson road and past Boyd Park to Morse street in Watertown.

Of the seven miles constituting the proposed highway, two and a half would be new construction. The first section, which is recommended for early construction, would be from Weld to Newton street, and would cost about $111,000. The other section, recommended for early construction, is from the junction of Hammond and Newton streets to Commonwealth avenue, the cost being about $338,000.

As an alternative the commission recommends the construction and improvement of Suffolk road at a net cost of $50,000.

DEATH OF MRS. HENSHAW

Although in failing health for several years, the death of Mrs. Katherine F. Henshaw, which occurred at her home in Newton Centre Friday morning, Oct. 31, came as a surprise to many friends.

Mrs. Henshaw was the widow of John E. Henshaw, a well-known sculptor and designer of Boston and Lowell, and had resided in Newton for thirty-two years.

She was a woman of a quiet, retiring nature, much beloved by all who knew her and retained a keen interest in public affairs to the end.

She leaves two daughters, Julia C. Henshaw, librarian at Newton Centre, and Blanche E. Henshaw, a teacher in the Brookline schools.

The funeral services were held at her late residence, 50 Paul street, Newton Centre, Monday, November third, and were conducted by Rev. E. M. Noyes of the First Congregational Church, Interment at Lowell, Mass., her old home.

WOMAN'S ASSOCIATION OF CENTRAL CHURCH

The all day meeting held Wednesday by the Woman's Association of Central Church had a large attendance, 200 being present at the luncheon. A large number worked on the aprons which will be sold at the meeting of Dec. 3. Mrs. J. D. Bennett is chairman of this branch of the work. Another group under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Allen made surgical dressings which will be sent to Dr. Percy Watson for use in a hospital at Fencho, China.

Dr. and Mrs. Ellis were warmly welcomed and the address by Dr. Ellis on "Women and the Church" was listened to with intense interest. He said that not as a sentimentalist would he consider the subject of the work of women. It has been treated in that way too often on Mother's Day and other like occasions. He commended the work of women in the church and especially the group of deaconesses whom he considered most efficient.

Among other things he referred to the changes constantly taking place which led to new and different viewpoints and responsibilities. Now the woman in the home can not be bounded by her own household. To serve her own children she must interest herself in community welfare. She must consider the larger aspects of education, amusement and sanitation. As man has to do with the material things and can see tangible results so woman whose work is of a more personal nature must wait long for the outcome of her labor. The trend of modern life with its many interests and its hurry has interfered with the exercise of the devotional life in the home. The father used to be the priest of the family. Formerly he announced in tone of authority the hour his children must start for church. Now he asks, "Who would like to go to church today?"

The pictures of the men of a past generation suggest a totally different type of character—that of the philosopher, a man of granite. In this age if religion is to be taught in the home it is the mother who must be the priestess. It is through her prayers that children are consecrated to high and holy tasks.

Mrs. Deatour described the various improvements which had been made in the church property. The work had been helped on by some generous gifts and further changes are to be made in the woman's parlor.

Miss Anna Albrecht of Mrs. B. A. Robinson. Tables were appropriately decorated with pumpkins and fall berries. A large bunch of yellow chrysanthemums was presented to Mrs. Ellis. Mrs. F. C. Bassett was chairman of the serving committee.

FITTING THE BOOK TO THE CHILD

Newton Free Library Helps Parents Choose Books For A Child To Own

Fitting the book to the child is what Children's Librarians throughout the country are doing every day in the year. During Children's Book Week, however, they turn their attention toward helping other persons find the right books to buy for the child's own home library. With this end in view, some of the best children's books will be displayed in the Main Library of Newton and in the Branch Libraries during Book Week from November 9 to 15. Seeing the books themselves is of the most help to parents or to any older person interested in developing a child's taste for owning good books. For those who cannot reach the Library during that week, the following suggestions of books for children of differing ages and taste are made here.

Youngest Children

It is not too soon to begin buying books when a child is only two years old. By that time he can appreciate lovely picture books and can be taught to handle them carefully. As he grows older he will become familiar with the stories or rhymes illustrated by these pictures which at first were only pictures to him without any story behind them. The first of all books to buy for the baby is a nursery rhyme book, and of these a Mother Goose book is of course the best. As in the case of all other children's classics there are numerous editions of this old favorite, so that the parent is at once confronted with the problem of just which edition to choose from the many that are available. One of the best is "The Little Mother Goose" illustrated by Jessie Wilcox Smith. It is a small book as its name implies and, therefore, easily handled by the tiny children. Nevertheless, it contains most of the rhymes we want the children to know. Another book of old nursery rhymes is "Ring o' Roses," illustrated by the Englishman, L. Leslie Brooke. His picture books may be obtained either in large expensive editions or in small paper-covered copies. This fact is also true of other picture-books by such fine illustrators as Randolph Caldecott, Walter Crane, and H. M. Brock.

For the children who are just beginning to read to themselves, there are small story books with many illustrations and large type. Some of these have been loved by many generations of children; others have only been published recently. "The cock, the mouse and the little red hen," "Little Black Sambo," and "The tale of Peter Rabbit" have for years appealed to the natural love of animals the small child has. Newer stories with the same appeal are the "Story of Mrs. Tubbs" and her dog, Punk, her duck, Punk and her pig, Pink, "The Bojari tree" with its strange fruit, and the "Velvet rabbit" or how toys become real. The little children also like to hear true stories about other children and fortunately there are several books which give in a easy clear style the everyday doings of child life. W. J. Hopkins in the Sandman stories has written some of the best there are. The boys like these and the stories about Charlie's adventures with his kitten Topsy and with his puppy Bingo. Little girls enjoy especially Clara W. Hunt's book "About Harriet."

The following list gives exact information about the authors and titles of some of the books mentioned above and for others not mentioned.

Little Mother Goose, illus. by Jessie Wilcox Smith.
Ring o' Roses, by L. Leslie Brooke.
The Country Book, pictures by E. Boyd Smith.
The Story of Mrs. Tubbs, by Hugh Lofting.
The Velvet Tree, by Edith Rickert.
The Velveteen Rabbit, by Margery Williams.
Charlie and puppy Bingo, by Helen Hill.
The Sandman, his farm stories, by W. J. Hopkins.
Shanty, by N. Grisham.

Fairy Tale Age

Almost every year of a child's life belongs to the fairy tale age, but he is likely to be most interested in these imaginative stories between his eighth and eleventh years. That is when he is enjoying "Arabian Nights," Andersen's "Fairy Tales," Grimm's "Household stories" and "Alice in Wonderland." The best editions of these tales are suggested for every child's library. Besides these well known tales, there are some newer ones which also have delicate fancy imagery and humor. Notable among them are Barrie's "Peter Pan," the "Wonderful adventures of Nils" by Selma Lagerlof, "At the back of the North Wind" by George MacDonald, and the stories about Dr. Dolittle, the latest of which is "Dr. Dolittle's circus." Fairy tales are not, however, the only stories in which a child is interested during these years of his life. The doings of animals and real children still hold his attention. Heidi, and the Twins, Hans Brinker and Donkey John are children of other lands who win the hearts of those in our own country. It is joy to find among this year's publications some fine new books about children. "Dora" by Spyri is another story about a little girl of Switzerland by this well loved author of "Heidi." Nora A. Smith has told entertainingly the daily life of two "Children of the lighthouse" who have some exciting experiences on their lonely island. Of animal stories there are two new ones worth special mention. "Jimmy Goldcrest" by Marshall Saunders, the author of "Beautiful Joe," is the story of a monkey and a mischievous little boy. In "Grey-light," Anne Bosworth Green tells of the life of a Shetland pony and his happy mistress.

Poetry also has a marked appeal to children in the fairy tale age, and they give their love to newer poets as well as to the old friends Robert Louis Stevenson, Eugene Field, and James Whitcomb Riley. Walter De La Mare in his "A child's day" and "Peacock Pie," and Rose Fyleman in her "Fairy Plute" and "Fairies and Chimnies" have both written poetry of childlike and fairlike quality. Some of the recent books not mentioned above are in the following list of books for children between eight and eleven years of age. Jimmie, the black bear cub, by E. A. Baynes.

Peep-show man, by Padraic Colum.
Tatay's memories, by E. W. DeHuff.
Rumpy-Dudget's tower, by Julian Hawthorne.
Child's history of the world, by V. M. Hilary.
Peggy's playhouses, by C. W. Hunt.
Nicholas, by A. C. Moore.
Humpty-Dumpty house, by E. C. Phillips.
Tonfif by E. O. White.

Older Boys and Girls

For the older children there are many books of fascinating interest. There are the tales of heroes—of King Arthur, of Robin Hood, of Roland, and of Odysseus. In buying these, the problem again arises of just what edition to choose from the many that are available. The first of all books to buy for the boy is a nursery rhyme book, and of these a Mother Goose book is of course the best. As in the case of all other children's classics there are numerous editions of this old favorite, so that the parent is at once confronted with the problem of just which edition to choose from the many that are available. One of the best is "The Little Mother Goose" illustrated by Jessie Wilcox Smith. It is a small book as its name implies and, therefore, easily handled by the tiny children. ARMISTICE DAY

On Sunday evening next, November 9, an Armistice Day service will be held by all the churches of Newton Centre at 7.30 o'clock in the First Congregational Church, at Homer and Centre streets. The participating churches are the Methodist Church, Rev. R. E. Davis; the Baptist Church, Rev. C. N. Arbuckle, D. D.; Trinity Episcopal Church, Rev. E. T. Sullivan, D. D.; The First Church, Congregational, Rev. E. M. Noyes, D. D., and the Unitarian Church, Rev. G. L. Parker. The speakers will be Edw. S. Cummings, Secretary of the World Peace Foundation, known throughout the country as one of the best informed men in America on international matters and Miss Sarah Wambaugh. Miss Wambaugh has attended every session of the League of Nations. She was Expert Adviser to the Commissions on the Saar Basin and the Free City of Danzig. She is a speaker of wonderful power and charm of manner. Her array of up-to-date facts holds the wrapt attention of her audiences. Let Newton be true to the memory of the men who died for us, for peace and for democracy by attending in full numbers this meeting to see what the world is doing to make true President Harding's words, "It must never happen again."

HALLOWE'EN

The usual celebration of Halloween was complicated last week with the numerous political rallies and meetings held in this city and Boston. The entire police force was on duty all the evening but there was no disorder, the spirit of mischief being satisfied with ringing in false alarms of fire. Boxes 174-29-332-321-173-15-118 and 91 received this attention.

Dr. Edward Samuel Niles, D. M. D., of 60 Elmwood street, who for many years has been a successful dentist in Copley Square and Commonwealth avenue, Boston, has so far recovered that he is receiving patients at his home office, 62 Elmwood street, Newton Corner. Advertisement. tf

EDITORIAL

We must confess to considerable sympathy for the residents of Newtonville who have put up a valiant fight to change the location of the proposed new High School building on Clafin Park. If we recall the proposition originally advanced at the time popular subscriptions were asked for the purpose of obtaining the Clafin estate for municipal purposes, it was contemplated having a civic center at this point with handsome public buildings flanking a vista from Walnut street to the Technical High School building set well back from the street. That suggestion, of course, will never be carried out. If a $600,000 school building is erected squarely in front of the Technical Building.

We still believe the school committee and city fathers made their first mistake in not providing for a new senior high school on the South side of the city. When the Oak Hill section of the city is further developed, there will surely be a strong demand for such a building and it is short sighted policy not to anticipate such development.

In its votes on the various referenda, there were less blanks cast than we expected, showing that the people were awake to the arguments which had been advanced on both sides of the several questions under consideration. We were surprised at the negative majority on the matter of taxing gasoline as we expected an economic proposition like this would have appealed to Newton citizens. When the aforesaid citizens are called upon in the future to pay higher taxes for the extension of good roads, some of them may come to the conclusion that they voted wrong on this question last Tuesday. Incidentally it shows the folly of putting purely financial matters up to a popular vote. It may interest some of those who opposed the child labor amendment to learn that the proposition can be brought up again and again until it is accepted, and that it will require "eternal vigilance" in the future, to prevent ratification of the amendment.

We congratulate the residents of Newton on the splendid showing made at the polls on Tuesday, both in regard to the number of ballots cast as well as to the candidates favored. The percentage of 91.3 compares favorably with the votes cast four years ago when Mr. Harding was elected and with the greatly increased voting list is quite an accomplishment.

We also are pleased at the showing made by our fellow citizen, Mr. Strabo V. Chastin in his contest for the office of state auditor, Newton, for a strong Republican city, certainly came across in splendid fashion for a Democratic candidate.

The experiences at the election last Tuesday should lead our city fathers to divide the voters into much smaller precincts than at present. It is too much to expect of our election officers to require them to be on duty from about 5.30 election morning until two or three o'clock the "morning after." Men cannot do their work efficiently or accurately with such long hours. Our election officers have done splendid work, but they should not be called upon to do it again.

We congratulate the citizens of Massachusetts on the election of Alvan T. Fuller as governor, as it insures a continuation of the policies of former Governor Calvin Coolidge and of Governor Charles F. Cox. We predict a notable administration of public affairs by Governor Fuller who will have a splendid assistant in Lieutenant-Governor Frank G. Allen.

Newton will be well represented in the House of Representatives by Messrs. Saltonstall, Hollis and Luitwiler, albeit we shall miss the sound common sense and excellent judgment of Representative Bernard Early.

NEWTON ROTARY CLUB

The members of the club at the weekly luncheon held Monday at the Newton Club heard a most interesting talk from Mr. J. Adam Puffer on the unusual subject of "Fatherhood a Profession." Mr. Puffer told some unusual experiences he had had with fathers who knew how to chum with their children and advocated a positive method of dealing with young people such as "Do this" rather than the common-place negative manner of always saying "Don't do this or that."

George J. Martin was congratulated on winning the club championship at golf.

AUTO ACCIDENTS

Charlotte White, ten years old, of 400 Ward street, Newton Centre, while crossing Summer street, Newton Centre, at the junction of Lyman and Willow streets, with a group of children on the way to school, was knocked over by Andrew Schwab of 32 Watertown street, West Newton, down by an automobile owned and operated Monday morning, shortly after eight o'clock.

The girl was taken home by a physician and brought him to attend her. She was cut and bruised about the legs and later lapsed into unconsciousness, regaining consciousness late that afternoon.

The group of children, according to Mr. Schwab's report to the police, ran in front of his car. The White girl stopped at the curb and did not cross with the others, but just as the automobile started up she dashed across and was struck down.

Mr. Horace S. Bassett, 77 years of age, of 173 Morton street, Newton Centre, was found last week Thursday night lying in a pool of blood on Homestead street, near Morton, by Charles Scipione of 146 Walnut street, Newtonville. He was unconscious and bleeding profusely from a wound in his head. He was taken by Scipione into a nearby house and later to his home, where three stitches were taken in his scalp by a physician. He was also cut and bruised on the legs and body. He was unable to tell, because of his condition, what had happened, but the police believe he was struck by an automobile and the driver made his getaway. The injuries to Mr. Bassett are serious.

While crossing Washington street, at Lewis terrace on the way to church Friday evening, Miss Mabel Ready of 36 Fairmont avenue, was struck by an automobile owned by the American Auto Livery Company and operated by Pasquale M. Lupo of 123 Middle street, Newton. Lupo was blinded by headlights of another car, Miss Ready was only slightly injured.

Three automobiles were in collision last Saturday afternoon near the corner of Washington and Elm streets. An automobile operated by Mrs. Etta Hays came out of Elm street and was speeding towards the bridge when a machine owned by Mrs. Jessie D. Hodder of Sherborn crowded Mrs. Hays over towards the sidewalk where she struck the car of Frank A. Burke of Derby street. All three cars were damaged but no one was hurt.

Last Sunday a machine owned by William E. Margan of New Jersey struck the car of Charles D. Weather of 762 Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre and bent the mud guard. The accident took place on Commonwealth avenue.

Late Monday afternoon, a Hudson coach owned by Thomas Hennessey of Carver road, Newton Highlands, and operated by Mary A. Hennessey struck the Buick car owned by Bessie L. Rhodes of 480 Parker street, Newton Centre, at the corner of Institution avenue and Centre streets. The Hennessey car was slightly damaged.

Early Saturday evening the Ford truck of John E. Kelley of 610 Water-town street and operated by Clifford Marchant, struck the Dodge car owned by Ralph V. Stearns of Mt. Vernon street. Mr. Stearns was turning around on Washington street near Washington terrace, Newtonville, at the time. Both cars were slightly damaged.

Tuesday evening while Miss Olive Westcott and Miss Chirella Silamen, both students at Lasell, were crossing Auburn street at the corner of Lexington street, they were run down by an automobile owned by Ernest Braithwaite of 366 Central street and driven by Katherine Braithwaite. Both girls were badly cut about the face and legs and were taken to the Newton Hospital.

Early Saturday evening Sally Wright of Victoria Circle was struck and slightly injured while crossing Washington street near Central street, Newtonville, by a machine operated by Harry Sanford of Auburndale. Ruth Colleigh of Forest street, Newton Highlands, was knocked down and slight injured late Monday afternoon while on Lincoln street, near Columbus street by the machine of Harry C. Loud of Carver road. Mr. Loud took the girl to her home.

CADDIE DINNER

The officers of the Albemarle Golf Club entertained 35 of its caddies at dinner on Monday evening at the Newton Club and the lads had a fine time.

W. B. Hanna presided as toastmaster and among those he introduced as speakers and who took occasion to congratulate the club on having such a fine set of boys, and the boys themselves on their conduct and attention to caddie duties, were Francis Oulmet, William Nichols, club president; William Osborne, club director; and William Duffy, the efficient professional at the Albemarle Club. Fred Monte, another club member, held forth at the piano while the boys sang.

Oulmet made a great hit with the caddies, particularly when he told them that most of the "caddie boys" he met in England and Scotland were old enough to be the grandfathers of his audience. Francis was so taken with the Albemarle boys that he donated three clubs to the caddies to strive for next season, the sticks going to the boys with the best caddie record. The winners can go out to his house and select from an assortment of clubs used by him, or he will buy them new weapons. It is safe to say that no new clubs will have to be purchased.

Gold pieces as rewards for all-around service excellence and cups and clubs for record play in a recent caddie tournament were distributed at the close of last evening's dinner. Garret Bailey had 123 of his 127 caddie cards marked excellent and that won for him the class A reward, Francis Glynn earning the second prize. In class B the high boys were Joseph Mullin and Henry Richards, while Sherrard Arch came in for honorable mention—and a number—for his excellent service in the short period of his caddie experience at the club.

The tournament winners were: Leo F. Connor, first gross, cup; Paul Quinn, second gross, club; John Glynn, first net, cup; John Mullin, second net, club; Walter Carson, selected nine, cup.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Some 400 people enjoyed the privilege extended by the Community Service Club of West Newton to inspect the beautiful things brought together by its Art Committee in the parish house of the Second church on Wednesday afternoon and evening. On the walls of the chapel were hung paintings exhibited by the Guild of Boston artists. In the centre of the room (Carbone place) a lovely fountain surrounded by potted cedar trees. Mrs. Allan W. Cooke contributed a collection of beautiful things from Japan and China. One of the small rooms was fitted up as a miniature chapel with altar and candles burning, the carvings being the work of L. Kirschmeyer. Back of it were rich hangings loaned by Mustapha Avigdor, who also furnished Oriental rugs. Charles J. Connick added to the charm of the chapel rare stained glass shown off by electric lights. Peruzzi showed a collection of jewelry. In the evening Mr. William Lester Bates gave a recital upon the organ, including in his program what he called "tone pictures" as an appropriate contribution to the art exhibition, and containing many exquisite bits of musical color. Great credit for the success of the affair, which far exceeded all expectations, is due Mrs. J. D. Roquemore, chairman, and the members of the committee.

Professor Brewer G. Whitmore, of Tufts College, opened his course of Current Events lectures before the Newton Community Club yesterday afternoon. He discussed some of the factors that make a man an available candidate for the presidency. Not every little boy, he said, can be president, for he must be born in the right place. In addition to the geographical factor, he must have political backing, and then, too, the religious factor must also be taken into account. Professor Whitmore described both the Republican and Democratic conventions, which he was fortunate enough to attend, and gave many interesting and amusing sidelights upon them, giving, as he said, some of the things which we were not able to get over the radio. He characterized La Follette as the heavy tragedian of the campaign.

Announcement was made that the French classes will be under the same instructor as last year and will begin on Thursday, November 13th, at 9 o'clock, in the library of the Hunnewell Club. Those desiring to join will please confer with Mrs. Loveland, N. N. 0990. If any care for lessons in Mah Chiang or Auction, they may also confer with Mrs. Loveland.

ARMISTICE NIGHT DANCE

Following its usual custom, local Post No. 48 of the American Legion, will hold its sixth annual "Armistice Night Dance" at the West Newton Armory, Tuesday night, November 11.

The dance this year promises to be the biggest event of its kind ever held in the City of Newton. Special features have been arranged, including a balloon dance, exhibition toe and character dancing by the Sullivan sisters, and the original Colonial Orchestra with new features, accompanied by Keith's singers during the evening's dancing.

The Legion is indebted to the Sullivan sisters for their part in the entertainment as their services are donated for the evening.

The decorators will be the same firm that did such a pretty job "Defence Day" and they have promised to outdo themselves for this occasion. Music and dancing in the Armory will be most enjoyable in the future as a sounding board has been erected on the stage which throws the music to every corner of the Armory.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will serve at the refreshment tables, which will not be in the basement as in the past. The committee, headed by Frank Wilcox, report a good advance sale of tickets and are preparing to handle a crowd of fifteen hundred. The support of the public is solicited, as proceeds go toward carrying on the work of the Legion, which is greater and more far-reaching than generally supposed.

DEATH OF MR. ANGELL

Mr. Irving Angell, who has made his home at 217 Church street, Newton, for the past sixteen years, passed away last Saturday evening after a brief illness. He was in his eightieth year and had been failing in strength for some time past. He was born in Fishkill, N. Y., although his parents were Providence, R. I., people. Until he came to Newton the greater part of his life had been spent in New and New Jersey. In his active business life he was associated with a jobbing house which dealt in linings and trimmings and when he came to Newton he was connected for a time with the S. S. McClure Co. He was an ardent Unitarian, and at his home in Passaic, N. Y., a group of Unitarians met nearly forty years ago to found the Unitarian church of that place. On coming to Newton he became much interested in Channing Church and in the Unitarian Club. He was a man of quiet tastes, kindly and genial, truly a gentleman of the old school, and had made friends to an unusual degree for one along in years when coming to a new community. Services were held at his late home on Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Chester A. Drummond officiating. His remains were taken to Mt. Auburn for cremation and his ashes will be placed in the family lot at Mountcliff. He is survived by two sons, Charles H. Angell of Springfield, Mass., and Howard Angell of Passaic, N. J.

NEWTON CHORAL SOCIETY

The rehearsal for next Tuesday evening will be held at the Congregational Church, West Newton, at 7.45. Automobiles will meet at 7.20 on Walnut street near Quinlan's drug store for any who desire transportation. Good progress is being made in rehearsal for the December concert. Some of the most notable selections to be given at that time are "By Babylon's Wave" by Gounod; "Drake's Drum" (Goderidge-Taylor); and "The Immortal" by Chadwick.

Post Road Farm Milk

Your Milk Supply Is Important

You should demand that your milk is received from a herd of cows that are clean and healthy:

That the stable in which these cows are kept is clean and sanitary;

That the milking is done in a sanitary, careful way;

That the milk is carefully bottled and delivered;

That the tuberculin test be applied to the herd of cattle supplying you with milk, and that you receive milk from a tubercular free herd.

Unless you are getting milk handled under these conditions, you are not getting the best.

It is important to study the source of your milk supply, which will easily determine its quality.

We invite you to inspect our dairy.

If you order from the Post Road Farm, you will get rich, clean milk of fine flavor.

We deliver in Brookline and a large part of the Newtons.

Chief of Police Burke asked the board to revoke a common victualer's license of Joseph Arduino on Langley road, Thompsonville. The Chief stated that Arduino does an extensive coffee business, one third of which was synthetic gin. The department had had Arduino in court where he pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $100 while his assistant, John Delmonte, paid fines of $100 and $150. The board subsequently revoked this license.

Hearings were also held on several pole locations, and on taking land for drain and sewer in Lockesley road, Tamworth road, and off Warren street, at which no one appeared.

Mavor Childs sent in recommendations for several additional appropriations, and Commissioner Stuart reported the completion of work on Trelton road costing $3,096, Vineyard road, costing $1,590, and Gay street, costing $2,165.

A hearing was granted on the petition of F. C. Perry on the location of the proposed new high school on Clafin park. Mr. Perry read a long statement opposing the location on the ground that Clafin park was not to be built upon, that the proposed site had 15 to 20 feet of muck before hard pan was reached, and predicted it would cost $100,000 to get a suitable foundation, and because water would be found within three or four feet of the surface. He told of an amusing meeting with Mr. George M. Andler, chairman of the School Committee, and closed by presenting a substitute plan, placing the new building at right angles to the southerly end of the Technical High School. Dr. John F. Brant told of visiting other high schools and expatiated on the beauty of the Technical High School. He wanted a campus for the benefit of posterity and urged the board not to spoil the present vista.

Mr. John E. Frost said he had lived in Newton over 30 years and this was the first time he had come in "touch with this more or less august body." He also urged the adoption of the substitute plan. Mr. Chas. F. Cheney thought it almost a crime to hide the beautiful Technical High School, and Mr. A. D. Clafin said the donors of the land expected a park to be created on this property. He said no comprehensive plan for development of the park had ever been made, and urged the adoption of the substitute plan. Rev. Edward N. Noyes told of the difficulties found at Yale and urged the adoption of some plan for grouping the mass of proposed buildings on the park. Frederick W. Rust and J. M. Andress also spoke. Later in the session, the board approved an order for $17,000 for improvement of Laundry brook, and thereby virtually refused to consider the matter of changing the site as first proposed. Alderman Walton was the only member recorded against this order.

Petitions of Higgins and Callahan for four bowling alleys at 1156 Walnut street, of Bennie Santillo for pool tables, and bowling alleys at 357 Water-town street, of J. H. Nagle for a victualer's license on Washington street, and of Thomas Dangelo for pool tables on Water-town street, Nonantum, were granted.

Petitions were also received from Eames and Castle for a victualer's license, 24 Richardson street, A. Kasper for a victualer's license at 4 Cheney place, of E. J. Collins for a first class carriage license, for the laying out of Ransom road, for Soldiers' Relief and burial of Miss Mooney for reimbursement of military and other bills amounting to $116.

The board refused to grant the petition for naming a new street "Earl Ave." Orders were passed for water mains in Alban road, Commonwealth avenue, Fenwick road, Huntington road and Lockesley road, for various additional appropriations, and as stated before, for $17,000 for improvement of Laundry brook, $3,000 to be charged to Street Improvements and $14,000 to Sewer construction.

Land of Ross on Commonwealth avenue near Melrose street was changed from a general district to the business district.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 1, Newtonville, held a Halloween Party on Friday evening, at the Parish House of St. John's Episcopal Church. It was a masquerade. George and Martha Washington were there, bobbing for apples; old-fashioned girls competed with clowns for a marshmallow tied in the middle of a string; Halloween sprites and Spanish ladies tried to eat apples suspended from above; and a real ghost-like atmosphere was supplied by Virginia Rogers, who told ghost stories in the dark! The affair was presided over by a witch with a most ferocious cat, who spit at all the guests!

There were prizes at this party—beautiful ones, done up in a most expensive (?) manner, and presented by Captain Larcom, Captain Freeman and Mrs. Trowbridge were the judges. Dorothy Whitney, as Pierrot, was awarded the prize for the prettiest costume; Constance Retchell, who had two faces, and no back, had the most original; and Betty Marshall, a scarecrow, was considered the funniest.

The refreshments consisted of cider and doughnuts, and at the close of the fun, the girls formed patrols and sang Taps.

Services were held at 23 Davis street, West Newton, on Thursday, Mr. E. H. Keach of the Christian Science Church officiating and the burial was in the Newton Cemetery.

Newton Centre

Mrs. A. D. Dowd and daughter of Centre street are abroad for the winter.

Mr. Allen Hubbard of Montvale road is enjoying a trip to the Adirondacks.

The Mothers' Rest met at the home of Mrs. Herman Holt on Wednesday last.

Mr. Augustus T. Beatey of Hammond street is spending a few days in the Adirondacks.

Parish House the Men's Club is to have an entertainment.

Miss Mabel Melcher entertained a few of her friends on Halloween at her home on Berwick road.

Mr. A. Dudley Dowd entertained a number of his friends at his summer home at Craigville over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill of Lake terrace will leave on November 16th for Pinehurst, N. C., where they will spend the winter.

This evening will be Student Night at the First Baptist Church. Mr. Chester M. Loucks and Miss Florence Daniels will speak on "The Fitchburg Campaign."

The women of Trinity Church are to have a luncheon in Trinity Parish House on Monday at 12:15. After the luncheon there will be an address on "Indian and the West" by Rev. Royal H. Balcom of Wind River, Wyoming.

Tuesday afternoon, 9-year-old Mary Russo of 1217 Centre street, climbing over a roof at her home, fell to the ground, sustaining several bruises and possible internal fractures. She was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

There will be a Union Service at the First Church Sunday evening, Nov. 9 at 7:30 P. M. This is Armistice Day. The speakers are to be Dr. Edward Cummings of Boston, Sec. of the World Peace Foundation, and Miss Sarah Wambaugh, an expert advisor on the Commission on the Saar Basin.

On Friday, Nov. 14, an In-door Winter Golf Tournament will be held in the parish house of the Unitarian Church under the auspices of the Laymen's League. Mr. William F. Garcelon, President of the Massachusetts Golf Association, is expected. The Men's Clubs of Newton Centre are invited.

DEATH OF MR. CALKIN

Frith D. Calkin, proprietor of the F. D. Calkin Printing Company of 274 Devonshire street, Boston, died Friday at his home, 84 Berkshire road, Newtonville, after a brief illness. He was born in Deer Isle, Me., forty-five years ago. Going to Boston when a boy of fifteen, Mr. Calkin entered the printing business and rapidly made his way until he owned a plant of his own. He was a member of Mt. Vernon Lodge of Masons of Malden, and of Park Street Church. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Charlotte M. (Foley) Calkin, and two children by a former marriage, Miss Marguerite Calkin and Miss Hazel Calkin; his father and mother, who live in Malden; three sisters and two brothers.

Services were held at his late home, 84 Berkshire road, on Sunday. A Masonic service by Mt. Vernon Lodge of Malden assisted by the Rev. Albert D. Parker of Newtonville. The burial was at Mt. Auburn.

FOOD MARKET IN WABAN

On Friday, November 14, from 2:00 to 10:00 P. M., there will be a Food Market in the Vestry of the Church of the Good Shepherd at Waban in aid of the Church. The rooms will be decorated in a very attractive fashion and there will be many interesting features for all who come—a tea room for the grown ups, a room for the children and entertainments for the children and young alike. From 5:30 to 8:00 P. M., supper will be served a la carte.

The ladies of the Parish are working great success and feel confident that everybody in town will seize the opportunity very hard to make the affair a party to aid in a good cause and enjoy home cooking.

Newton Upper Falls

Miss Jewell F. Crowley is one of the graduates of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital School of Nursing.

An anniversary mass of requiem for the late Fr. T. Danahy, was celebrated at the Catholic Church last Wednesday.

The Upper Falls football team played and defeated the Medford Athletic Club on the Upper Falls playground last Sunday, score being six to nothing.

Rev. Mr. Laurence McLure of the Grace Church, Newton, conducted the services at the Stone Institute last Sunday. He was accompanied by several of the choir who pleased the ladies with songs.

On Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Wesley Bible Class of the M. E. Church, a social and entertainment will be given the fathers and sons. Dr. George H. Spencer will give lecture on "Flat Wheels."

At the Methodist Church Sunday evening there will be a lecture, "Child Life Around the World." This lecture will be illustrated with lantern slides, made from actual photographs. Every one cordially invited.

Mrs. J. Young, well-known resident of this village, died at her home on Boylston street, last Friday. Burial services were at her home on Sunday, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Jensen of the Baptist Church, and interment was at Newton Cemetery.

A very jolly and entertaining Halloween party was held at the home of Elsie Jewett on High street, to her many little friends last Friday afternoon. The rooms were appropriately decorated with pumpkins, witches and black cats, and the little ones thoroughly enjoyed the games and refreshments.

Over twenty small friends of little Miss Lenore Elwyn of Boylston street, attended the birthday party given in her honor, last Thursday afternoon, to celebrate her fifth anniversary. The rooms were prettily trimmed in pink and white, and unique favors were given to the children. Indoor and outdoor games were played and plenty of goodies were provided.

POLICE COURT

Barney Cohen of Malden, employed by a Newton Corner florist, who according to Police Sergeant Moran and Patrolman J. Franklin Munroe, made a sale at his employer's shop of four roses in a bottle, was fined $100 in court last Friday morning on a charge of making an illegal sale of intoxicating liquor.

Joseph Gentile of Oak Avenue, West Newton, who was convicted in Court last week of setting fire to a dog and fined $100, was in court again Saturday morning on a charge of burning a dog owned by Joseph Cappelli of Oak Avenue. The case was continued to next Saturday.

The case of Raymond Farrell of 147 Morse street, Newton, charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, went over another week.

In Court Monday morning there appeared a group of several men, ranging in age from 16 to 40, charged with larceny of cigars and cigarettes from the garage of William Sweett, Commonwealth Avenue, West Newton. The gang was arrested Saturday night by Motorcycle Officer Larry O'Donnell after it was alleged, they had lunched at Sweett's and walked out with a supply of smokes. Joseph Milligan of Cottage place pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny and was sentenced to three months in the House of Correction. He appealed and was held in $300 bonds. Reggio Cavallo of West Newton was found guilty of larceny and sentenced to the Shirley Industrial School. He appealed and was held in bonds of $300. Fines of $25 were imposed on the others of the gang on charges of receiving stolen property. This latter charge being placed against them instead of larceny after the conviction of the above named. A sentence of 30 days in the House of Correction was imposed on James Watson of Washington street, West Newton, who was with the gang, but was charged only with drunkenness.

James Chirug of 21 Orient Avenue, Newton Centre, was fined $15 last Friday morning for speeding. He was arrested by Patrolman E. Chadwick.

John Bouchard of 420 Watertown street, Nonantum, pleaded guilty in Court Wednesday morning to the charge of making an illegal sale of intoxicating liquor to an officer in plain clothes and was given a suspended sentence of 30 days in the House of Correction by Judge Bacon. Bouchard was arrested early that morning by Serg. Moran and patrolmen Veducchio, C. Feeley and Walker.

Manuel Enos of Washington street, Newtonville, who, the police allege, is the owner of the "Ghost Still" raided two weeks ago by Sergeant Leehan and his squad, was sentenced to one year in the House of Correction yesterday afternoon by Judge Bacon. Enos appealed the sentence, the severest in the history of the court.

BAD FIRE

The worst fire in several months took place early Sunday morning in the garage of Mr. H. Newton Marshall on Kirkstall road, Newtonville, causing damage estimated at $7000.

The fire was discovered by patrolman Cleary, who rang in an alarm from box 235, which is some distance from the blaze. This caused the Fire Department some confusion, so that apparatus was delayed several minutes.

The building, which formerly was a stable, is located on the top of a high hill next to the Cabot Woods. Below the house, on Harvard street, are many dwellings which for a time were threatened.

A second alarm was sounded at once, bringing all the Newton apparatus and some from Watertown, Woburn and Waltham. It was necessary to use a pumping engine to force the water to the top of the hill. Several small fires which started in the woods were easily extinguished.

The garage was a total loss, but Mr. Marshall's residence was saved after a hard fight.

Officer Walter Maloney was overcome while helping officer Dan Cleary remove three automobiles from the building, but he was soon revived.

Waban

Mr. Stuart Gomey of Annawan road leaves next Sunday for Detroit, where he will be engaged in the copper industry.

Officer Nathaniel Seaver of the Newton Police Force is enjoying his annual two weeks hunting trip into Northern Maine.

In turning out 96 per cent of her registered voters, Waban did considerably better than some other sections of the city.

Mrs. Walter B. Peabody and her daughters, the Misses Gretchen and Mildred Peabody, for many years residents of Waban, have moved to Boston.

The Cotters' Club will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. A. L. Stephen on Chestnut street. Mrs. Stephen and Mrs. C. H. Walker are to be the hostesses.

The Young People's Forum of the Union Church enjoyed and profited by the Rev. Alfred V. Bliss's stereopticon lecture on "Out Among the Red Men, learning all about them."

The Paulette Caron Club meets today with Mrs. F. C. Courley on Annawan road. The Club will welcome two new members: Mrs. W. L. Stott of Beacon street and Mrs. Clifford H. Walker of Chestnut street.

On Saturday, Nov. 15th, the Waban Neighborhood Club will hold its first informal dance of the season. This is considered as a Junior dance, but all members and guests are urged to attend. Sid Reinherz's orchestra will furnish the music.

The Ladies' Circle of the Union Church will hold an all-day sewing meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 10:30 A. M. Mrs. W. J. Dimock will be in charge of the work for the Morgan Memorial, and Mrs. James D. Dow will be the luncheon hostess.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 12, at the Neighborhood Club, an All-Community meeting under the auspices of a Citizens' Committee, will be addressed by the Hon. R. W. Luce, our Representative in Congress. "The Work of Congress." All citizens are invited.

On Wednesday evening, November 19, at 8:15, under the auspices of the Waban Neighborhood Club, the Boston Chamber Music Club, under the leadership of Mr. Daniel Kuntz, will present a concert at the Club. Every member of this club is an artist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

NEWTON PAIS WIN

On Sunday afternoon, at Boyd Park, the Newton Pais handed the Bernies All-Stars of Upper Falls, their first defeat of the 1924 season, defeating them by a score of 6 to 3.

It was a fast game from start to finish with both teams fighting fiercely for the lead. In the first quarter, "Porky" Proctor of the All-Stars kicked a beautiful field goal from the 38-yard line and this put the All-Stars in the lead 3 to 0. In the last quarter of the game with five minutes left to play, McArde, Newton Pais left tackle, scooped up a fumble and raced 18 yards for a touchdown. The point after was missed.

Lyman, Hughes and Arsenault in the backfield together with Mahoney, McLean and Aucutt in the line played a fine game for the Pais. Howard Aucutt, quarterback, deserves a world of praise for his brilliant runs in the closing minutes of play. J. Dargon, aggressive right end also played well and was fast down under punts. Neal Mahoney and "Porky" Proctor of the All-Stars also played well. A large crowd witnessed the game and H. Wright refereed.

BRAE BURN COUNTRY CLUB

About three hundred attended the dinner dance at the Brae Burn Country Club on Tuesday night, the club has an excellent radio set and members "listened in" on the election returns.

Mrs. H. I. Harriman of Centre street is giving a dinner at the Brae Burn Club this evening for Miss Eunice Harriman and the wedding party. Miss Harriman is to be married on Saturday.

On Tuesday, Nov. 11, the Directors of the Newton Hospital will have a dinner at the Brae Burn Club.

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor

General satisfaction must be felt at the results of the election that it was a sweeping victory, and not what many had feared, so close as to throw it into Congress. We congratulate Mr. Claughton upon his poll in Newton, and trust that his hopes, at present writing, of having been elected will prove true when all the precincts have been heard from over the State. We may rejoice that the so-called "Baby Volstead Act" has at last been passed and that Massachusetts may now be rated where she belongs, even though she comes in at the tag end. The daylight saving, we hope, is also settled for the present. That the Child Labor referendum should receive so overwhelming a defeat is a matter of regret to those who voted for it, but it may be that some better way may be found to accomplish what everybody surely must want, proper protection for youth, that they may become "fit" men and women in the future. Now that the election is over, let us settle down and accomplish something worth while.

State Federation

Monday, November 10, 10:30 A. M., 3 Joy street, Boston, Dr. B. L. F. Falcou, district secretary, U. S. Civil Service Commission, will be the speaker at the first lecture in the course on Federal Administration.

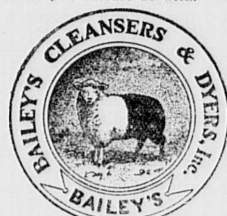

Wednesday, November 12, Department Conference for the Sixth district, at Morgan Memorial, with the Women's Auxiliary as hostess. Morning session devoted to Mothercraft and Child Welfare, and the afternoon to a Public Health program. Tickets for the luncheon should be secured from Mrs. Fred S. Davis, Massachusetts Chambers, Boston. Sessions will be held in the Church of All Nations, 89 Shawmut avenue, Boston.

Newton Federation

Friday, November 14, 2:30 P. M. Ernest W. Butterfield, commissioner of education for New Hampshire, will speak at the Fall meeting, which will be held at the Congregational Church, Newton Highlands, on "Home and School Discipline." Miss Madeline W. Cobb will sing, and tea will be served under the direction of the Social committee, Mrs. Edward H. Rugg, chairman. Mrs. Ernest Cobb, the new president, will preside for the first time over a public meeting, and it is expected that a large number will be on hand to greet her, as well as to

Newton Women Aid Episcopal City Mission

The Woman's Aid of the Boston Episcopal City Mission is to have a fair Friday, November 14, from 10 A. M. to 6 P. M., at the Parish House at Trinity Church, Copley Square. The members of all the parishes of Greater Boston are interested in this work. Miss Dorothy Harris of Lee street, Brookline, is chairman of the fair, with Mrs. R. A. Thayer, Newton Centre, vice-chairman. Among others from Newton who are also interested are the following: Mrs. Irving Atwood, of St. Paul's; Newton Highlands, who will have charge of the Household table; Mrs. J. L. Barry, of Trinity Church, Newton Centre, who with Mrs. R. A. Thayer will have charge of the Basket table.

Women's Civics Club

Hon. Frederic H. Cook, secretary of the State of Massachusetts, will speak on "Good Citizenship and How to Maintain It," at the meeting at the Hotel Brunswick, Boston, Wednesday, November 12th. It is expected that Attorney-General Jay R. Benton, will also be present and speak informally. There will be discussion afterward. Mrs. Joseph B. Brown will lead the Current Events, and Mrs. George N. Hayden, of Newton Highlands, will preside.

Local Announcements

Miss Harriet M. Ward will review Gamaliel Bradford's book, "The Soul of Samuel Pepys" at the meeting of the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C., which will be held with Mrs. Ernest G. Haggood, next Monday afternoon.

November 11th is President's Day for the Abundant Woman's Club, with special guests of honor, Mrs. Joseph Leach, first vice-president of the State Federation, Mrs. William H. White, district director, and Mrs. Ernest Cobb, president of the Newton Federation. Two plays will be presented by home talent, "Antiques" and "The Pot Boil" with Mrs. Robert H. Aborn, chairman. The meeting will be followed by a reception and tea for guests and friends. At the business meeting, Miss Evelyn Chase of the Newton Public Library will speak for ten minutes on books for children, in connection with Children's Book Week, which is November 9-15. The evening of November 11, at 8:00 P. M., the two plays will be repeated, that no members may be crowded out by the larger meeting of the afternoon. This is open to members and guests. Members must present membership cards for admission; there will be a small fee for guests.

Newtonville Woman's Club

Dr. Mellyar H. Lichtner, a former pastor of Central Church, Newtonville, now of Columbus, Ohio, will speak in Central Church on November 11, at 8 P. M., on "Old Lamps for New." Admission is free to club members on presentation of club tickets. Guest tickets will be on sale at the usual rates. The Home Economics department, Mrs. George E. Eames, chairman, is calling for choice receipts from club members for a Club Cook Book. The proceeds from the sale of such a book will be devoted to the Housing Fund. Please send receipts as soon as possible to the chairman of this committee. The last meeting of the cooking class will be held on Monday, when Miss Weiner will give an interesting lesson on fancy breads and rolls. Single tickets may be obtained for this demonstration. Mrs. Robert E. Hills, chairman of the volunteer service committee, requests that all knitting done during the summer be turned in at once. The class in applied design, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Bond, a graduate of Normal Art School, will meet on Monday morning, November 17, to make parchment lamp shades. Two or three more can be accommodated in this class, which is limited to fifteen. A course in metal work with Mr. Peter Kuntz, formerly with Tiffany of New York, for instructor, will be formed if a sufficient number is interested. For membership in either of these classes application should be made to Miss Cora W. Rogers, 17 Clafin Place, Newtonville.

The course in Government for the Newton Centre Woman's Club will be continued next Tuesday morning with a non-political talk on our government at Washington by Prof. A. C. Hanford, of Harvard University. Mrs. Charles B. Gleason will give the first paper in Newton Social Science Club's course at the meeting on Wednesday morning. She will discuss "The Struggle for Civil and Religious Liberty in the Colonial Period."

Miss Amy Sacker will speak on "Interior Decoration" at the meeting of the Newton Community Club on November 13th. Miss Sacker, who has studied both in Boston and in Rome, is now head of her own School of Decorative Design and Interior Decoration in Boston.

The regular meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club, Friday, November 14th, will be given up to a Bazaar in aid of the club treasury which will be held at Players' Small Hall from ten in the morning until ten in the evening. There will be tables for the sale of useful and fancy articles, toys, dolls, games and grabs for the children, as well as food and candy. Afternoon tea, a children's play at four o'clock, supper at six-thirty, and a reader and a singer in the evening are among the attractions offered. Mrs. Francis E. Nowers is in charge of all arrangements, and under her efficient direction the members are working enthusiastically to make the affair a great success.

The Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club will meet on Saturday, November 15, with Mrs. Harry N. Milliken, Franklin street, Newton. Mrs. S. L. Eaton will be in charge of the quiz on "Two Gentlemen of Verona."

Local Happenings

Mr. W. F. Clark, of Cambridge, substituted for Miss Martha Howie, who had been announced to speak upon "Japan" before the Newton Mothers' Club on Monday afternoon. Mr. Clark, whose experience has been in Northern Japan, gave a most interesting account of the life and customs of the country. Miss Howie's pictures, which were very lovely, were shown upon the screen. A social hour afterward closed a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. Stanley High, through his experiences as Eastern correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor in 1922, was able to present a strikingly vivid picture of the Russia of today in his talk before the Newtonville Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon. He described a Russia whose ultimate goal and methods of attaining it are singularly at odds. A professedly communistic nation rests upon aristocratic laws, the safe solution of many of its problems depends upon capitalism, the very thing communism is dedicated to destroy, and youth marked with open-mindedness and keen desire for knowledge is being trained in atheism. In spite of these opposing fundamental facts, Mr. High holds an optimistic view for Russia's future, for two excellent reasons. From his observation he is quite certain the Soviet Government does not represent the people of Russia, but through it they will be able to find a way out; and a great hope lies in its young men and women, who are streaming to Russian Universities. One of the ways by which Russia can be helped, he thinks, is to get in touch with the increasing intelligence of the illiterate; to answer their questions on capitalism, and correct their misconceptions of a democratic government. In closing he stressed the great importance of co-operation among the nations of the world, in establishing Russia in the place which her immense territory, industrial resources, and naturally intelligent people deserve. Preceding the lecture, Mrs. Ivan Linden Pettys sang a well selected group of songs, her clear enunciation adding much to the pleasure of listening.

The civics committee is elated over the success of the food sale which added $96 to their philanthropic work. Mrs. Rice and her committee return grateful thanks to the generous response from club members.

The Social Science Club held its first meeting of the current season on Wednesday, November 5, with Mrs. Franklin E. Smith, the new president, in the chair. The morning was devoted to business—reports of committees, etc.

Y. W. C. A.

The Board of Directors of the Young Women's Christian Association will hold their next monthly meeting at the rooms of the Association on Wednesday, November 12th at 8:00 P. M. The usual Committee meetings will precede the Board meetings. The next meeting of the Blue Triangle Club will be devoted to an Initiation Ceremony when several new members will pledge themselves to the purpose of the Club and the Y. W. C. A.

The High School Club will hold its next meeting on Friday with supper at 6:00, and discussion on "The News of the World" at 7:00, to be led by Miss Pierce, followed by games in the gym.

Bowling has become very popular with the Y members and more and more proficiency is being developed. The high peak being reached by Miss Alta Blakeley with a score of 106 for one string, many of the other scores ranging between 80 and 90. It is expected that a regular tournament will be put on soon.

The swimming parties going to the Brookline Tank each Wednesday evening are proving more and more popular also.

The Gymnasium classes are well under way, and it is strongly advised on those girls who intend to take Gym work this winter register as soon as possible.

A social dance for the members and their friends will be held on Saturday evening, November 8th from 8:00 to 11:00. Non-members should obtain their invitations from the office of the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A., or from members.

LARGE VOTE CAST

In the first (Lower Falls) reaching City Hall at 7 P. M., and the last (Chestnut Hill) about 5 A. M., Wednesday.

The entire day passed off without any serious difficulty, other than the delay in standing in line for the opportunity to vote.

In West Newton, several persons deposited ballots without marking them. Considerable excitement was created early in the morning in front of the West Newton polling place when the automobile of William Meehan, one of the election officers caught fire and the fire department was called to extinguish it. There was great interest in the city over the result of the election, and the various clubs held open house that evening with a large attendance at each. They included the Hunnewell Club, the Elks Club, the Knights of Columbus, and the Newton Catholic Club, while the Community Theatre held a special performance lasting until midnight.

CAMPAIGN FOR SAFE MILK

The following address by Mrs. William A. Bedford, chairman of the Public Health Committee of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, was delivered at the Public Health session of the Newton Community Welfare Conference, October 16:

Probably most of you have never doubted the safety of your milk—we take our milk supply for granted the way we do our water supply. Why? Because we have a Board of Health supposed to relieve us from thinking about these things.

It is astonishing to many to learn that the purity and cleanliness of our milk supply rests wholly with the Newton Board of Health and not with the State Board of Health.

It is still more astonishing to every one to find that our Board of Health has failed to take advantage of modern progressive means for milk protection as the Board of Health of most of our neighboring cities and towns have done.

It has been proven by scientific men that the following infectious diseases may be transmitted through the milk—scarlet fever, diphtheria, septic sore throat, dysentery, typhoid fever and tuberculosis. Tuberculosis may be transmitted both from the human being and the cow. There are several protective measures that our City Board of Health could adopt that would give us far more protection than we have now. The first measure deals with Tuberculosis—the Tuberculosis that may be transmitted through milk from a tubercular cow. The second measure deals with proper bacterial examination of all our milk.

It has been definitely proven that tuberculosis can be transmitted from a tubercular cow through its milk to the child drinking it. Careful investigation by the New York City Health Department found that about one-third of all cases of tuberculosis of children under five was due to this bovine tuberculosis, and nearly as large a percentage for children between five and fifteen. Knowing this, our Federal Government has co-operated with our State to eradicate tuberculosis in cattle.

You know of course that there is at present no law, State or City, requiring our cattle to be tested for tuberculosis. Recently one near-by farm which was furnishing milk was found by the State to have several tubercular cattle. Until then this milk from these cattle was the main diet of little children in Newton. Knowing that more of our cattle may be tubercular, we wish our Board of Health to adopt a measure that will give us more protection—by requiring all our milk sold in Newton to come from tuberculin tested cattle, or otherwise the milk must be perfectly pasteurized.

If we have our cattle tuberculin tested according to the accredited plan, the State makes the test and all cows reacting to the test are slaughtered. The State and Federal Government each pay the farmer about $25 for each cow slaughtered, and the farmer sells the slaughtered cow for whatever price he may get.

Tuberculosis is very insidious. It is difficult to trace. It is not like an epidemic and yet our institutions are filled with tubercular children. One has only to visit Peabody Home to realize the effect of only one type of this disease. Soon we are to raise money by Christmas Seals to assist in the relief and eradication of it, and yet our City continues, not ignorantly, to allow many of its children to drink milk from cows that may be and probably are tubercular, and our Board

IMPRESSIONS OF THE WEST

On Friday, August 22nd, the writer with forty-four other members of the Appalachian Mountain Club of Boston, started on a Western trip under the leadership of Mr. Harrie Whitney.

As we stayed only a day of two in each place, our impressions were necessarily fleeting. There was no time to learn of the population, industries, activities, or character of the people. The later, to the outward eye at least, showed no striking differences from those of the "Effete East." They seemed just "plain folks" such as we have here in New England, with all the faults and virtues of the latter. But the country, even to the least observing, presented differences from that about New England, and even from Europe.

The trip started officially from Boston, from which place we went directly to Montreal, but as we had only an hour or so in Montreal, it may be said to have really begun at our first stopping place, Toronto, Ontario.

Here a sight-seeing automobile made a very comprehensive trip of the city. We were much impressed with the beauty of Toronto situated as it is on Lake Ontario, which lay bright and smiling in the morning sunshine.

The city is apparently one of considerable wealth and culture. Its boulevards are broad, and its homes unusually attractive. Most of the latter were of the style of English homes with a few touches of the French. The city was covered with a profusion of flowers all well cared for and with wonderful lawns. We amused ourselves deciding which of the many beautiful houses we would like to live in. Some of them reminded one of the covers of "The House Beautiful."

An early afternoon train brought us to Port McNicoll where we boarded the palatial lake steamer for a trip through the Great Lakes.

One often hears of rough passages through these lakes, but on the Sunday on which we sailed through them they were as calm as Boston harbor, with almost no motion of the ship, and with bright sunlight making life one of joy and gladness.

The scenery along the Great Lakes was not striking. For the most part they seemed inhabited, the summer homes scattered along the shore being largely hidden by the trees.

One striking incident of the trip will always remain with me. At Sault Ste. Marie we stopped for a few hours from about midday to Mr. Ernest Hermann, Superintendent of Playgrounds, who has just returned to Newton after taking an active part in the proceedings of the Congress.

The test suit of the government against two daily newspapers is of absorbing interest here because of its ultimate political effect. While the publication of certain tax returns in the daily newspapers excited the readers of the big cities for a few days, those concerned over tax matters here are wondering what the public reaction would be to listing the tax returns of the leading citizens and business houses of the smaller communities where civic affairs have a more personal touch. This is a feature which has been discussed quietly in Washington but as yet has not been given national-wide circulation.

At present the question of making tax returns public is not a partisan question, as it affects all classes of political thought. The final determination of the new issue undoubtedly rests with the courts and the Congress. If the courts hold that in a legal sense the intent of Congress to open the tax books to the public was clear, whatever repeal or modification is proposed will become exclusively a legislative matter.

If you live in a rural community and have often envied the privileges which are supposedly given to city dwellers, it may be pleasing to learn that in this matter at least your views will carry more weight with legislators. If you could penetrate the thin veneer which congressmen and government executives affect on the premise that the tax measure is in the law of the land, it would be quickly discovered that they are not at all sure of their position.

Here is the question they are asking in Washington today. "What could happen if the weekly newspapers published in the smaller communities the leading business men and retired farmers in their respective districts?" Those who advocate the modification or repeal of the tax law argue that its pernicious effects would be felt throughout the community. The people approving this new departure in income tax law contend that the publication of names and amounts of assessments is the only means of guarding against fraud and tax-dodging by wealthy people.

The complaints which have reached the Treasury Department point out that the policy as laid down in the present law involves a great peril to the credit and business of the country. Some have gone so far as to say that the publication of names and amounts of assessments is the only means of guarding against fraud and tax-dodging by wealthy people.

Interlaken taking the place of the lake.

The lake, too, is of an indescribable color, neither blue nor green, but a kind of bluish-green with a touch of amber where the sunlight filters through. In front of the hotel which faces the glacier are some gorgeous poppies which give a most attractive touch to the scene.

In spite of the blizzard, our party after a hearty lunch, started for Mirror Lake, a short but stiff climb at the right hand side of the lake. Some climbed still higher to Lake Agnes, called the "Lake in the Clouds." This was literally true on the day on which we arrived, for clouds were all about us. A charming tea room on this little lake was a most welcome resting place where we secured warmth and shelter.

Rising abruptly at one side of Lake Agnes was the Beehive so called from its shape. Several of our party climbed this.

Contrary to our expectation, the following day dawned bright and clear, the glacier looming up in dazzling white. We scattered in many directions according to our tastes. Some took the upper Glacier walk which gave us beautiful views of the lake looking towards the hotel and away from the glacier. Some rested by the side of the lake in one of its many summer-houses. Some climbed onto the glacier for a short time, and some took the mountain from which one could see the valley along which the train had come from Banff with the Bow River meandering through it in one direction, and in the other, look into the glacier, and beyond into Paradise Valley dominated by Temple Mountain.

11,625 feet above sea level. The morning trip was a thrilling one for many automobile trips from Lake Louise was the ride into the Valley of the Ten Peaks, all snow covered, jagged and most picturesque, with Moraine Lake nestling at their base. This was not a trip for the timid, many times it seemed as if a foot to the right or left would send us crashing into the valley below.

Many of the party visited some of the camps in the vicinity, camps luxuriously fitted up, and most comfortable and attractive.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington, Nov. 5.—With the elections over, and explanations in order from all quarters, attention of official Washington is turning to the publicity features of the income tax law.

The test suit of the government against two daily newspapers is of absorbing interest here because of its ultimate political effect. The early risers will find President Coolidge walking briskly around the pathways along the Potomac River, or through the business districts gazing in shop windows, accompanied only by a secret service guard. The President does not play golf like his distinguished predecessors, Harding, Wilson and Taft, and walking is practically his only exercise and diversion as he is not enthusiastic over theatres. The late President Wilson was an enthusiastic vaudeville fan. Mrs. Coolidge is also an ardent pedestrian. But she prefers a more leisurely gait and unless she has shopping in view, which she usually does on foot, her promenades are likely to be along the Potomac, or in the woods in the course of a motor ride in the country. Mrs. Coolidge's escort is a tall, distinguished-looking secret service man who was selected by the First Lady of the Land for this detail when she entered the White House. The President is usually ready for his walk about six o'clock in the morning, the old New England habit prevailing. His office hours, however, do not begin until nine o'clock.

Chief Justice Taft is also a pedestrian and in fair weather usually walks from his home to the Capitol, where the Supreme Court is located, a distance of nearly two miles. The late President Roosevelt was perhaps the most energetic of Chief Executives. He usually left the Executive mansion on horseback and, dismounting, would tramp for miles through the woods and open country. Mr. Roosevelt was a trial for the secret service men assigned to guard him, because he took a keen delight in escaping from the White House at an early hour, jumping bushes in the grounds to avoid the vigilant guardians.

Among the present Cabinet, Secretary of State Hughes is one who believes in walking as a form of exercise, as does Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. As a rule these men are seldom recognized by the casual passerby.

RECREATION WORK

National recognition of the social importance of the recreation movement to the United States was demonstrated by the attendance of over 600 delegates from every State in the Union at the Eleventh Recreation Congress, just adjourned in Atlantic City, according to Mr. Ernest Hermann, Superintendent of Playgrounds, who has just returned to Newton after taking an active part in the proceedings of the Congress.

The increasing scope of recreation work is illustrated by the report made public at this Congress, held under the auspices of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, that the number of cities with recreation systems has increased since its organization, from 41 to 680, said Mr. Lee today.

To make good sportsmen of all Americans, to help them all to learn to play the game, was the conception of the objectives of the national recreation movement, as expressed by Dr. John H. Finley, associate editor of the New York Times, in opening the Congress, Mr. Hermann stated.

"Of all nations we know the least when to rest and play, and do neither systematically or to our profit," charged Dr. Frank Alvah Parsons of the School of Applied Art of New York and Paris. "Complete rest, relaxation or entire change of physical action are essential to health, happiness and success. Scientization, standardization and acceleration are the new American trinity. We shall soon be incubating our descendants and will eventually be scientized out of existence, unless we give more heed to the humanizing influence which the recreation movement represents."

Labor wants leisure to live but not to loaf, declared Matthew Woll, vice president of the A. F. of L. "Industry neglects the human factor," said Mr. Woll. "It is becoming dehumanized. The labor movement and the recreation movement have a common objective in the pursuit of happiness."

Success of the Wilkes Barre Community Chest, bettering of local conditions, improvement of public spirit, and increase in culture, were all credited to the effect of recreation on the social life of his community by Col. G. Smith of the Wilkes Barre, Pa. Times. "Recreation is the greatest display advertising that a community chest can have," declared Col. Smith.

Laws for universal physical education in the schools have increased from eleven to thirty-three since 1918, when the National Physical Education Service was organized by the Playground and Recreation Association of America, it was stated.

Setting aside a portion of all future real estate sub-divisions for use as playgrounds was advocated by William S. Harmon, nationally known realtor and president of the Harmon Foundation. "This will not only mean increased benefit to cities but larger profits to plot owners, Joseph P. Day, New York auctioneer declared.

American cities are starving for music, it was stated by Professor Peter Dykenna of Columbia University. A drive was therefore launched to get cities to spend more money in providing their citizens with music. The expenditure in various States now ranges from $150 a year to $244,245. A committee of national scope was appointed to urge increased municipal music activity in the backward cities and sections.

The social menace of mature minds harnessed to the emotions of babies was presented by William Van de Wall of Harrisburg, Pa. representing the Bureau of Mental Health of the Pennsylvania Department of Welfare. "Educated emotions are the greatest need of modern mankind," said Mr. Vandewall. "Our intellectual life has progressed at a more rapid rate than our emotional development." The improvement and cure of the mentally afflicted was emphasized by Mr. Van de Wall.

A native drama which will be truly national is being born in the United States, Professor Frederick H. Koch, director of the Carolina Playmakers predicted. Rural youth needs recreation as much as the city youth. According to Henry S. Curtis, director of hygiene and physical education for the State of Missouri. "A boy who is riding on a moving machine does not get any better exercise than the girl who is running a typewriter," he said.

Training classes where parents may learn to play with their children were advocated by Mrs. A. H. Reeve of Philadelphia, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, as a cure for the present crumbling of home life.

The recreation congress, an annual event, of which the one just ending is the eleventh, is made possible by the Playground and Recreation Association of America. It serves as the rallying place of the progressive recreational thoughts of the United States.

NEWTON CLUB

On Tuesday evening at the Neighborhood Club election returns were read following the neighborhood dinner. The dinner committee consisted of the following: Mrs. Fred E. Mann, chairman, Mrs. W. H. Graham, Mrs. H. G. Sumner, Mrs. A. D. Quimby, Mrs. S. S. Dodd, Mrs. S. E. Horton, Mrs. H. J. Nichols, Mrs. F. C. Bassett, Mrs. C. A. Boutelle, Mrs. H. D. Billings, Mrs. R. J. Graham, Mrs. P. T. Thurston.

Bridge and Mah Jong were enjoyed during the evening. Tomorrow night will be Men's Night. Collation at 10.30. On Wednesday, Nov. 12, the ladies will hold an afternoon bridge. The hostesses will be Mrs. W. H. Graham and Mrs. A. L. LeBaron.

CITY OF NEWTON, MASSACHUSETTS NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals for building about 556 feet of concrete culvert for Hyde Brook, in Newton, Mass., from Nonantum Road (Charles River Basin Parkway) to near Nonantum Road, will be received with plan on file in the office of the City Engineer of said City, numbered and dated as follows: 1887, dated October 24, 1924, entitled "Hyde Brook, Charles River Basin Southern, Plan of Proposed Reconstruction from Nonantum Road to near Nonantum Place," will be received at the office of the Street Commissioner, City Hall, West Newton, Mass., until 11 A. M., November 14, 1924.

All proposals must be upon blank forms furnished by said commissioner, and must be accompanied by a certified check upon a national bank or trust company in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the sum of $1,000.00, payable to and to become the property of the City of Newton if the proposal which it accompanies is accepted and the bidder neglects or refuses to comply with the terms of the proposal.

A sufficient bond for the faithful performance of the contract in the penal sum of Fifteen thousand dollars will be required. Specifications and terms of contract can be obtained at the office of said commissioner. Said commissioner reserves the right to reject, either any or all proposals or to accept any proposal, and to award the contract as he may deem to be for the best interests of the City of Newton, and any contract made will be made subject to appropriations and grants to meet payments thereunder.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

of Boston

HORTICULTURAL HALL

NOVEMBER 11

Doors open at 10 A. M.

Admission 25 cts.

A DESERVING CHARITY

No Greater Boston Charity has a more deserving appeal than the Guild of the Infant Saviour. Sponsored by His Eminence Cardinal O'Connell, it continues to grow in its helpful influence and accomplishes much in a quiet way. The group of women that have taken up the work of the guild are untiring in their zeal to help the unfortunate mother and the delinquent child. Its principal means of providing funds to carry on this noble work is the annual sale in November. This year it will take the form of a Donation Day and Rummage Sale. The affair will take place at Horticultural Hall, Boston, on Tuesday, Nov. 11th. Already the members of the guild are spreading their slogan, "Tonnage for Our Rummage." Won't you, dear reader, contribute something you perhaps have cast aside that you may help a poor, unfortunate mother or a delinquent child? Subscribers in any form will be most gratefully welcomed. For this district please communicate with Mrs. A. W. Moriarty, Newton Centre, or Mrs. H. E. Ross, Chestnut Hill, Mass.

THE VISITING NURSE

The place of the visiting nurse in the community health program of Newton will be the theme of the interesting program which has been planned for the coming Annual Meeting of the Newton District Nursing Association.

The meeting will be in the form of a dinner to be held at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House, 1280 Centre street, Newton Centre, at 6:30 P. M., on Monday, November 10, 1924. The price of the dinner will be $1.00 per plate, and reservations must be made not later than November 7, at the office of the Newton District Nursing Association, 12 Austin street, Newtonville (Newton North 4880-W). All who are interested are invited to make reservations.

The exhibit of the District Nursing Association which attracted so much favorable attention at the recent Newton Community Welfare Conference will be shown at the meeting, and will be an added feature of interest. The exhibit, which was prepared under the direction of Miss Marie M. Knowles, pictures, in a series of doll scenes, "A Day With A Visiting Nurse."

Mrs. George W. St. Amant, president of the Association, will preside at the annual meeting. A brief business meeting will be held, with the submission of reports of the year's service and the election of officers for the coming year. Most of the time, however, will be given to the speakers of the evening.

Mr. George M. Angier, president of the Newton Central Council, will bear the greetings of the Council to the Association and to its new executive, Miss Elizabeth Ross, who came from New Haven to assume the position of Superintendent of the Newton Association on November 1.

Dr. Henry F. Keefer, as a representative of the medical profession, will speak on the work of the District Nursing Association from the standpoint of the physician.

Mr. Cheney C. Jones, Director of the New England Home for Little Wanderers, will discuss "The Need for Preventive Work for Children." Mr. Jones is one of the leading social workers of Boston, and he has recently come to Newtonville to live, so that he brings both a local and a professional interest to the discussion of Newton's problems.

Miss Elizabeth Ross, the new Superintendent, will speak on "Our Part in the Community Program for the Coming Year."

Miss Ross brings to her position in Newton a thorough training and broad experience in public health nursing. She is a Boston woman, her parents having been residents of Roxbury and she herself having lived most of her life in Greater Boston.

In 1907 she entered the Newton Hospital Training School, graduating in 1910. After graduation Miss Ross took up Public Health work immediately, going first to Brattleboro, Vermont, as visiting nurse with the Brattleboro Mutual Aid Association.

A year later she came back to Boston to work with the Women's Municipal League, supervising nurses for the experiment which was at that time being launched under the name of the Household Nursing Association. This Association is now a flourishing organization with its headquarters on Newbury street, Boston.

From the Household Nursing Association she went to Norwood, Mass., to undertake the supervision of the health work in the Norwood Civic Association. This was the first experiment in health centers in the country, and Miss Ross stayed with the Norwood Civic Association for five years building up the public health work, at the same time serving on many of the local and State Committees for Nursing, especially that of the American Red Cross.

At the time this country went into the war Miss Ross was called by the National Red Cross to take the position of Director of Nursing for the New England Division. She served in this capacity from October, 1916, when this type of decentralization was first established for the war program, until the spring of 1919, little over three years and one-half. This covered the whole active war period when the task of the Red Cross was recruiting of nurses, and the New England Division all through that period recruited about one tenth of the Red Cross enrollment.

After the signing of the Armistice, the Red Cross program became a Public Health program, and for one and one-half years Miss Ross remained with the organization on that readjustment. From there she went to New York for a short course in Industrial Work, and was for about a year at the West Orange Community House, but resigned from there to take the position of Associate Superintendent of the New Haven Visiting Nurse Association in 1921. At that time New Haven was carrying on an experiment with the Health Center, and it was for this that Miss Ross went to New Haven, to undertake the nursing supervision for the Visiting Nurse Association experiment which ended during the year of 1923. The New Haven Nursing Association is an organization with a large staff of fifty nurses and is one of the most up-to-date and progressive nursing organizations in the country.

Miss Ross has come from New Haven to Newton just at the time when the Newton Association is ready to begin a program of reorganization, as recommended in the survey made last spring by Miss Frances V. Brink of the National Organization for Public Health Nursing.

The officers of the Newton District Nursing Association are: President, Mrs. George W. St. Amant; Vice-President, Mrs. F. E. Stanley; Secretary, Mrs. Charles L. Smith; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Justin Whittier; Auditor, Mrs. Harry P. Bradford; Superintendent, Miss Elizabeth Ross; Miss Marie M. Knowles, Associate Superintendent.

Livermore, Jr., and Mr. Wendell B. Livermore of New York. Funeral services will be held at Newton Cemetery Chapel Sunday at 3 o'clock.

—Mr. Leon M. Lamb, a linotype operator employed by the Graphic Press, was the victim of a painful accident on Wednesday afternoon at the company's plant on Centre place. During the process of removing a huge stereotypers' rolling table from one part of the building to another, one of Mr. Lamb's feet was accidentally caught under a roller and given a severe crushing. First aid was quickly administered by Dr. Stuart of Waltham, who ordered the injured man removed to his home immediately. But Mr. Lamb showed his courage by refusing to leave and stayed on the job the remainder of the day.

N. H. S. PENTATHLON

Newton High School track athletes will have an added incentive to get an early start in fall training work. The Newton Athletic Association, which is composed of graduates and citizens of the Newtons who are interested in the growth of athletics at the High School have offered three prizes for an event which will henceforth be known as the Newton Pentathlon. The event, which as its title suggests, is composed of five forms of track competition.

This afternoon the trials for the 50 and 100-yard dashes will take place on Cabot park, with the finals run off on Monday afternoon. On Wednesday afternoon there will be the trials and finals in the broad jump and shot put and on next Friday afternoon the cross country race will take place.

In scoring the Pentathlon the system that is used in scoring cross-country races will be used, one point for the winner, two for the runner-up, etc. Thus the athlete with the smallest score at the end of the competition will be the winner and entitled to the silver cup which the athletic association has presented. The second place winner will be given a silver medal and the third place winner one of bronze.

The N. A. A. is made up of citizens and Alumni of the Newton schools and gives its support to every Newton High team.

The Pentathlon Prizes are a sample of its work. Another sample was the supplying of six coaches to assist Dickinson during the week before the Waltham game.

Coach Dickinson says the N. A. A. fills a long felt want because its supports high school athletics; and he feels that the work of these six men were responsible for the wonderful showing Newton made against Waltham.

On Dec. 3rd the N. A. A. will banquet the coach and his team at the Newton Club and if the team wins the Suburban League gold football will be awarded.

MR. COPELAND'S LECTURE

The first lecture in the Fortieth Series offered under the Read Fund Foundation will be given in the assembly hall of the Hunnewell Club, Eldredge street, Newton, on Wednesday next, November 12, at eight o'clock.

The lecture will consist of readings from Bret Harte and Mark Twain by Professor Charles T. Copeland of Harvard University. Mr. Copeland is known and loved by a generation of Harvard graduates. He has already appeared in two previous series of Read Fund Lectures and has drawn large and enthusiastic audiences.

Professor Copeland's methods are very different from those of the traditional reader. He does not declaim but reads from book or manuscript. There is nothing theatrical about his methods, yet his control of emphasis, his diction and, above all, his uncanny capacity to interpret the author's meaning has always delighted and instructed his audiences.

The second lecture of the series will be given by Dr. George E. Vincent, President of the Rockefeller Foundation of New York City, on Wednesday evening, November 19. Dr. Vincent's subject will be "An Adventure in Public Health." The trustees consider themselves fortunate in being able to secure so distinguished a lecturer for this course.

PUBLICITY METHODS

Newton Central Council To Hold An Interesting Series Of Conferences On Publicity Methods

A course of ten weekly sessions on the subject of "Publicity Methods in Social Work" will be given in the near future by the Newton Central Council, under the direction of Arthur Dunham, Executive Secretary of the Council, assisted by a number of publicity experts as speakers and leaders of discussion on special topics.

The purpose of this course is to help the welfare organizations of Newton to do better publicity and educational work. The course is intended primarily for board and staff members of Newton social agencies, but it is open to anyone interested, upon payment of the registration fee of one dollar. This fee will cover the cost of several pamphlets to be used in the course.

The first meeting of the class will be held at 3.30 P. M., on Wednesday, November 19, 1924, at 12 Austin street, Newtonville. At this meeting the members of the class will decide upon the day and hour for subsequent meetings.

Registrations for this course should be received by the Newton Central Council, 12 Austin street, Newtonville (Newton North 2717) not later than Saturday, November 15. Registrants for the course must register either as Members or Listeners. Members will be expected to give some time to actual supervised "practice work" in publicity, outside of the class sessions. In particular, each Member will be expected to carry through some one special publicity project, probably in connection with the work of his own organization. Those who expect to get valuable practical results out of the course are strongly advised to register as Members rather than Listeners. "Learning by doing" applies to publicity, as to everything else.

Outline of Topics for Course

1. The A B C of Welfare Publicity. Special speaker, Robert W. Kelso, Executive Secretary, Boston Council of Social Agencies, and Chairman of the National Committee on Publicity Methods in Social Work.
2. Planning a Social Publicity Program.
3. Newspaper Publicity—The Boston Newspapers. Special speaker, (Continued on Page 9)

PREFERENTIAL VOTING

Some years ago the Voters of the City of Newton, after a great deal of public discussion in the various parts of Newton, adopted by popular referendum the preferential voting method for the election of City Officers.

A bill to abolish preferential voting in Newton, sponsored mainly by citizens who were opposed to this method at the time of its original enactment, was passed by the last legislature and comes before the voters on referendum at the city election in December.

There is danger that this important question will be acted on by the voters without adequate consideration. It should be the subject of public meetings in all the wards of Newton.

The Good Government Club of Auburndale will hold a Public meeting open to all voters of Newton, at the Auburndale Club Hall, at 8 o'clock on Wednesday, November 19, for a discussion of this referendum. Mr. Rupert C. Thompson, Chairman of the Newton Republican City Committee, who will advocate a "yes" vote on the referendum will open the meeting. A "no" vote will be advocated by Alderman Geo. M. Heathcote. After which the meeting will be opened for general discussion to anyone who wishes to speak.

If you have a clear conviction as to how you should vote on this important question, you owe it to yourself and your neighbors to attend this meeting

MR. JEWETT HONORED

Eminent Sir Knight Asa C. Jewett who has just been installed as Grand Commander of Knights Templar of Massachusetts and Rhode Island was tendered his first public reception on Monday evening by Gethsemane Commandery of which he has been recorder for many years.

The event was opened to the ladies and at least four hundred members and ladies were present. A most satisfactory dinner was served in the early evening in Temple Hall. While the members of Gethsemane Commandery held a short meeting the ladies were entertained by music in the banquet hall. Later the assemblage was opened to the ladies for a splendid concert of vocal and instrumental music.

Mr. Jewett was presented with a sword, belt and chapeau by the members of Gethsemane Commandery, Commander Buffington making the presentation. This was followed by a short exhibition by the drill corps, during which Captain Hyslop presented Mr. Jewett with a gold watch. The affair was attended by the complete line of Mr. Jewett's personal staff.

and state your reasons. If you are uncertain how you will vote, it is important that you come and hear the arguments for and against preferential voting.

EASTERN STAR FAIR

The Palestine Chapter of the Eastern Star held a Fair last Wednesday and Thursday in Temple Hall, Newtonville, Sister Jennie Alexander, General Chairman.

The Pivot Bridge and Whist Table was in charge of Sister Charlotte Mansfield. The restaurant, in white, was in charge of Sister Robertina Delesdernier and the Food Table in charge of Sister Gertrude Robinson. The latter was filled with things for the Thanksgiving season. The Old Oaken Bucket filled with cider, and Barney Google with his corn balls were special features.

The Apron Table in red and white was in charge of Sister Margaret Babbitt; the Linen and Fancy Work Table in charge of Sister Isabel Wilson; the White Elephant Table, in yellow and white, in charge of Sister Dora Sartwell. The helpers on this table wore yellow and white dresses and hats with white elephants on them.

The Game and Fortune Telling Table, always a favorite, especially with children, was of autumn colors with pumpkins, and a wonderful paper turkey.

The Candy Booth in blue and gold was a large square booth in the center of the floor with a lighted pumpkin on top. This was in charge of Sister Wilhelmine Phillips.

The Infants' and Children's Table, a large square booth decorated in children's colors, blue and pink, looked like a large May basket, and was in charge of Sister Helen Briggs.

The Grab Table, in charge of Sister Kate Bennett, was a Southern Cotton Field with chairman and helpers wearing yellow crepe dresses. Dinah had an apron filled with good things for the children, and a plant stand held attractions for grown-ups.

The Fortune Teller and Game Table under the chairmanship of Sister Margaret Ross was kept constantly busy. Both afternoon and evening, Miss Annie E. Blakemore gave most pleasing vocal selections, and Miss Pillman presented her pupils in very attractive interpretive and toe dances.

The Pedlar's Parade by members of the Chapter was heartily enjoyed by all. Mrs. Everett Crawford was a wonderful Queen with train bearers. Mrs. Robin made a beautiful belle of 1917. Mrs. Bennett as an Apple Woman and Mrs. Holmberg as a Farmer deserve notice.

The Fair was a great success financially and socially.

An attractive program has been prepared for the Sunday afternoon musical and tea on Nov. 16th. Jesus Maria Sanroma will be the pianist and Charles Bennett, baritone.

ANNUAL ROLL CALL

Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross Makes Its Annual Appeal for Membership

The American Red Cross, representing the American people, carries out the purposes for which it was organized and chartered by Congress through a group of unified Services.

Since the Armistice it has expended $50,000,000 for service to men of the Army and Navy and World War Veterans. It is now assisting more than 100,000 disabled veterans, and their families, each month. To 180,000 soldiers, sailors and marines on active duty it is giving the same help it gave during the war. It has 41,000 nurses enrolled for emergency—war, disaster, epidemic.

In the past forty-three years it has expended $33,000,000 for disaster relief; it has directed or participated in relief work in 220 disasters the past year.

Abroad it represents the American people in works of mercy when great catastrophes cause abnormal suffering.

Within the year 974 Red Cross public health nurses have aided in the care of the sick, guarded the health of children and fostered understanding of personal and community hygiene.

Sixty-five thousand women and girls have taken courses in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick; 13,500 children and 10,000 women have been taught the importance of proper use of foods.

More than 49,000 men, women, and youths have been trained to rescue and revive the drowning; 14,500 completed a course in first aid during the year and 150,000 were reached with demonstrations by the Red Cross First Aid Car.

Volunteer workers have produced in the past year 150,000 garments, 1,000,000 surgical dressings and 87,000 pages of Braille; have made 15,000 motor calls and fed 22,000 persons in canteen service.

In the Junior Red Cross 5,452,745 enrolled school children are learning the value of service. With the children of forty other countries they are creating bonds of mutual friendship and understanding.

In 500 communities the Red Cross Chapter is the only family welfare agency.

The Newton Chapter has always participated in these expenditures and has always offered these services to the people of Newton and will continue to do so.

NEWTON PALS DEFEAT HURON

On Sunday afternoon, November 9th, at Boyd Park the Newton Pals clearly outplayed the Huron A. C. of Cambridge, defeating them by a score of 26 to 0.

The Newton Pals displayed a fine brand of football with every man playing his position exceptionally well. The work of the Pals' line was particularly encouraging as time and time again they tore gaping holes in their opponents' line through which the backs passed for long gains.

The all around end-play of Julian Dargow was one of the features of the game. Not only did he play a sterling defensive game but he also scooped up a fumble and raced 30 yards before he was downed on the one yard line. The ball was taken over on the next play.

John Mahoney also played a fine game in the line although handicapped with an injured ankle. The brilliant end running of Hughes and Aucoin together with the broken field running of Lyman and the savage line plunging of Arsenal was also a feature of the game. Signons played well for the Huron A. C. On Sunday afternoon, November 16th the Newton Pals will play the Newton High Junior Varsity, at Boyd Park and a good game is expected when these two evenly matched teams get together.

BURNS-MARCHANT

Armistice Day was the wedding day of Miss Elizabeth Marchant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Marchant of Hunnewell terrace, Newton, and Harold Ambrose Burns, son of Mrs. H. A. Burns of Newton Centre.

The marriage took place at the Church of Our Lady, Father Mantle officiating, and the double ring service was used. The bride was given in marriage by her oldest brother, Lincoln G. Marchant of Newton.

The bride was gown in white satin, her veil being caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet.

The bridesmaid was Miss Anna Walton, an aunt of the bride. Her gown was of peach Canton crepe with ostrich trimmings and she wore a black picture hat with ermine trimmings. Her bouquet was of tea roses.

The bride received her guests at a reception given by her mother, who wore taupe satin with fur trimmings, and by the groom's mother who wore grey canton crepe with steel trimmings. There were about one hundred guests present. Among these was Major Henry D. Cormerais, of the old Company C, 5th Infantry, with whom the groom served in France.

After a wedding trip to New York and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Burns will make their home in Newton.

Second of a series of advertisements regarding the telephone situation in New England

Why?

The principal reason why we cannot go on furnishing adequate telephone service at present rates lies in the lessened purchasing power of the dollar as reflected in higher prices for materials and labor.

Up to the war period our dollar of income was pretty well adjusted to the dollar of outgo.

Since the war, while selling you telephone service from plant built at pre-war prices, we were able to make ends meet largely through improvements in equipment and operating practices, and partly through increased rates which gave us approximately fifteen per cent additional revenue, per telephone.

But this equipment, built at pre-war prices, has been more and more replaced by new equipment built at present-day prices; furthermore, the number of new telephones connected in the past five years is the largest in any equal period of our existence—an increase of thirty-six per cent for the company as a whole and of forty per cent for Massachusetts.

Telephone rates of five years ago, when the average cost of plant and equipment was $138 per telephone do not provide an adequate return today when the average cost of plant and equipment is $178 per telephone, and steadily increasing.

An increase in telephone rates is necessary, not only to attract the new money required to meet the demands for expansion, but also to keep up the present service.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by DOROTHY DRAKE

F. A. Day Junior High School

The ninth grade class officers were elected on November 12, 1924. The officers are as follows: President, George Cusumano; Vice-President, Chellise Cook; Treasurer, Frank Larra-bee; Secretary, Virginia Hayes.

Wednesday in the Auditorium eleven speakers were heard by the school assembled. Pierre Vuilleumier of the ninth grade was the presiding officer to introduce the following room representatives who gave the following selections:

1. Richard Patey, Grade VIII. The Admiral's Ghost
2. Marjorie Trowbridge, Grade IX. When the Minister Comes to Call
3. Natalie Welch, Grade VII. Roofs
4. Louis Antonellis, Grade VIII. Yes, I'm Guilty
5. Elizabeth Granger, Grade IX. An Autumn Song of Peace
6. Joan Welch, Grade VII. The Leetla Boy
7. Augustus Gadsden, Grade VIII. In the Mawlin'
8. Virginia Brown, Grade VIII. Myself and I
9. Francis Hession, Grade VII. The Important Thing
10. Robert Ahern, Grade IX. Carry On
11. Lena Teccia, Grade VIII. The Loss of the Birkenhead

If the delivery of these selections is any criterion for that of the remaining speakers, we feel assured of another very enjoyable Assembly hour. There are six more pupils to speak at the preliminaries.

Last Thursday the F. A. Day eleven defeated the Country Day School by a score of 35-0. Cusumano did good work for the F. A. Day, making two of the touchdowns. Mullin, J. Brown, and Harrington also made one touchdown each, while Lyman kicked a goal. On Friday, Nov. 7, the Day eleven won its first victory over our greatest rival, Waltham. Last year we were heavily defeated by them, but staged our comeback a week ago today. The F. A. Day was successful in both its aerial and center rush attacks. The line easily held its men and was thus able to stop Waltham's end rushes.

West Newton Music School

The Senior Orchestra and pupils from the West Newton Music School will give a radio concert on Sunday evening, Nov. 16th, between 8.30 to 9.30 o'clock from station WBZ Herald-Traveler. Tune in!

Twenty pupils from the Music School attended the Young People's Symphony Concert at Symphony Hall last Wednesday, Nov. 5th.

Parents to Visit Schools

Letters inviting parents to visit the schools during National Education Week, November 17-23, have been given to pupils. The regular work of the high school will be carried on, although special programs will be put on in some of the grade schools.

Tennis

The girls' tennis tournament has reached the round before the semi-finals with one exception. Peggy Firestone, who won the tournament for high school girls, conducted by the Newton Highlands Woman's Club, defeated Doris Rowe 6-3, 6-3 in the school tournament.

Helen Andrews won over Barbara Bonnell 6-2, 6-2. Annabelle Kneeland defeated Catherine Bolster. Eleanor Savage has yet to play Marian Young for this round.

Newton-Waltham

The Newton girls gained a second victory for this season, defeating Waltham 5-1 at Cabot Park, Wednesday.

During the first half Bryant and Spaford each made a goal for Newton. The Waltham girls put up a hard fight. Bingham succeeded in scoring a point. In the second half Newton came through with three more goals, ending the game with the score 5-1.

This is the first year Waltham has had a field hockey team, but they played like old veterans, showing remarkable skill. Their coach, Miss Sewall, deserves great credit. Chase, Pearson, Aubin, and Bryant shone for Newton.

Lasell

Both the Junior and Sophomore classes have elected their class officers for the present year as follows: Junior Class—Elizabeth Saxton, 102 N. Ninth St., Richmond, Indiana, President; Mary F. Witschick, 379 Grand St., Newburgh, N. Y., Vice-President; Marion C. Fitch, 1165 Virginia Park, Detroit, Mich., Treasurer; Grace I. Wilder, 85 Hope St., Ridgewood, N. J., Secretary; Dorothy G. Denney, 20 Scotland Road, South Orange, N. J., Song Leader; Sarah L. Senior, 7 Lincoln St., Sanford, Me., Cheer Leader.

Tuesday afternoon the Lasell field hockey team went to Cambridge to play with the Radcliffe girls, Radcliffe winning.

Friday afternoon Dr. Leon N. Vincent will conclude his series of lectures on French literature, his subject being, "Balzac—his eccentricities and Literary Career."

Sunday evening the usual vesper services at the Seminary will be omitted and the girls will attend the services at the Congregational Church in Auburndale where Mrs. Mary Nide Gamewell a missionary from China will talk about "Ming-Kwong"—The City of Morning Light.

The following officers have been elected by the Lasell Missionary Society: Helen Albert, 604 S. Cherry St., Jefferson, Iowa, President; Lucile Hopkins, New Preston, Conn., Vice President; Helen P. McNab, 48 Marshall St., Brookline, Mass., Treasurer; Dorothy E. Hagadorn, 715 Laurel Ave., Bridgeport, Conn., Secretary.

At a recent meeting of the Lasell Studio Club the following officers were elected: President, Eva-May Mortimer of California; Vice-President, Dorothy Hagadorn of Connecticut; Secretary, Ruth Buffington of Nebraska; Treasurer, Julia Penfold of Rhode Island. There was an initiation of new members and activities were planned for the year under the direction of Miss Mary Roline Stewart, art instructor.

Dr. Mellyar Lichter of Columbus, Ohio, formerly of Newtonville, will speak to the girls at the vesper service, Sunday evening, November 10.

Stearns School

Miss Walker who took her class to Boston a few days ago, gave a lantern lesson on "Boston," to all the fourth grades of this district on Monday.

The Elliot School health chart shows that no child in that building is more than ten per cent below normal weight.

Mrs. Kidder's health chart shows that every child is normal or above normal weight.

Angier School

On Tuesday, November 11, the Angier School defeated the Boy Scouts Troop No. VII in a football game. The first quarter we had in our second team. As they could not withstand the Scouts at the end of the quarter our regular team went in to play. The score stood 13-0 then. It then began to climb up for Angier. Dick Robbins made the first touch-down. A fine goal-kick followed. The next two touch-downs were made by Lee Woolston. He also made two goal-kicks. Charles Leach made two more, each followed by a goal-kick. The score at the end of the game was 36-13 in favor of our school.

On Armistice Day, Tuesday, November 11, 1924, the fifth and sixth grade gave a very interesting assembly. It was an Armistice Day program. We sang three or four patriotic songs and there were some Armistice poems. We closed the exercises with the singing of the "Angier School Song."

At eleven o'clock the Angier School stood with bowed heads while Taps was sounded.

Newton High School

Immediate action is needed on the project of providing a girls' athletic field on the ground adjacent to that on which the new building will be erected. The plans for developing baseball and football for boys have accomplished little. Nothing definite has been done to date, nor does there seem to be anything in the process of doing with reference to the boys' side of the field.

The girls' field gives every reason for quick action. The construction of the new building will necessitate considerable grading, probably including some of the high land south of the new building, on the very area which it is desired to have developed.

Furthermore, the contractor who is to change the course of the brook two-thirds of the way to Hull street will soon be at work. It would seem to be a reasonable and economical course of action to have the remainder of the brook as far as Hull street covered at the same time and the land left in condition for a playing field for the use of high school girls. The distance is short, and the work never can be done so inexpensively as now, with the men and materials right at hand.

The proposed layout is the logical position for a girls' athletic field with reference to the school, gymnasium, trolley, and trains. The need is truly great and a sound solution is close at hand.

NEWTON CHORAL SOCIETY

The rehearsal of last Tuesday evening was held at the West Newton Congregational Church with a good attendance. The change of place was only for one evening, and was made necessary because the vestry of Central church was engaged by the Woman's club for a lecture by Rev. Mr. Lichter. Hereafter the rehearsals will be at Central Church as usual each Tuesday evening.

DISTRICT NURSING

The Annual Meeting of the Newton District Nursing Association held at the Newton Centre Woman's Club on Monday evening of the current week was an occasion of great interest and much pleasure to the many members and their guests who attended the dinner and listened to the interesting speakers and to the reports of work done.

Mrs. St. Amant, president of the Association presided at the speakers' table. Mr. Cheney Jones spoke of the great service that the District Nurse renders to the community as she goes from house to house serving those who are sick and teaching the laws of health. Dr. Henry Keever said that the nurses are of great value to the people, that the pupil nurse gained her first real contact with sickness in the homes when she is allowed to help the District Nurse in her work. He also said that the nurse is of inestimable value to the doctor in his work with the people.

Mr. Angier spoke for the Newton Central Council and the Red Cross. He said that he felt that the District Nursing Association had made great progress during the past year and he congratulated the association on their having brought Miss Elizabeth Ross to Newton to take charge of the Health Work of their Association. Miss Ross was called upon to speak and she outlined the work which she felt should be done, especially for the babies and little children under school age.

The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were read and showed that a successful and busy year had been brought to a close.

Miss Knowles told of the work done in the Baby Clinics, especially among the foreign mothers. She also spoke of the many sick patients that the nurses had been able to minister to.

The Election of Officers for the coming year followed the reports and those elected were as follows: President, Mrs. Geo. W. St. Amant; vice-president, Mrs. F. E. Stanley; secretary, Mrs. Geo. M. Angier; assistant secretary, Mrs. Justin Whittier; treasurer, Mrs. Chas. L. Smith.

Directors: Mrs. G. B. King, Mrs. Herbert L. Felton, Mrs. H. F. Keever, Mrs. C. A. Lovett, Mrs. H. P. Bradford, Mrs. H. P. Converse, Mrs. Frank A. Day, Mrs. Ellery Peabody, Mrs. Samuel L. Powers, Mrs. A. K. Pratt, Mrs. F. W. Pray, Mrs. W. G. Snow, Mrs. Leverett Salsomali, Mrs. Fred H. Loveland, Mrs. Edwin L. Gibbs, Mrs. Samuel F. Tower, Mrs. Chas. Whittmore, Mrs. C. J. A. Wilson, Mrs. Philip Nichols, Mrs. Chas. Gardner, Miss Kate Wheelock, Mrs. Richard Harte, Mrs. Frank Ashley Day, Jr., Mrs. Donald Flinchbaugh, Mrs. J. A. Moir, Mrs. Phillips Byfield, Mrs. J. M. Allen, Miss V. M. Dennis, Miss Louise Fessenden, Mr. Wm. T. Glidden, Jr., Miss Gretchen Clifford.

DEATH OF MRS. BEARDSLEY

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Beardsley of Crescent street extend their sympathy to the mother in the death of Mr. Beardsley's mother, Mrs. Margaret D. Beardsley.

For many years, she had made her home in Lynn with her daughters but her many visits to the son's home, had endeared her to numerous friends in the Newtons. She had reached the wonderful age of 90 years and 10 months and up to her death had not lost one faculty.

She had been ill only three weeks but with real courage she bore her illness and did not allow it to quench the spirit of good humor and the readiness of wit that characterized her to the last. She was a woman who deeply appreciated her mercies and expressed her gratitude for them in many deeds of friendliness. She was a wonderful woman for her age and her splendid Christian spirit will live on with those who were near and dear to her.

The funeral service was held at her late home in Lynn, Rev. William A. Lawrence of the St. Stephen's Episcopal Church officiating. On Monday three of her sons accompanied the body to Bridgewater, Nova Scotia, where funeral services were held at her eldest son's home on Wednesday. Burial was in the family lot in Bridgewater.

She leaves 5 sons, 3 daughters, 15 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

EDITORIAL

The Commonwealth is to be congratulated on the wisdom and foresight of its able secretary, Hon. Frederick W. Cook, on whose recommendation, three years ago, the Legislature enacted the present statute under which the Governor was authorized to fill any vacancy which might occur in our representation in the United States Senate until the next regular election. In this case, this statute not only saves the State the expense of a special election, estimated at $300,000, but it also prevents the immediate return to the Senate of Mr. David I. Walsh, who, at a special election, would certainly have been elected.

At the coming city election there will be two questions on the ballot, one relating to the preferential form of voting, the other on the sale of non-intoxicating liquors. We shall discuss the first a little later in the month, and merely refer to the second at this time to call attention to the absurdity of the Massachusetts statute which requires each municipality to vote on the issuance of licenses to sell liquor containing not more than 2.75% of alcohol in face of the Federal Law limiting such percentage to one half of one per cent.

If the city government had taken the precaution of looking up precedents, the situation whereby it refused to accept the resignation of Alderman Hollis might not have been taken place. In point of fact, Alderman Hollis ought to have submitted his resignation immediately after the primary, and given time, thereby to have his successor elected by the people at the coming city election.

Children's Book Week can best be observed by giving careful attention to the reading our sons and daughters are doing. Some years ago we noticed the son of one of our prominent clergymen purchasing at a news stand a copy of a magazine, which has since been barred from public sale by reason of its salacious nature. Parents cannot be too careful in this matter.

Alderman Bail has considerable courage to present another "single residence" zoning ordinance, in face of the attitude heretofore taken by Alderman White and Mayor Childs. Some day the ordinance will be changed to comply with the wishes of a majority of our citizens, but we have little hope of its consummation under the present administration.

The Good Government Club of Auburndale is setting a fine example to the rest of the city in holding an open debate on the question of retaining the preferential form of voting in this city which is to be settled at the coming city election in December.

We are glad to note that some interest is taken in the effort to correct the failures of the direct primary law and to bring about the Short ballot.

History will rank United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as one of the great men of his day and generation.

Congratulations to Newton Lodge I. O. O. F. on entering its new home on Waltham street, West Newton.

INDOOR CHATAUQUA

The annual Indoor Chautauqua and Festival at Centenary M. E. Church, Auburndale, has become an established community event.

Led and directed by the pastor of the church, Rev. Earl E. Harper, the chautauqua program has come to assume the proportions of a first class lyceum course, while the festival, from the standpoint of decorations, booths, lights, articles for sale, and unique novelty features has attracted the attention of thousands of people in the Newtons and elsewhere.

This year the program, running as usual for three consecutive nights presents the following talent:
Wed., Nov. 19: Troy P. Gorum, well known negro baritone recitalist of Springfield. Mr. Gorum has given recitals in Aeolian Hall, New York, and Music Hall, Philadelphia. He brings as assisting artists, James K. Smith, violinist and Ruth Johnson Reid, pianist.

Thursday, Nov. 20: Miss Florence Day, unusual reader, interpreter and actress of short plays; Gladys Berry, well and favorably known cello soloist; Hazel F. Tutbill, soloist in the Christmas oratorio and the Holy City at Centenary Church, and now for the first time heard in secular concert; and Mrs. F. E. Leland, accomplished and musicianly organist of the church.

Friday, Nov. 21, a popular entertainment by the Weber Male Quartet, Franklin Field, baritone of this organization is well known as soloist at Central Congregational Church, New Bedford, and as special soloist at oratorio productions at Centenary Church. Assisting the quartet will be Harlan A. Riker, flutist, playing part music of his own composition. Mr. Riker and the soloists of the quartet will be accompanied by Rev. Harper.

Especially interesting to the festival this year is that Centenary Church, facing necessary enlargement and expansion of its plant, has purchased all the vacant land next to the present building. Whatever profits accrue from the chautauqua will be applied directly to the purchase price of this land. A very large stock is assured the buying public, much of it of the hand made variety, notable in abundance, besides staple articles of apparel, food, household utensils, etc.

MEN'S CLUB

The Men's Club of West Newton, one of the most influential organizations of its kind in the city held its annual meeting last evening at the Second Church, West Newton with a large attendance.

After the usual banquet, there was a short business meeting at which satisfactory reports were presented by the treasurer, secretary and Zoning Committee and these officers elected: President, Norman W. Bingham, Jr.; Vice-President, John A. Paine; Secretary, Carl E. Pickhardt; Treasurer, Roland F. Gammons.

Judge Thomas Weston, the retiring president, then introduced his successor and Mr. Bingham announced the appointment of the following committees: Zoning, Henry Whitmore, chairman; Thomas Chalmers, R. F. Gammons, Thomas Gorham, Charles E. Hatfield. Membership, William F. Chase, chairman, H. B. Patrick, C. J. Bowen, A. T. Haskell, C. P. A. Cuniff, Richard B. Cole, J. B. Ramm, F. H. Barton, Harry D. Cabot, Fred S. Sawyer, A. C. Dismore. Village, Donald Macomber, chairman, C. F. Leatherbee, A. T. Haskell, William Kellar, Edwin H. Rogers, Paul Scarborough, Charles E. Gibson. Library, Herbert M. Cole, chairman, Thomas Weston, F. J. Fessenden, Charles E. Lauriat, Jr., Charles E. Hatfield, John A. Potter, Charles E. Gibson, Fred S. Pratt.

Mr. Edward Dana, general manager of the Boston Elevated Railway, then gave an interesting talk on the growth and organization of that public utility and it was followed by a series of motion pictures showing some of the difficulties the Elevated has to contend with in maintaining its service.

A GOOD MOTHER

Mrs. Sarah Louise Horne, wife of Isiah Horne of Prince Edward Island and daughter of William and Sarah MacAdams, was laid to rest in the Newton Cemetery, November 11, 1924. Mrs. Horne was born May 23, 1842 and died November 9, 1924.

She leaves to mourn her departure her husband, Isiah Horne, and nine living children. Her eldest son, Albert is laid in a missionary's grave in Africa; Samuel, her second son, is laid to rest in New Richmond, Wisconsin; Elizabeth, Mrs. Frank A. Jackson, of West Newton, her devoted eldest daughter, with whom she has made her home for several years; John R. of Jacksonville, Florida; Isiah, of Souris, P. E. I., veteran of the great war; Lemuel of P. E. I., veteran of the Spanish American War; William, of Marblehead, Mass., Annie, (Mrs. W. M. McCarthy) of Jacksonville, Florida; David H., of Jacksonville, Florida; James F., of Walpole, Mass. and her youngest, Hattie (Mrs. Lyman Davis) of Hyde Park, Mass.

Thirty-three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren respect her memory.

All who knew her loved her dearly, our most devoted mother—she was our inspiration.

"ENGLAND'S CATHEDRALS AND SCENIC BEAUTY"

A new lecture of informative power and beauty on "The Glory of England, her Cathedrals and Scenic Beauty," will be given by Frederick Parsons, Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, at the Boston Public Library on Thursday evening next. The doors are open at 6 P. M. The lecture, at 8 P. M. prompt, will occupy seventy-five minutes and will be illustrated with 150 new and specially-made slides colored by the lecturer.

Mr. Parsons is a resident of Waban who lived for thirty years in England. The lecture-matter and slides are part of the fruits of a four-months' summer vacation in England, covering the cathedrals and parts visited. The lecture is free to the public, entrance on Boylston street.

ALDERMEN MEET

The aldermen held an adjourned meeting on Monday night for the purpose of declaring the result of the state election in this city.

A large number of jurors were drawn for service at the Cambridge court—for the Criminal session on Dec. 8, Joseph A. Kirchgassner of Carter street, and Albert J. Stuart of Channing street were chosen. For the Criminal session on Dec. 1, John R. Kite of Margin street and John F. Faherty of Centre street were drawn. For the civil session on Nov. 17, M. H. Gulesian of Chestnut hill and Archie C. Burnett of Waban avenue were selected. For the civil session on Dec. 1, Ellis L. Gates of Windsor road and Edward A. Winsor of Chestnut hill were selected.

Mayor Childs sent in recommendation of the City Solicitor that $730 be added to the award given Mrs. Olive T. Spencer for land taken for the Myrtle street school, for $4840 for laying water mains, $600 for new curbing, $400 for resurfacing streets, $5000 for outside charges Street Dept., $350 for elementary evening school and $200 for Americanization work, all of which were approved by the board.

Fred C. Woodward petitioned for right to run a bus line from Upper Falls to Chestnut hill.

The traffic officers asked that they be furnished winter uniforms for the city.

Petitions were received for numerous sewers in the vicinity of Waltham and Crafts streets.

The board gave leave to withdraw on the petitions for change of zoning districts at land on River and Elm street and also refused to widen the streets at that point. A hearing was assigned for Dec. 1, on establishing a building line at this point.

The board revoked the victualler license of Joseph Arduino on Langley road as requested by Chief Burke.

Alderman Bail put in an amendment to the zoning ordinance changing the present "private residence" district to a single residence district.

An order was adopted calling for the usual city election to take place December 9th. The ballot this year will include aldermen at large and ward aldermen, members of the school committee from wards 2 and 5 and two referenda, one relative to retaining the present preferential form of voting and the other the usual question of licensing the sale of non-intoxicating liquors.

President Hollis, who has been elected a representative to the General Court, presented his resignation as an alderman to take effect on December 31, but the board refused to accept it on advice of the city solicitor.

POLICE NOTES

Mrs. Katherine S. Brown of Newton, who represents herself as a magazine writer and is now serving time in Sherborn for larceny in Suffolk county by means of a worthless check, pleaded guilty to a superior criminal court, East Cambridge, Tuesday, to larceny of $300 from the Newton Savings Bank with a worthless check and was sentenced to 18 months in the house of correction. The new sentence will begin at the expiration of her present term.

John Brown, who is about 50 years of age and of refined appearance, told the court that she had a good husband and that it was only when she was under the influence of drugs she committed these offenses. She is known as a drug addict and has a criminal record that dates back to 1916.

WEST NEWTON NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE

The Mothers' Club met Wednesday evening. At the business meeting it was decided to hold a Christmas party on Wednesday, Dec. 17, and a food and gift sale on the 19th and 20th. After the business meeting every one worked on properties which are to be used in the Christmas play.

The children of the Neighborhood House will give a play, "How Little Red Riding Hood Saw Christmas Come," at Players Hall, on Thursday evening, Dec. 11. The costumes and properties for the play are being made by the Boys' Clubs and the Mothers' Club, and several of the mothers are assisting in the rehearsals.

The Live Wires are making calendars this week.

Whether you play Mah Jong or not, you ought to try the new Apollo Mah Jong package. The design is a brilliant conception of oriental art—and the assortment will surprise even those who have a long acquaintance with Apollo quality. $1.25 a pound.

BOYS ORGANIZED

The boys of St. Bernard's parish, West Newton, under direction and leadership of Rev. William T. A. O'Brien, spiritual director of the Newton Catholic Club, have organized into a semi-military organization known as "The Knights of the Holy Cross."

A file and drum corps, under direction of Amos Oldfield and William Tolan is now in rehearsal, and the members of the organization will make their first public appearance in uniform on Monday evening in the Newton Catholic Club Hall in a musical and dramatic performance, similar to a minstrel show. George P. Brophy, president of the Catholic Club, will act as interlocator. He has also opened the club to the boys as a headquarters for their activities. The show on Monday evening, will be under direction of Miss S. Theresa McCarthy. Miss Gladys Sullivan and Miss Gertrude Welch are leading the musical numbers. James McCarthy is stage manager and Frank Kane, property manager. "November Snowflakes" is the name of the first production.

COAL IS FOOL PROOF

And The Safest Fuel Known

"From Boston Evening Transcript, Wednesday, June 25, 1924)
"Regardless of the careful manufacture of oil burning devices or how well safe guarded by supervision of the installation, all of which are installed and maintained under the rules and regulations prescribed by the Department of Public Safety of Massachusetts, they present a hazard. These fuel oil burning devices may be constructed of the best material, and oil storage kept and handled in an approved manner, but there is no restraint or question of the human element that is going to control or operate them."

Women's Clubs

Mrs. Charles Bemis Gleason read the first paper of the season before the Social Science Club Wednesday morning, on "The Struggle for Civil and Religious Liberty: Colonial Period." Mrs. Bemis' paper was an interesting foundation for the study of "Men and Movements of Our Early History," which the club is to pursue during the coming season. She traced the evolution of our constitution from the various characters and compacts of the colonists of New England, where no man not a church member was entitled to a voice in legislation, showing the influence of the broader and more tolerant views of the exiled Roger Williams in Rhode Island and of William Penn in Pennsylvania.

Miss Cora Stanwood Cobb will lecture before the members of the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club on "The Women of the Renaissance," on Monday evening, Nov. 17, in the Emerson kindergarten.

Much local interest was felt in the wedding on Tuesday in Newton Centre of Miss Margaret Fuller Belcher, daughter of Mrs. Annie S. Belcher of Ridge Ave., Newton Centre, and Lowell Alfred Warren of Waltham.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride on Ridge avenue, and was performed by the Rev. Edward M. Noyes of the First Church, Newton Centre.

Miss Ruth Manson Belcher, sister of the bride, of North Adams, Mass., was the maid of honor, and the best man was Mr. Earle Bond of Cambridge. The ushers were Dr. Roland MacKenzie, Mr. George Emery, Mr. Abranson, and Mr. Alfred Hodge, all of Waltham.

The bride wore a gown of beaded georgette over white satin, with a veil of tulle, and band of Brussels lace. The gown of the maid of honor was of blue satin crepe.

A reception at the Newton Centre Woman's Club followed the ceremony. In the receiving line were Mrs. Arthur Belcher, mother of the bride, Mrs. Lowell Warren, mother of the groom, Miss Ruth Belcher, sister of the bride, Mr. Earle Bond, best man, and Mr. and Mrs. Melville H. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren will make their home in Newtonville.

The bride is a graduate of Wellesley College class of 1919, and the groom of Tufts College, class of 1918.

Women's Clubs

Mrs. Charles Bemis Gleason read the first paper of the season before the Social Science Club Wednesday morning, on "The Struggle for Civil and Religious Liberty: Colonial Period." Mrs. Bemis' paper was an interesting foundation for the study of "Men and Movements of Our Early History," which the club is to pursue during the coming season. She traced the evolution of our constitution from the various characters and compacts of the colonists of New England, where no man not a church member was entitled to a voice in legislation, showing the influence of the broader and more tolerant views of the exiled Roger Williams in Rhode Island and of William Penn in Pennsylvania.

Miss Cora Stanwood Cobb will lecture before the members of the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club on "The Women of the Renaissance," on Monday evening, Nov. 17, in the Emerson kindergarten.

Post Road Farm Milk

Your Milk Supply Is Important

You should demand that your milk is received from a herd of cows that are clean and healthy:

That the stable in which these cows are kept is clean and sanitary;

That the milking is done in a sanitary, careful way;

That the milk is carefully bottled and delivered;

That the tuberculin test be applied to the herd of cattle supplying you with milk, and that you receive milk from a tubercular free herd.

Unless you are getting milk handled under these conditions, you are not getting the best.

It is important to study the source of your milk supply, which will easily determine its quality.

We invite you to inspect our dairy.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor

The sudden and serious illness of Miss Grace M. Burt, editor of our Women's Club column has greatly curtailed the amount of news from that source.

WABAN WOMAN'S CLUB

Under the auspices of the Education Committee of the Waban Woman's Club a free lecture will be given in the Angier School on Tuesday, Nov. 25, by Mr. Payson Smith, Commissioner of Education, on "Preparing Our Children For Life, and the Antioch College Plan." An informal reception will be held after the lecture for Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tenney, and the teachers of the school.

HOME DECORATION

The State Division of university extension is offering a course of six lectures in Interior Home Decoration at the Newton Catholic Club. At 7.30, Friday evening, November 14th, the first meeting of the class will be held. The instructor in this course is Miss Lillian Phillips, an instructor at the Massachusetts Normal Art School. In former years Miss Phillips has conducted classes at Columbia University and at Simmons College.

The purpose of this course is instruction in the fundamental principles which underlie successful home decoration. It is Miss Phillips' aim to present material which will be of practical value and within the reach of all pocketbooks.

Some of the subjects to be covered in the six lectures are: color and the planning of color schemes; woodwork and wall treatment; floors and floor coverings. These and other subjects studied will be treated with reference to their suitability, durability, cleanliness, and artistic effect.

The State will award certificates to students who satisfactorily complete the course. A small enrollment fee will be charged.

GIRL SCOUTS

"Pioneers"

One of the most interesting of the "out of doors" Merit Badges is the Pioneer. Camping, and everything to do with camping has a fascination today for almost everyone, and this test for the Pioneer Merit Badge gives the Scout a pretty good idea of how to live in the open.

The test was given last Saturday at Camp Mary Day to fourteen scouts by Mr. Edward Ovington, who has been a leader in the Norumbega Council Boy Scouts for so many years. Some of the girls built miniature lean-to's while others erected a practical lean-to which they hope to occupy in the spring when they have their "overnight hike in the open" for that part of their First Class test. The test includes the following points:

Tell four things that must be considered in choosing a camp site.

Know how to use a saw, an axe, a hatchet.

Know how to select and fell a tree for building purposes.

Know a fork and a sapling and their uses.

Build a shack suitable for four occupants.

Make a latrine, an incinerator, a cache.

Make a fire place for heating and cooking purposes and cook a simple meal over it.

Know how to tell the direction of the wind.

Tell what to do to make water safe for drinking if there is any question as to its purity.

Captain Collins and about 20 scouts from the Highlands troop spent last Saturday at Camp Mary Day.

They arrived at camp after hiking from the car line in Wellesley—about eleven o'clock, and spent a very happy day in the open.

Woman's Association

The Women's Association of Central church held a meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 2.30 P. M. Mrs. Francis J. Flagg was the leader and had spared no effort to have the occasion one of interest and charm. The room was made attractive with Chinese rugs, embroideries and other art pieces.

Among the guests was Miss Sarah Huang, a Chinese student taking the medical course at Boston University. Next year she expects to return to Poo Chow. Miss Huang sang in Chinese and gave descriptions of Chinese costumes. Mrs. Lillie Potter of Lasell Seminary and Mrs. Walter of Auburndale assisted with the program. Musical selections of Chinese character were rendered by Mrs. J. Payson Allen.

The subject for the afternoon was "Ming Kwong," a book written about an imaginary city in China, weaving into the narrative true incidents of the missionary work in that country. Mrs. Walter reviewed a portion of the book, taking as her theme, "A Gleam of Light." "The Gleam of Light" is a book written by a missionary, and is a dramatization of some of the events of "Ming Kwong." As Mrs. E. A. Rust sounds the witching hour of twelve on her gong, Mrs. S. L. Sholley representing a modern highly educated Chinese girl, and Mrs. E. K. Titus, taking the part of Sue Gledhill, an old-fashioned missionary, awake and bewildered at meeting each other. The young student, with her story of the enlightenment that has come to her land, is a revelation to the quaint lady who knew only the China of superstition. The changed conditions mean the fruition resulting from effort and divine promise. Mrs. Sholley rendered her part with a charming naïveté and with feeling. She wore a beautiful Chinese costume loaned by Mrs. Stuart Hill. Mrs. Titus was dressed in an old fashioned gown of her mother's. Mrs. J. Walter Allen was chairman of the tea. About one hundred were present, including a number of young girls.

FATAL ACCIDENT

Creno Melidio, 11-year-old grammar school boy, son of James Melidio of 39 Auburn street, West Newton, who was struck Monday afternoon by a truck on Auburn street, near his home, died at the Newton Hospital early Tuesday morning as a result of the fractured skull he received.

The boy, according to the story of the driver, Thomas F. Hickey, of 60 Wyoming road, Newtonville, who was operating the truck, the property of his firm, Hickey and Hickman, ran in front of the truck and before the machine could be brought to a stop was knocked down. The boy's leg and skull were fractured and he sustained multiple bruises and lacerations. He was taken to the Newton Hospital, where he was immediately placed on the danger list and where he died.

Mr. Hickey, the driver of the automobile, is well known in Newton military circles, being captain of Company C, 101st Infantry, M. N. G.

NEWTON HOSPITAL

Week ending Nov. 8.—Patients in hospital 105, those paying as much as cost of care or more 60, those paying less than cost of care 21, free patients (including babies) 24, patients treated by out patient department 122, accident cases 8, babies born 8, social service calls at hospital 6, at homes 12, patients transported by social service car 15.

Dr. Henry D. Chadwick of the Westfield State Sanatorium gave an illustrated talk on "Hilus Tuberculosis" before the Newton Medical Club at its meeting at the hospital Monday. The club sent out word to its members to please return medical books belonging to its medical library before Nov. 15. Any members who did not are reminded of the old saying "better late than never" and are asked to turn the books they have in as soon as possible. The executive committee held its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, the trustees held a special meeting and dinner at the Brae Burn Club Tuesday evening.

Last Sunday evening in the Nurses' Home Miss Winters, assisted by Miss Pearson gave an illustrated talk on Palestine. They are soon to journey to Persia for new material.

Miss Hilda Cox, class of 1924, is substituting as operating room nurse, for a month, at the Robert Brigham hospital on Parker Hill avenue, Boston. For the benefit of the recently established eye clinic at the hospital the ladies of the Newton Hospital Aid Association are to give an auction bridge party at the parlors of the Women's Republican Club (the old Eben D. Jordan house) at 46 Beacon street at half past two on the afternoon of Monday, Nov. 24. Subscriptions for tables will be $5 and single subscriptions $1.50, and those who intend to subscribe are asked to send their checks to Mrs. W. M. Flanders, 13 Lake street, Newton Centre before Nov. 20. There is to be music at half past four. The hostesses for the afternoon are to be Mrs. George H. Talbot, the president of the Association and Mrs. W. H. Allen, Mrs. F. A. Day, Mrs. W. M. Flanders, Mrs. C. P. Hall, Mrs. C. E. Kelsey, Mrs. J. F. Lodge, Miss Rose Loring, Mrs. J. H. Lovell, Mrs. Marcus Morton, Mrs. L. B. Rogers, Mrs. E. P. Saltonstall, Mrs. G. W. St. Amant, Miss Florence Williams, Mrs. Carlo Montanari and Mrs. Ashley Day.

BOY SCOUTS

The swimming meet which was to have been held at the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening was called off and will be held at the same place November 21st. Due to the kindness of Mr. Hess, those scouts who reported for the meet were given a practice meet and a good swim which they enjoyed immensely.

Troop 4 of Newton Highlands gave a demonstration of a scout meeting before the Men's Club of the Wellesley Hills Congregational Church Wednesday evening.

A meeting of the camping committee of the New England Region was held at the Exchange Club, Boston, Tuesday. Mr. Robert Hale, chairman of the committee presided and urged immediate action for the next year's summer camp. A canvass is soon to be made by this Council to find the number of scouts that will attend camp next summer and scouts should talk this matter over with their people in order to be prepared to say what they will do.

The first meeting of the Bugle and Drum corps is scheduled for Nov. 20th at the High School Gym at 3.30 P. M.

BIG BOYS' CONFERENCE

On Dec. 5, 6 and 7th Newton will be the host of 600 older boys from Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Committees are working and the plans are well under way to house these boys for the three days they are with us.

Mr. H. W. Gibson, State Secretary, has announced a well balanced program with Dr. Dan A. Poling of New York City, Rev. J. Edgar Park, Dr. Arthur H. Bradford of Providence, R. I., and also Waldo H. Heinrichs "The Luckiest Man in the War."

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Association have met with Mr. Gibson and will be glad to hear from any one that will be able to take two or more boys for the three days. Mrs. C. D. Kepner, 43 Grove Hill avenue, or Clyde G. Hess, Newton Y. M. C. A. will be glad to give further information regarding it.

The banquet will be held in the West Newton Armory and a parade under the leadership of Hugh Boyd will march from the Eliot Church to the Armory.

The conference sessions will be held in Eliot Church, The Methodist and Baptist churches of Newton, The Second Church of West Newton.

D. A. R.

The regular meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., was held last Monday at the chapter house in Newton Lower Falls.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. George P. Buell, Mrs. George P. Bullard, Mrs. Thomas Chalmers and Mrs. W. K. Chandler. These ladies received assisted by Mrs. George R. Blinn of Concord, Mass., and Mrs. John N. Eaton, the chapter regent.

After a brief business meeting Mrs. Blinn, state chairman of the committee for Patriotic Education spoke of the interesting work which this committee accomplishes.

She urged, among other things, that each member of the D. A. R. should own and become familiar with "America's Creed," a book which contains, in compact form, information of the essentials on which our nation rests.

Mrs. Blinn also spoke of the twelve struggling schools of the South which have received the endorsement of the National Committee on Patriotic Education and suggested that The Lucy Jackson Chapter should select one of these schools to help financially.

After Mrs. Blinn's interesting paper Mrs. Fred E. Mann read two entertaining selections and the formal meeting closed with the singing of "America."

Tea was served in the dining-room by the hostesses and the usual opportunity was given to the chapter members and their guests to examine the many interesting articles which have been donated to the historical collection of the Chapter since its last meeting.

MILLIKIN-HARRIMAN

Trinity Church, Newton Centre, was the scene last Saturday of the wedding of Miss Eunice Alberta Harriman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ingraham Harriman of Centre street, Newton, and Dudley Long Millikin of Cleveland, Ohio. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Edward Sullivan, rector of Trinity Church.

The maid of honor was Miss Anne Bruner of Newton, and the bridesmaids, Miss Helen Crampden, Miss Beatrice Lane, Miss Elizabeth Root, of Newton, Miss Charlotte Dickinson of Grand Rapids, Michigan, Miss Louise Millikin of Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Helen Silkman of New York City.

The best man was Mr. Severance Millikin of Cleveland, Ohio, and the ushers, all of whom were from Cleveland, were Mr. Eugene Cashman, Mr. John Coffinberry, Mr. Thomas Grasselli, Mr. George Martin, Mr. George Phillips, Mr. Halsey Mills, and Mr. Ralph Grey. Master Gordon Harriman, brother of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The gown of the bride was of white velvet with a train, and she wore a veil of tulle trimmed with rose point lace and orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white sweet peas, and lilies of the valley.

The gown of the maid of honor was of peach colored velvet and tulle, and her bouquet was of all that concerns the bridesmaids all wore blue chiffon gowns, and carried ward roses.

A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harriman on Centre street, Newton, followed the ceremony in the church, the parents of the bride being assisted by the mother of the groom. After a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Millikin will make their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

The bride is a graduate of Vassar College, class of 1924, and the groom attended Princeton.

CENTRAL CLUB

Monday was radio night at the club, and Mr. O. L. Parquet gave a talk on radio subjects. He brought with him a super-heterodyne, which he demonstrated and tuned in for a number of stations. At the close of his address he answered a number of questions from radio enthusiasts. Mr. De Wire, of the West Newton Music School played violin solos and was warmly applauded. Miss Lillian West furnished the accompaniment.

A specially constructed radio set of mysterious nature, created by some of the mechanical geniuses of the club, was then tuned in on the new broadcasting station CCCCC, which was reported to be located in Cochinchina. This produced some very bad noises due to some mysterious form of interference, but it also distributed some news items in regard to members of the club. This feature was in charge of Mr. B. M. Weatherhead, and Mr. E. W. Chamberlain. At the close of the entertainment a hot dog supper was served, and a pleasant social hour followed.

Stearns School Centre

The fall activities at the Stearns School Centre are now well under way.

The Brownies are again meeting every Monday and enjoying the fun of the Brownie program.

Our Blue Bird Club for girls 14-17 is under the leadership of Miss Dorothy Stebbins of Newton. The girls have been having game programs and are very enthusiastic about the suggestions the new leader has brought to them.

The Centre in conjunction with the Newton Free Library are conducting a Story Hour for the fifth and sixth grades every Monday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Ware of Brookline is the story teller.

The Boys' Club that was organized last year has a membership of twenty club members in good standing. They have already entertained the Reach-Point Club and they are now working on their entertainment.

The Senior Girls Club have had an unusually peppy program this fall: Ukulele Class, Economics, and Millinery, not to mention the dance and the parties that the girls have had and are just a few of their fall activities.

Our Baby Clinic had a total of 109 babies during October. This was an average of 22 babies in each clinic day and a total of 9 new babies for the month. Dr. Cecil Clark is the physician.

A collision between two automobiles at the corner of Boylston street and Quinobegun road, near Echo Bridge, Upper Falls, yesterday morning, brought the police ambulance as a result of telephone calls. A car owned by Clara Cutter of 46 Rutledge road, Newton Highlands, and operated by Meryle B. Cutter of the same address, was in collision with a car owned and operated by Frazer Pritchard of 16 Appleton street, Watertown. Both cars were damaged and Mr. Pritchard sustained bruises and lacerations about the head.

The next regular meeting of the West Newton W. C. T. U. will be held on Monday, November 17, at the home of Mrs. Swett, 42 Eddy street. The speakers will be the delegates of the state convention.

The society is holding a Food Sale at 1391 Washington street tomorrow, 2-5 P. M.

Largest Telescopes

The world's largest telescope is at Mount Wilson, Cal. It is a reflecting telescope, and the mirror measures 100 inches in diameter. The maximum power is 10,000 diameters; that is to say, the moon would appear as if brought within 25 miles of the observer. The lens for this telescope was made at the glassworks at St. Gobain, France.

No Cure for Scarlet Fever

There is no cure for scarlet fever, according to the most authoritative medical opinion on the subject. Once the disease attacks a person there is no choice but for it to run its course. This fact ought to be sufficient to cause parents to take every precaution against the exposure of children to this infection.

REAL ESTATE

A duplex house of fourteen rooms with garage, located at 18-20 Ripley terrace has just been sold by Helen M. Farwell to Oliver Mills by Alvord Bros. The property is very centrally located and readily rentable and is valued at $14,000.

A parcel of land on the corner of Boylston road and Centre street, Newton Highlands, has been sold to J. S. Smith who intends to build a two-family house. Alvord Bros. sold the land, valued at $2500 for F. E. McBarron.

A beautiful lot of land on Orchard avenue, Waban, has been transferred from H. J. Roberts to D. R. Maclean. It is valued at $2000. Mr. Maclean will build a single house for occupancy.

A lot of 13,000 square feet on Pelham street, Newton Centre, has been sold by Clara E. McWain to the Sumner Realty Co. by Alvord Bros. The lot is valued at $3000. The purchaser will erect a two-family house.

The papers have just passed on the transaction, Jerome C. Smith to R. A. Carleton, through the office of Alvord Bros. This splendid estate, in one of the most desirable situations, on Devon road, Newton Centre, is valued at about $25,000.

NEWTON LOSES

Medford won a 17 to 6 victory over Newton in a Suburban League football game Saturday afternoon on its own grounds.

After an exchange of punts in the first half a series of rushes worked the ball up the Newton 25-yard line. A forward pass, Ellis to Herb, netted 10 yards, and a six-yard advance by Hormel took the ball to the nine-yard line and Ellis went over for the touchdown.

Medford got a second score in the first period when Spaulfurn took a punt on his 5-yard line. Medford then was penalized 15 yards for holding, but this was made up by a gain by Ellis. Hormel kicked a field goal. Another touchdown followed on a forward pass and four line plunges.

In the fourth period, Medford showed signs of weakness and Newton registered four first downs in a row. A forward pass, Lyons to McCullough, made 12 yards, landing the ball on the Medford three-yard line. Hall went over for the touchdown on the fourth try. T. Gilligan failed at the point after touchdown.

NEW CHURCH EDIFICE

Christian Scientists Erecting a Fine New Building on Walnut Street, Newtonville

Ground has been broken for the new Christian Science Church, corner of Walnut and Otis streets, Newtonville, and by Thanksgiving the foundations should be in place.

The liberal size of the lot gives a fitting setting for the church, and permits beautifying the grounds with attractive shrubbery and trees, supplementing those of maturer growth already there.

family of churches promises to be a notable one, not only in respect to interior innovations, but in its striking exterior, which, in its architectural features, is a departure from neighboring types.

As seen by the illustration, the style is a Colonial adaptation of the Classic, worked out with red brick and contrasting stone trimmings. The result is one of great simplicity and dignity.

It is in the interior, however, that there are the greatest variations from the usual church interior. This is most noticeable in the treatment of the floor and seats. The floor is sloping, with seats in semi-circular arrangement, this being the form adopted in auditoriums where ideal conditions of seeing and hearing are desired. The ceiling carries what is known as the three point arch. As (Continued on Page 9)

THE CITY ELECTION

Little interest is being manifested in the coming city elections, nomination papers for which must be filed this afternoon prior to five o'clock.

Alderman Ball will retire in Ward 1, and Dr. Thomas M. Gallagher will undoubtedly be unopposed for the vacant seat. Ward alderman John C. Madden will be returned without opposition.

In Ward 2 it is expected that Alderman-at-large Roy V. Collins and Ward alderman Daniel O'Connell will be candidates for re-election, the latter being opposed.

In Ward 3, Alderman-at-large Sinclair Weeks will be unopposed. Ward alderman Richard T. Leahy will have an opponent as Mr. William Kellar of Webster street will be a candidate. His nomination is the result of a wide spread demand among the voters of the ward, who believe he possesses the qualifications for such office, being a successful business man of unquestionable quality and integrity.

In Ward 4, Alderman-at-large George M. Heathcote and ward alderman Perley Crosby will be candidates for re-election.

In Ward 5, Alderman-at-large Henry W. Ball and ward alderman J. Earle Parker are not expected to have any opponents for re-election.

In Ward 6, Alderman-at-large Randolph F. Tucker will retire and Henry M. Bliss of Chestnut Hill is slated to take his place. Ward alderman Norman F. Pratt will be returned without opposition.

In Ward 7, Alderman-at-large Harry W. Pitts and ward alderman Henry D. Lloyd will be unopposed. The vacancy caused by the election of aldermen-at-large Arthur W. Hollis as a representative will be filled by the 1925 board of aldermen.

Two members of the school committee decline further service, Mr. J. Everett Hicks of Newtonville, and Mr. George M. Angier of Waban, the latter being chairman of the present board.

Mr. George H. Tracy of Newtonville will be a candidate for Mr. Hicks' seat and Mr. William F. Coan of Newton Highlands will stand for the school committee in Ward 5.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

The 17th annual Christmas Seal Sale will start this year the day after Thanksgiving and will be under the direction of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Helen A. Winslow, chairman.

The campaign is for a total of $6000 of which 80% will be used within the limits of Newton.

The program of work is as follows: 1. Nine special health classes held weekly in the Newton villages under expert medical and nursing supervision.

2. Physical defects corrected by operation, forty-five children directly benefited thereby.

3. Three nurses on duty for follow-up work in the homes during July.

4. Six children sent on vacations.

5. Milk furnished in homes and schools at a cost of $854.33.

6. Nurse on playground for one month during summer.

7. Though medical examination of all school children in first eight grades by four specialists from the Children's Hospital in Boston. The need for such examinations has been demonstrated by the health survey recently made by the Newton Central Council.

This work is financed by the sale of Health Christmas Seals.

NEWTON CHORAL SOCIETY

The Fall Concert of the Newton Choral Society will be held on Thursday, Dec. 11. The society has engaged the services of the Fiedler Instrumental Trio, consisting of the following members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra: Mr. Alfred Holy, harpist; Mr. Arthur Fiedler, violinist; Mr. Jacobs Langendoen, cellist; Mr. E. L. Tenney has recently been appointed a member of the committee of the Choral Society.

In the absence of Mr. Bates on Tuesday night owing to illness, Miss Lillian West directed the rehearsal of the society.

THE NEWTON CLUB

A stag progressive bridge party will be held tomorrow night at the club. There will be a collation at 10:30 and a turkey prize will be offered.

A formal dance will be held at the club the day before Thanksgiving.

THE BAGDAD BAZAAR

The Bagdad Bazaar which was held in the Newton Centre Woman's Club House on Wednesday and Thursday of this week under the auspices of the activities committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, Mrs. John Capron, chairman, brought to Newton Centre a glimpse of the Far East with its fascinating picture of splendid, barbaric color and bright, gay costumes.

The latter were, indeed, gorgeous with their yellow and red headpieces, their sparkling bangles and necklaces. Red, green and yellow were the banners fluttering from the different booths. The star and crescent, emblem of the Turk, was everywhere in evidence. One could easily imagine himself in the midst of a Sultan's harem.

The booths presented everything both for the Thanksgiving Feast, and the Christmas gift. Among the articles presented were food, jellies, preserves, household articles, useful and fancy articles, toys, dolls, books, and records, silhouettes, candy grabs, and flowers.

A most delicious luncheon was served each noon in the basement of the club house.

During the afternoon of Wednesday tea was served and dancing enjoyed. There was also dancing in the evening. A dinner preceded the regular movies on Thursday.

One of the most attractive features was the Art Room upstairs where were exhibited many Art Treasures by Newton people.

Mrs. J. S. C. Taber was chairman of the Bazaar. Assisting her were Mrs. Charles T. Bartlett, Bags and Baskets; Mrs. J. Watson, Candy; Mrs. E. F. Goodwin, Food; Mrs. F. J. Blake, preserves; Mrs. H. B. Borey, Favors and Gifts; Mrs. J. Roblin, Stuart and Mrs. Robert Anderson, Household Articles; Mrs. Willis G. Parmelee, Aprons and Handkerchiefs; Mrs. George Remick, Flowers; Mrs. James Liddell, Books and Records; Mrs. George Murphy, Dolls and Baby clothes; Mrs. F. W. Downe, "Den of Thieves" (Grabs); Mrs. H. P. Bradford, Bundles; Mrs. Marshall Stone, in charge of the Tea Dance; Miss Julia Powie, in charge of Silhouettes; Mrs. Edward B. Barton in charge of the catering; Mrs. J. D. Hymers in charge of the Art Room.

Among those assisting Mrs. Hymers were Mrs. William Paxton, "Victorian Bouquets"; Mr. Sidney Callowhill, lustre ware, painted glass, and an especially beautiful tray; Miss Sarah Comer, also very attractive lustre ware; Mr. Cleveland and Miss Hitchcock, copper covered parchment shades; Miss Carol Taber and Miss J. C. Dunbar, jewelry; Miss Hatch, leather and copper work; Miss Elizabeth Newton, scarfs; Mrs. E. F. Haberstroh, Russian blouses.

Judging by the large number attending the Bazaar will certainly prove a great success, financially and socially.

ROUTINE MEETING

But Aldermen Manage to Stay At City Hall Until Nearly Midnight

Notwithstanding the meeting of the aldermen last Monday night was a rather hum drum affair, it was nearly midnight when the members of the board tore themselves away from the attractions of City Hall.

The numerous meetings attracted a large audience and considerable interest was manifested in the various subjects under discussion.

Hearings were held on Edison poles on Walnut park, on petition of Paquale Antoinellis for a 4-car garage on Adams street, and for sewers in Pennsylvania road, Elgin street, and for improvement in Hyde brook drain at which no one appeared.

Strong objections were raised to Edison poles on Bigelow road, Rev. A. W. Cook and Messrs. Charles E. Gibson, Wm. E. King and George W. Eddy entering protests.

The American Auto Livery Co., was represented by an attorney on its petition to sell gasoline at 11 Court St. There was no objection, but it was brought out that this was virtually the same petition which the board turned down in the spring. Later in the session the License committee reported favorably on this matter, but the board by a vote of 11 to 6 refused to grant the permit.

Mr. Wilfred A. Clark spoke in favor of the petition of the Clark Motor Sales Co., for a public garage on Kempton place, and while it was opposed by one person, the board subsequently granted the petition.

Frank McLaughlin spoke in favor of his petition to sell gasoline at 2044 Commonwealth avenue, but his words were not heeded as the board refused to grant the permit.

A large delegation from Waban were present on the petition of the Strong estate to sell gasoline on Windsor road. Mr. E. P. Stratton spoke mildly in favor, while Messrs. W. C. Holbrook, George M. Angier, Walter R. Meadows and Thomas R. Taylor entered vigorous protests, although the aldermen were seen to smile when Mr. Holbrook referred to the "congested traffic in Waban." A show of hands was asked and there was no one in favor and about 25 remonstrants. Leave to withdraw was voted later in the evening.

A Mr. Ryan raised some questions in regard to petition of Frank A. Burke to enlarge his 2-car garage on Derby street to a 3-car garage. The board paid too little heed to his at-

POLICE COURT

In court Monday morning, a suspended sentence of three months in the House of Correction was imposed on John Marino of 62 Green street, by Judge Bacon, on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor to a 17-year-old boy. Marino was arrested by patrolmen Veduccio and C. Feeley.

Dominic Mancuso of 100 Lexington street, West Newton, arrested by Sgt. Leehan and patrolmen King, Gaquin and Dungan, was charged with an illegal sale of intoxicating liquor and the case was continued until Saturday.

At the juvenile session last Friday morning Judge Brown of East Boston, sitting in the absence of Judge Bacon, had before him four boys and two girls, all charged with ringing false fire alarms, some on Halloween eve and others since that time. The sextet were sternly rebuked by Judge Brown, who was at first disposed to have the expense of the needless runs of the apparatus paid for by the culprits, but because of the hardship this would impose on some of the parents he placed the children on probation in charge of Mrs. Celia Wellman to whom they will report during the next few months.

CITY HALL

Miss Gertrude Bourne, the assistant city clerk has been ill the present week.

An event of considerable importance in the real estate field, as well as to those who are looking for an ideal location for a summer home, is the announcement of the opening of "Piney Point Estates" at Marion, Mass., for development.

This magnificent property, overlooking Buzzards Bay, is one of the most desirable spots left for development in this much desired neighborhood. The property consists of several hundred acres of woodland and seashore property, providing in location, scenery and climate all the most desirable elements that make up the finest sort of summer home sites. While the size of the plots permits the erection of large homes, provision is made for more modest houses. All plans and locations must be approved by the association's architects to insure harmony in design and outlook. "Piney Point Estates" is being developed and the sale of home sites is being handled exclusively by Fred Holland Chamberlin of the Park Sq. Building, Boston, who has been associated with some of the highest class real estate developments in and around Boston.

Last Friday the F. A. Day warriors defeated Wellesley Jr. High in a contest which failed to furnish the quality of football which the F. A. Day has exhibited in previous contests. The game started with the F. A. Day defending the south goal and Wellesley the north. Holbrook kicked off to the twenty-yard line, and after driving Wellesley back, finally scored a touchdown from Wellesley's ten. After this touchdown, J. Brown scored the extra point. In the second quarter Holbrook scored a touchdown and Brown drop kicked the goal. Just before the end of the half Custer recovered a fumble on the ten-yard line, but the period ended before the ball was put in a scrimmage.

Shortly after the start of the second half James Brown carried the ball twenty yards for a touchdown, but was unable to make the extra point. William Stumpf made his first appearance as the man to kick off with a fifty-five yard drive. After Wellesley had been held on their twenty-yard line, J. Gilligan carried the pigskin across, but failed to catch the forward for the extra point. Stumpf kicked to Wellesley's five yard line and the game ended. McGrath was referee and the periods were eight minutes.

We are scheduled to play Waltham Jr. High today at Claffin Field, and we hope to gain from them a more impressive victory.

On Friday, November 7, at Cabot Park, the girls' varsity team played the alumnae in a game of field hockey. The score was 6-1 in our favor. It was a very exciting game and we all hope that we shall also win the next game that we play.

Florence Hickey of the ninth grade presided at Assembly for the following program this week: Eleanor Colangelo, The Gettysburg Address; Eleanor Horton, Little Things; Harold Scholl, The Radio; Henrietta Kraber, One, Two and Three; Louise Landry, Cleaning the Furnace; Richard Wales, Violin Solos; Chester Cummings, Leap of Roushan Beg; Alice Herlihy, Forgetful Pa; Dorothea Whitney, Uncle Shaw's Pet Jug; Gladys Jerauld, The Blackberry Girl; Marjorie Mitchell, Piano Solo.

Mr. Carr then announced that three speakers would be chosen from each of the three classes to speak at Assembly.

High School

The freshman girls coming from the Angier school, Waban, have the best posture record, as shown by the results of the Physical exams. The record was 12 A's, 2 B's, 4 C's and no D's. Second in line is the Hyde School of Newton Highlands. The record of its girls was 12 A's, 7 B's, 2 C's and 3 D's.

Lasell

On Tuesday afternoon, November 17, Dr. and Mrs. Winslow were at home to members of the Lasell and Woodland Park Faculties at their residence, 145 Woodland road.

On Thursday afternoon there is to be a field hockey game between the Lasell girls and the University of Maine team on the Lasell field.

Thursday evening Dr. Guy M. Winslow, Principal of Lasell Seminary, leaves on a short trip to Porto Rico. The faculty and members of the Woodland Park School will hold open house on Friday afternoon, November 21st, at Woodland Park Hall.

Sunday evening Dr. Edward Payson Drew of Auburndale will speak at Vespers at the Seminary.

The Lasell Glee and Mandolin clubs are having regular practice work under the direction of Reverend Earle E. Harper of Auburndale. The leader of the Glee Club is Martha Field of Canton, Mass., and the accompanist is Bernice Cunningham of Springfield, Mass. Miss Margaret Walrath of Gloversville, New York, is leader of the Mandolin Club and Ruth Shepard of Warren, Mass., is accompanist.

Mason School

Owing to a leak in the boiler of the Rice School heating plant, the school closed for a part of the week. It was unfortunate to have it happen on Education Week.

The eighth grade clubs—science, music, and English—held their first meetings on Monday afternoon.

The music club plans to study the different instruments of the orchestra. In this, the members will have the help of charts, showing pictures, and Victor records purchased by last year's music club.

The science club members gave descriptions of what they had seen—i. e., a Vermont marble quarry, or an iron foundry.

The English club plan to put on a play at a later meeting.

Saturday, November 22, if the weather permits, the Mason captain ball team meets the Bigelow at the Newton Centre Playground at 10.30.

The Masons and the Highlands have had two games with scores of 9 to 3 and 8 to 2, a fair showing for each team of girls.

Education Week is being observed not only by regular work, but by special attention to the Governor's proclamation and the need for the best that can be had along educational lines for our future citizens.

Bowen School

There have been three assemblies in honor of Education Week. A patriotic program was given on Tuesday morning to which each room contributed one number. Wednesday afternoon Room 4 gave a play—Milk for All the World. Friday morning a story-teller from the New England Dairy Council entertained the children with stories. The ladies of the morning Americanization class read for the children on Thursday morning. Many parents visited the school during the week to prove their interest and cooperation.

Hyde School

This has been Education Week in the school, and Wednesday and Thursday were designated as special visiting days for parents and friends of education.

Wednesday offered opportunities to observe the special classes at work, and many parents visited the classes in sewing, civics, and home hygiene. An exhibition of canned goods was held in the kitchen.

Other special features were opportunities to hear eighth grade music under the direction of Mr. Griffin, supervisor of music, and an explanation of the heating and ventilating facilities of the school by Mr. Williams, the engineer.

Dramatizations in connection with the regular school work were given in many of the grades.

A spelling match between the fifth grades proved an exercise of much interest. These are frequently held in the school and produce splendid interest in the subject.

This past month, there has been an unusual amount of interest shown in the School Savings Bank. There are at the present time 338 pupils registered as depositors in the Newton Centre Savings Bank. A great many pupils have accounts with other Newton and Boston Banks.

Much interest was shown in the seventh and eighth grades on election day, when they went to the polls and witnessed the operation of voting. Later in the Civics class they discussed methods of voting.

The two seventh grades under the direction of Miss Prentice and Miss Tabor are preparing the "Courtship of Miles Standish" to be given for the Thanksgiving program.

The children in Miss Smith's third grade have made some very interesting health books. Much interest has been taken in the project.

Kenneth Hurd, of Miss Abbott's room, assisted by Richard Hennessey, has made a very interesting sand table project, "The First Transcontinental Railroad."

The eighth grade girls' captain ball team have played two games with the Mason School. Hyde won the first game and the Mason the second. Esther Woodworth is captain of the team and Dorothy True manager.

The boys have played six football games and won three. Langdon Powers is captain of the team.

The number who visited the school were about 400.

Newton Defeated by Rindge

The Newton eleven suffered its most crushing defeat of the season Saturday on Claffin Field at the hands of the powerful Rindge Tech team, which tore through the Orange and Black outfit and amassed a total of 27 points to Newton's 6.

High School Teachers

The faculty of the Newton High School and the Frank A. Day Junior High School will present "The Intimate Strangers," by Booth Tarkington, on the evenings of Dec. 5 and 6, at Players Hall, West Newton. The proceeds of these performances are to form the nucleus of a benefit fund for members of the High School Women Teachers' Club.

Franklin School

The children of the Franklin school are playing the "Penny Game" and are very much interested. Their savings have increased considerably since last year.

The boys and girls of Miss Sullivan's room, Grade 4, are the Champions in the Milk Game, and they have a very high percent.

Eugene Cronin and Maria Rondino are delivering the milk this year to the various rooms.

The highest record of attendance for September and October has been won by Miss Cary's class.

The little folks of the Kindergarten made a visit to Guzzi's Bakery to see how bread was made, and how clean a kitchen must be.

The Angier School

The Angier School has conducted especially interesting assemblies every morning this week.

On Monday the eighth grade had charge of the assembly. They gave an interesting play called "Old Way and the New." This play showed how things have changed since our mothers and fathers went to school. They also gave some poems on Constitution. At the close of the exercises Muriel Andrews, class president of the class of 1924 spoke.

Tuesday the seventh grade gave the assembly. Richard Souther played on the cello accompanied by Miss Sears the third grade teacher.

Wednesday the fifth and sixth grades gave the assembly. They gave a play called the "Peace Treaty" which was both picturesque and interesting. Miss Kelter's seventh grade and Mrs. Forbes' fifth grade have 100% rooms in banking.

Thursday the third and fourth grades took charge of the assembly. There were Health songs and an Indian Lullaby. Loring Bates of Miss Jones' fourth grade sang a solo and a group of girls joined in the chorus. A story of Thanksgiving was told by Josephine Anthony. The exercises closed with the singing of the School Song.

On Friday the primary grades gave the assembly. The first grade gave Health songs and poems. Betty Stephen gave a poem called "Hiawatha." The second grade gave a play called the "Fairy Secret."

titude, however, as it voted to grant the petition.

There was quite a discussion over the petition of W. I. Nottage to change his property on Cook street from a general residence to a business or manufacturing zone. Mr. Nottage said that his land lay alongside of the railroad, and he had an opportunity to sell it for a light manufacturing business if the zone was changed. Mr. Wm. B. McMullin said he would oppose the petition unless it was enlarged so as to include his property as well.

There were many remonstrants, including Alfred H. Norton, Miss Margaret C. Belger, C. H. Hazen, John McKnight, and Mrs. J. B. Danielson. Mr. Fred W. Stevens said that if the zone was changed he proposed to put up a one-story tile building for the purpose of manufacturing window sashes.

Mr. Peter T. Blake spoke in favor of modifying the setback line on California street to allow his building to be moved from its present location, where it encroached upon the Metropolitan parkway. His petition was opposed by J. L. Watson.

One of the best presentations of a case ever made to the city government was that of H. W. Morton on petition of Geo. T. Chubbuck to allow a 2-car garage to be located within 4 feet of Braeland avenue, and the board did well in granting the permit.

One man questioned the matter of a sewer in Fenno road, but was assured by the city engineer that he was not affected by the proposed sewer.

One man spoke in favor of the sewer in Bridges avenue.

Hearings were held on numerous private garages, John Hickey opposing the petition of August Guernelli, on Langley road, and a representative of Mrs. B. E. Taylor objecting to that of Mrs. S. R. Wheeler on Grant avenue.

The hearings closed at 9 o'clock.

Mayor Childs sent in several recommendations for increase in appropriations, the most important being that of $11,000 for improvement of the Hyde Brook drain.

The Board of Health recommended sewer construction in the Taft avenue, Hazelhurst road and Waltham St. district.

The City Engineer reported that he had acceded to the request of residents of a part of Islington road, and would resume its former designation as Malvern terrace.

Leave to withdraw was voted on petition of A. G. Kerr to change the zone in Coyne road, Ward 5, and similar action was taken on petition of M. E. Curtin for additional hackney carriage licenses.

The Waban Improvement society asked for change in the zoning ordinance so as to allow "single residence" zones and the matter was referred to a special committee to be appointed to consider that question.

Drains and sewers were authorized in private land off Warren street, Bridges avenue, Cabot street, Glenwood avenue, Parker street and Jackson street, and $5000 was voted for the widening of Dedham street.

The mayor was authorized to sell land owned by the city on Dover St., a hearing was assigned on laying out of Hunnewell circle and betterment assessments levied on Gay street, Tarleton road and Vineyard road.

The application of Robert B. McKnight, et al, for incorporation in the First Church Orchestra of Newton, Inc., was approved.

The following garage permits were granted:

Webber, Gardner and Crocker, 364 Woodward street, Ward 5, 1-car in basement.

C. S. Patten, 16 Country Club road, Ward 5, 1-car in basement.

NEWTON HOSPITAL

Week ending Nov. 15:—Patients in hospital 104, patients paying as much as cost of care or more 54, those paying less than cost of care 23, free patients (including babies) 28, patients treated by out patient department 110, patients treated at eye clinic 8, accident cases 5, babies born 11, social service calls at hospital 3, at homes 14, patients transferred by social service car 17.

In one twenty-four hours this week seven babies were born at the hospital.

Dr. LeFurgy went to Portland last week and took the state medical board examinations for practicing in Maine.

Founders is being repainted and during the process several of the maternity patients have been taken care of in the cubicles recently built in Mellen Bay ward and intended for use by men patients.

Miss Tillotson and Miss Flint of the hospital staff spent the week end of last week in New York, and attended the Cornell-Dartmouth game.

The Know More Kokki Klub held one of its regular meetings at the hospital Monday evening.

It is too bad to have to say so, but the hospital is disappointed in the number of women who have volunteered to make surgical dressings. There are some who are working faithfully, but there are not enough to make the number of dressings that the hospital needs. If half a dozen women who own automobiles would make it a practise to go to the hospital once a week with three or four friends whom they could take along as passengers it would help along the work greatly.

Miss Eleanor Jones, the hospital record librarian, attended the recent meeting of the Association of Record Librarians held at the Waltham Hospital. There were representatives present from the Cambridge, Waltham, Newton, Massachusetts General, Peter Bent Brigham and Boston City Hospitals. The discussion at the meeting was upon a standard operative nomenclature which the Association is trying to work out. The members were asked to jot down terms used for any unusual operations which may come to their attention. Miss Jones invited the Association to hold its next meeting at the Newton Hospital, but because of the ill health of Mrs. Myers, the president of the Association and the Record Secretary at the Massachusetts General, the Association sent its thanks to Miss Allen, the superintendent of the Newton Hospital, and decided to hold all of its winter meetings at the Massachusetts General Hospital.

DEFEATED AGAIN

Rindge Technical School smothered Newton High School at Claffin Field Saturday, 27 to 6, a score that belies the actual closeness of the game. Capt. Smith's brilliant performance for Rindge and opportunities offered by Newton fumbles made the extremely one-sided score possible.

A bad pass from centre cost Newton a high possible tie. With Rindge leading, 13 to 6, in the final period, T. Gilligan, Newton quarterback, cut loose with a series of perfect passes that took the ball deep into Rindge territory.

But with three minutes of play and a Newton score looming, a bad pass from centre was scooped up by Haigh, Rindge right tackle, who ran 60 yards for a touchdown.

Rindge scored first, in the second period on a 25-yard pass, Smith to Eleweitz. In that period, T. Gilligan missed two field goals for Newton from the 12 and 20-yard lines.

Rindge scored again in the third period on two long runs by Smith and a pass to Ward.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S COUNCIL TO HOLD ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Fourth Annual Young People's Conference of the Norumbega District will take place in the Newtonville Central Congregational Church, on the afternoons and evenings of November 28 and 29.

Professor Herbert C. Mayer of Boston University is director. The program offers a variety of subjects of interest, including talks on leadership, on the four-fold life, and on successful methods of young people's work in the church.

Among those who are to lead conferences and discussions are Hayden L. Straight of Newtonville, Professor Warmingham of Boston University, Miss Thelma L. Bishop of Newton Centre, Miss Luliona Barker of Watertown, and Erwin L. Shaver of the Congregational Education Society.

The purpose of this event is expressed in a nutshell by the words, "Here to learn, home to serve." Those who attend should be young people of potential leadership ability, able to receive new ideas and take such ideas back to their local churches.

C. C. Burr

In the first football game of the season Burr opposed Angier at Forest Grove Playground and won by score of 59-6. In the second game Burr played against Pierce and lost, score 19-0.

Tuesday, Nov. 18th was set apart at the Williams school as special visiting day during Educational Week. On this day about 175 parents and friends came to the schoolhouse.

On Thursday, Nov. 20th, parents and friends of the Burr school gathered in large numbers to witness the regular work of the school and show their special interest in educational matters.

The teachers of the Burr and her former pupils as well, were very much pleased to receive last week a visit from Miss Ruth Woodbury, who is on a one year's leave of absence from Burr kindergarten.

A party of twenty-five children of the 7th and 8th grades of the Burr school, accompanied by their teachers, recently attended the first of a series of Educational Concerts given by the Boston symphony orchestra at Symphony Hall.

Next week the children of the Burr and Williams schools are to bring in their special donations of fruits and vegetables to be sent to the Welfare Bureau for Thanksgiving.

The following program was arranged and given by the eighth grade English Club under the leadership of Francis Barry as chairman:

1. Welcome to Guests, Chairman; 2. Meaning of Armistice Day (original essay) Kimball Ufford; 3. World War Stories, Mary Supino, Rodney Holden, Walter Kirly, Dorothy Davis; 4. Woman's Part in World War (original essay) Elizabeth Henrick; 5. Poems of the World War, Mary Reed, Thomas Thornton, Francis Blackwell and Hazel Lawrence; 6. Why America is Anxious for Universal Peace (original essay) Thelma Bailey; 7. The Bridge Builders (poem) Club; 8. Flag Salute; 9. America.

Members of the Club provided music on piano and four violins. An exhibit of World War souvenirs was under the direction of a special committee.

Bigelow School

Invitations to visit the school during Education Week were sent to the parents and friends of Bigelow pupils.

The response was very gratifying. Some came to see the class-room work, and many more to the special exercises in the Assembly Hall on Wednesday and Friday.

On Wednesday afternoon a very interesting program was carried out by Grades V, VI, VII and VIII.

Friday morning's program for Hall assembly included music by the school orchestra, Flag Salute, and American Creed by the school, and an address by Mayor Childs.

In the afternoon Mr. Griffin was in charge of the Program which consisted of music by the several grade groups. Mr. Griffin also sang.

GOOD GOVERNMENT CLUB

A well attended meeting of the Good Government Club of Auburndale listened Wednesday evening to a discussion of the question to be on our ballots at the coming city election, whether the act repealing our system of preferential voting shall be approved. Chairman Thompson of the Republican city committee spoke for the "yes" side; Alderman Heathcote sustained the "no." Evidently the audience was overwhelmingly on the side of "no." There was plenty of discussion from the floor. Alderman Hollis was a notable speaker for the "no" side, having been opposed to the plan originally, but being now satisfied, from his long service in the city government, that the law is good. Chairman Thompson conceded enough, in way of the theoretical excellence of the law and the practical results with a city government which he praised highly, to justify retention of the law. His only point against it was that it is "inoperative" and that vague criticism was not supported by a solitary fact. Much was made for the preferential system that it takes partisan politics out of the city election and that lines of Republican and Democrat ought never to be drawn in city affairs. Under the preferential system, too, the government is kept closer to the people than if we return to the old system which makes it probable that management will return into the hands of a few. The working of the plan is very simple, for all the voter is concerned about when marking his ballot is to mark first, second and other choices. The counting is done by the election officers and need not bother the voters. The case was made so strong for voting "no" and was so weak for voting "yes" that it was evidently clear to nearly every one of the audience that all the city ought to give an overwhelming "no" on December 9.

For Thanksgiving! Three Very Special Offerings in Domestic Dinnerware

These three patterns have been selected from our extensive dinnerware stocks and marked unusually low. Thanksgiving shoppers will find that these values are typical representations of the many other things needed for this occasion.

Domestic Porcelain Dinner Set

Service for 12 Persons

$25.00

The decoration consists of a narrow brown border with blue medallions and rosebuds. A remarkable value.

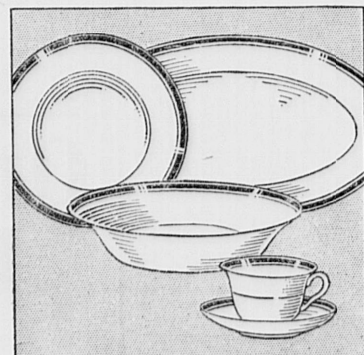

Domestic Porcelain Dinner Set

Service for 6 Persons

$6.85

Dainty pink rose spray pattern. Exceptionally attractive at this low price.

Domestic Porcelain Dinner Set

Service for 6 Persons

$6.85

Neat gold band and line pattern sharply reduced in value for Thanksgiving.

Mitchell Woodbury Co.

One Block From South Station

560 Atlantic Avenue, Corner Congress St.

Open All Day Saturday

Only five more days and then—Thanksgiving! One of the great occasions of the year, when all the family gathers round and King Turkey becomes (for the moment) the national bird. This calls for something rather special. What will be your contribution? We suggest Apollo Chocolates—a one or two-pound package—at any price you please.

HUDSON'S DRUG STORE

NEWTON CORNER

COBB ESTATE EASTSIDE PARKWAY NEWTON, MASS.

Restricted single and two-family houses. Lots ranging from 6,000 to 10,000 sq. feet.

Convenient to stores, churches, schools and transportation. Introductory prices low. We will assist you in financing your house.

You should act quickly, as these introductory prices are making the property sell quickly—over one-third already sold.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS EMMA D. COOLIDGE

In regard to the death of Miss Burt, Miss Coolidge, as a representative of the club women of Newton writes:

"The death of Miss Burt is not only a personal loss to me and to many other club women who were her friends, as well as associates, it is a club loss that we can only repay by thoughts of gratitude for her loyal service, and by expressing for those near to her sincere sympathy and sorrow, and our high regard for her whom we all have lost, in this unexpected hour."

This is Education Week throughout our country, a week in which we have given pause to consider our problems, our progress, and our opportunities, in all that affects practical, as well as cultural, education. When one considers that in every town and city there have been in operation methods for bringing together those in charge of education and those who seek it for themselves or their children, it is inspiring to realize that a few days so given can accomplish. Here in our City there has been one approach made to our attention that has been most profitable, and we tender our thanks to Miss Chase, and the Library for bringing to us the exhibition of worthwhile and entertaining books for young people, something that will gain in value as the Christmas season approaches.

Newton has cause to be proud, also, of the Education Meeting held on Monday evening, in the school hall of the Bigelow building.

State Federation

A complete account of the Fall
Meeting held at Lowell on November 19 will be given next week.

Meanwhile a message from Mrs.
Robert Culbert, chairman of Legislation, urges club women to inform themselves upon the laws in operation throughout the country on Marriage and Divorce. Also the Cable Bill of 1922, fixing the status of married women as citizens, is recommended for study. To be fully informed makes for wisdom, and as it is evident that our State Federation desires to take some step toward progress for uniformity of laws affecting women; let us be prepared, when they ask for our intelligent co-operation.

Newton Federation

The monthly meeting of the Executive Board was held on last Monday morning at the Newton Club, with the President, Mrs. Ernest Cobb, in the chair. In routine business, the Treasurer's report showed a good working balance, which is always a cheering way to begin a year's plans.

Satisfactory progress was reported on the project of providing for a suitable sports-field for the use of the girls, while arranging for the new High School building. The school and city authorities have expressed willingness to consider the needs of the girls for athletic grounds, in appropriating funds for the work on Lau-dry Brook, so that it only remains to see that this is considered in the new fiscal year, and not allowed to be forgotten.

Attention was called to the play to be given by the Teachers' Association at Players' Hall, on December 5 and 6, and the need for civic interest and support to make it a success. Here is a concrete way in which the people of Newton can show appreciation of the educational service. The play will be Booth Tarkington's "The Intimate Strangers."

The Public Health Chairman asked for "outdoor-mindedness," and urged that we get out and walk daily—"yes, even on such a day as this, the first of real winter"—to the entertainment of her hearers. She also brought the good tidings that the Milk Ordinance, for which the Club has worked, had passed, to be effective about April first. We trust that this date will not interfere with the success of our work. This means that all cows will be tuberculin-tested, but does not, unfortunately, provide for laboratory tests for bacteria. However, that may come eventually.

Mrs. Russell, Education Chairman, reported on Book Week, and the Civics Chairman announced her satisfaction in the registration of the women voters in Newton, over ninety per cent now being registered. Mrs.
Starkweather also gave her report on the Biennial at Los Angeles.

The Legislative Chairman reported the advice of the State Chairman as to informing ourselves on current problems, and cautioned against endorsement of measures by clubs; urging, rather, that women as individual citizens work for or against measures, instead of endangering club harmony by blanket endorsements that are too often dangerous, because

MISS GRACE M. BURT

Miss Grace M. Burt, for nineteen years club editor of the Graphic and well known in the affairs of women's clubs in Newton, died early Wednesday morning at her home, 94 Charles-bank road, after a short illness following a cerebral hemorrhage.

She was born in Springfield, April 20, 1870, and was the only daughter of the late Henry M. Burt, founder of the New England Homestead and editor of the Mt. Washington summer newspaper, Among the Clouds. Her ancestors included Henry Burt who came from Harborton, Devonshire, England, and settled in Springfield in 1640; Sergeant Martin Burt, of Southampton, who served at the surrender of Burgoyne; Governors Dudley and Bradstreet of Massachusetts and Webster of Connecticut; also Rev. John Cotton, of Boston. Her paternal grandfather, Franklin Burt, of Southampton, served in the War of 1812. Her maternal grandfather, Seth Hunt, of Northampton, was for many years treasurer of the Connecticut River Railroad, and was a leader in the Western part of the state in the anti-slavery and equal suffrage movements.

Miss Burt's family moved from Springfield to Newton in her early years and she prepared for college at the private school of Miss Elizabeth Spear. She was graduated from Mt.
Holyoke College in the class of 1892 and taught for a short period in the South Hadley High School. In 1894 she returned to Newton to take charge of the home of her brother, Frank H.
Burt, following the death of his wife (Susie Allen Burt) and to care for his two young sons; and here she had made her home for thirty years.

In Channing Church she had taken an active part in the Sunday school and the women's organizations, having been president of the local branch of the Alliance of Unitarian Women, as well as a director of the national body and at the time of her death a member of the International Committee. She took an active part in the inception of the Newton Community Club, serving on its organization committee. She was a former president of the Chip-in Club of Newton, a former secretary of the West Newton Educational Club and the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, a former president and for the past year the vice-president of the New England Women's Press Association.

She was a devoted alumna of Mt.
Holyoke College and had rarely failed to attend commencement since her graduation. She had served in various capacities in the Boston Mt. Holyoke Alumnae Association, had been president of the Mt. Holyoke Club and a member of the Alumnae Council.
She took an active part in the campaign for the endowment fund for the college, to which she devoted much time and energy.

Nothing in her activities was more deserving of recognition than her publicity work for the Massachusetts Women's Division of the Council of National Defense, to which she devoted a large share of her time for a year and a half during the war. Speaking of this service, Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, chairman of the division, stated that Mr. Henry B. Endicott, the head of the Committee on Public Safety, was very desirous that the publicity should be properly handled, and accordingly
Mrs. Thayer called a meeting of newspaper women from all over the state, about twenty of whom gathered in her office at the State House. Mrs. Thayer having told what was needed, Miss Burt and Mrs. F. E. Dowling of Allston offered their services. From that time one or the other was on duty daily, and much of the time both. "It was a splendid service," said Mrs. Thayer, "and a most valuable piece of war work. We always had perfect confidence that whatever we wanted printed would be given out properly, and that nothing else would appear." Mrs.
Thayer spoke in highest terms of Miss Burt's public spirit as shown in this inconspicuous but important service, while her colleague, Mrs. Dowling, tells how often she was impressed by Miss Burt's unfailing tact and good nature in the many trying incidents arising in the course of their duties.

Among important occasions on which Miss Burt had been engaged for publicity service were the inauguration of Miss Ada L. Comstock as president of Radcliffe College and the meeting of the Student Federation of Religious Liberals at Mt. Holyoke College last June.

From her earliest years her summers had been spent in the White Mountains, where she had many friends in the summer colonies of Intervale and Ranph. N. H. With her father and brother she had made carriage journeys in the earlier days to nearly every corner of the mountains, while she had climbed Mt. Washington and the Northern Peaks of the Presidential Range, as well as Kearsarge and Passaconaway.

In 1910 she attended the Fifth International Congress of Free Christianity and Religious Progress at Berlin, traveling with a party organized by Rev. Charles W. Wendte, D.D., which was entertained by Unitarian and other liberal religious sympathizers in England, Holland, Germany and Switzerland. After the meetings a smaller group, led by Miss Burt's brother, and including Miss Jessie M.
Fisher and the late Mrs. A. R. Bailey, made a tour of Switzerland, where her love of mountain scenery was gratified by cloudless skies and perfect views of the Matterhorn, Jungfrau and Mont Blanc.

To the gathering of her club news she devoted almost without exception her Wednesday evenings, when she was accustomed to talk over the telephone with club secretaries all over Newton, and these conversations always seemed a source of pleasure to both sides. In the midst of her illness she said with marked regret,
"This is the first time in nineteen years that I haven't had my copy ready." She wrote rapidly and yet with care, taking much pains with the style and finish of even minor bits of news, while accuracy of detail was to her a second nature.

"The handiwork of her craft is her prayer," wrote the author of the ancient book of Ecclesiasticus, speaking of those who, toiling with their hands, "help to maintain the fabric of the world." It was in this spirit that Miss Burt played her part in life, faithfully recording the doings of her sisters in the movements which Petition to Foreclose Tax Lien.

[Seal] No. 669.
To All Whom it May Concern, and to Maud H. Roscoe, of Boston, in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth; John L. Roscoe, now or formerly of San Diego, in the State of California, or his heirs, devisees or legal representatives;

Whereas a petition has been presented to said court by the City of Newton, a municipal corporation located in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, (severed from petition No. 178), to foreclose all rights of redemption from the tax lien proceedings described in said petition and concerning two certain parcels of land situated in said Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, bounded and described in said petition as follows:

First Parcel: About nine thousand square feet of land, bounded, northerly by Cochituate Aqueduct, easterly by land now or late of Sheehan, southerly by land now or late of Roscoe, westerly by Winslow Road, being section 56, block 34, lot 13 of Assessors' Plans.

Second Parcel: About nine thousand, one hundred and twelve (9112) square feet of land, bounded northerly by land now or late of Roscoe, easterly by land now or late of Sheehan, southerly by Selden Street, westerly by Winslow Road, being Section 56, block 34, lot 14 of Assessors' Plans.

You are hereby cited to appear at the Land Court, to be held at Boston, in the County of Suffolk, on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1924, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. And unless you appear at said court at the time and place aforesaid your default will be recorded, and the said petition will be taken as confessed, and you will be forever barred from exercising any rights of redemption as aforesaid.

And in addition to the usual service of this notice as required by law, it is ordered that the foregoing citation be published forthwith once each week for three successive weeks in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in said Newton.

Witness, Charles Thornton Davis, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this 6th day of November in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-four.

Attest with seal of said Court.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

Leverett D. G. Bentley

If some one will provide a place of meeting we will undertake the organization of a Society to Solve the Traffic Problems of Nonantum Square. We warn anyone who may be disposed to engage a hall for the purpose that if all voluntary experts who have already expressed their views see fit to attend that the meeting place must be the largest Newton possesses. As a matter of fact we doubt if it will be possible to assemble under a single roof in our home town all who are qualified to join. We might have day meetings and night meetings which would probably suit a good many. There would be a large attendance from out-of-town, too, for many motorists from other places have been heard to comment freely on conditions in the square during their drive among its collection of sign posts. The meeting might be appropriately held in the square itself and traffic suspended for the time being. That would, of course, be more appropriate but hardly seems feasible. Still, we believe that wherever the preliminary meeting is held there must be plenty of valet space provided for the display of blue-prints as no doubt many prospective members of the S. S. T. P. N. S. have gone into the subject deeply and carefully prepared drawings that are intended to illustrate their views. Some of those interested may want the use of a stereopticon to display slides—not the slides that have been taken by pedestrians in dodging traffic in the square—but lantern slides that are used to illustrate more important points of a discourse. We believe there should be community singing and would suggest that the program, led by a chorus of visiting motorists, preferably from Watertown and Cambridge include, "Now We Go Round the Mulberry Bush." "I Don't Know Where I'm Going." "But I Can My Way" and "One Good Turn Insures Another." When it comes to the choice of officers for the S. S. T. P. N. S. we have nothing to say, believing that it is well to remain silent until we learn whether there is to be a treasury and if so whether it is to contain anything. In event of such a condition arising I will announce ourselves not as a candidate for president but as willing to take one of the minor offices. We shall of course attend the meeting ourselves and possibly place in nomination the names of people we think are well-prepared to hold office in the society. Among those whose names we shall be happy to mention publicly is the writer of the accompanying letter. If one will carefully read what "Mercury" has to say one will be anxious to vote for or against him.

As a daily driver of one of Henry's Patented Vibrators and a constant reader of your philosophical efforts in the Newton Graphic, it behooves me to take up my pen and drop you a few lines in regard to the Traffic Rules of Nonantum Square. It is not my intention to unfavorably compare the new regulations with the old. In fact, I am going to give the new rules a boost as they will unquestionably better than the old. Of course, when the city fathers took up this question of changing the traffic rules in Nonantum Square, there was more to it than just a mere question of safety to pedestrians, as one of your recent correspondents seems to infer. I am sure, my friend, that the big question of fairness to merchants. Just think how unfair it was to the merchants whose stores faced upon the westerly part of the square or Hall street to have all the traffic from Watertown towards Brighton getting a chance to look into the window displays of their more fortunate competitors at the easterly end of the square. Just think of the enormous loss to these merchants each year when advertising sells for as high a price as it does to-day. If it was just a matter of getting the traffic across Nonantum Square as quickly and as easily as possible that was bothering the city, all that need have been done was to have a run-way up and over the roofs of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway cars which are always waiting in the square (except when we happen to want one there), thus letting a steady stream of traffic wind its impatient way towards Brighton and beyond, at the same time giving the drivers and passengers the thrill that one would ordinarily have to visit Nantasket or Revere and ride in the roller coasters to obtain.

Knowing that space in your valuable column is limited, I will close at this time, and hope you will continue to stand up for the fairness of Newton's traffic rules.

MERCURY.

The other day we heard a prominent woman complaining because she went to the police station in Newton looking for an officer and found the place closed. Investigation on her part revealed that only at roll call is the building open and even then no one is there to receive the public. It seems that the same is true of the police stations at Nonantum and Newton Centre. These institutions it appears, are merely places for policemen to keep their rubber coats and their civilian clothes. The cells are not used when a wagon can be put through to Police Headquarters at West Newton and the patrol auto summoned from there. We wonder if this is the wisest policy for a city to pursue. No doubt the reason no policemen are kept on duty at these substations is that their superiors believe them needed on the street. We do not know what recommendations the Chief of Police may have made in his request for more men. Every Chief of Police in the world who makes an annual recommendation for more men, and every Board of Aldermen in the world always asks him if he can't get along with less than he has, and if not, why not. So there isn't any need of our making inquiries at City Hall for we are well aware of conditions without talking to a soul. We believe that if a substitution of the police department is to be maintained at all it should be done properly. The present situation is typical of a "hick" town where the "lock-up" is maintained in the basement of the town hall. We wonder if when the building at Newton and the quarters fitted out for the police in the Nonantum and Newton Centre fire stations were completed years ago, the city fathers thought they would never be used. If in one year the police station in Newton looking for a policeman he is making an error. They have everything there but policemen—automobile registry branch, voting booths, etc. Emergencies do not count in these villages. If you want a policeman telephone Police Headquarters or hang around the square in your particular village until a policeman makes his appearance. No doubt this is the most economical plan that could be devised and permits a larger number of patrolmen to walk the streets. We believe, however, that the same plan that obtains at Police Headquarters should be in operation at the substations both day and night. Night men work their "long days" at headquarters. There is no reason, as you view it, why they cannot be assigned to the substations for similar work. Motorcycle police can cover so much ground nowadays that the street patrol in congested centers might be easily curtailed. However, we are not presuming to run the police department. Yet we do believe that if there are to be substations of the police department they should be open for public use. We cannot approve the present conditions where a citizen who tries to get into a police station to find an officer runs the risk of being arrested for breaking and entering.

We once read of a famous man who possessed several good watches but for some reason was unable to carry one that would keep accurate time. The cause seemed impossible of explanation—the watch was all right in every particular but just wouldn't go when he carried it. We started out, after reading the article to claim relationship with that famous man. Solely on the ground that we cannot carry our own watch—a really excellent timepiece—and have it keep good time. We confided our experience to several and found one or two who had encountered the same difficulty. It looked as if we would have a large collection of near-relatives on our hands if we claimed the same ancestry so we suspended that plan in favor of a really good watch. But it made it clear why we are given to glancing at clocks as we make our daily trip to Boston on the trolley. All we can say is that it is good for muscles of the eyes presumably. We get little else out of it. We have come to locate several clocks that might escape the notice of a citizen who knows how to carry a watch. But more clocks we locate the more upset we become as to the right time. There are occasions when we start, according to the first clock, at a specified hour and find, after riding 10 minutes, that we are ahead of ourselves and have gained much and lost nothing. Then we next encounter a clock which does not agree with the other two and stands about half-way. The fourth clock will confirm the first, the fifth the second and there we are. We have in the meantime lost track of the time and so if we see somebody enter the car with a wrist watch it is with great difficulty we restrain ourselves from seizing that person's arm and gazing at the timepiece. Even St. Mary's clock, which we have discovered, and in the end there is no final court of appeal unless it be the conductor. But some trolley car conductors can't be bothered with watches, according to their own statement. As far as we can see the Elevated will have to put clocks in its cars if it really wants to accommodate the thousands of passengers. For some passengers' cuckoo clocks might be more appropriate.

This is "American Education Week." What have you learned?

PROMPT SERVICE

JOHN BOYLE O'REILLY CLUB

S. G. Timothy O'Connell had the pleasure of presiding over the largest meeting of the John Boyle O'Reilly Club last Friday evening, which that growing organization has held in many years, and carried out a long program with his accustomed energy and ability.

Promptly at 8 o'clock he rapped for order and lost no time in presenting brother Peter Conroy, D. D. who had just returned from a convention held recently in New York, and is acknowledged to be the best informed man in greater Boston in regard to Club affairs.

Brother Conroy told an interesting story of conditions in Ireland as he heard it from men well qualified to speak of Irish affairs, who had recently returned from Ireland. He spoke particularly of economic conditions over there, and expressed great confidence in the courage and ability of the Irish people to work out their own salvation.

Mr. A. J. Pendergast of Roxbury was the next speaker, and he gave a very instructive account of Irish affairs and roused great enthusiasm when he urged all present to work unitedly and determinedly for the ultimate independence of Ireland.

For an encore he gave a patriotic recitation which was well received.

Mr. O'Connell next presented Mr. J. Cuniff of Watertown as the dean of the order in this section, and Mr. Cuniff gave a history of the Irish question, which covered a personal experience of over sixty years.

The speaker brought his audience to its feet when he mentioned the name of the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, and in forceful language recalled his efforts in the Senate to keep this country out of the "League of Nations," especially as he had to issue with some of the leading members of his own party.

He told of personal correspondence which he had with the late statesman which breathed a spirit of firmness and independence which marked his long and useful career as a public man. Mr. Cuniff predicted that future generations would do full justice to the reputation of Senator Lodge, and was cheered to the echo when he quoted the following lines from the pen of the late Boyle O'Reilly.

"Great men grow greater by the lapse of time. We know those least whom we have seen the latest; And those among them whose names have grown sublime And worked for human liberty, are greatest."

Other speakers were E. J. Burke, J. D. Monahan, Esquire, McGaffigan, of Waltham, and Secretary J. J. Herlihy of the club.

Before adjourning the members stood in silence in memory of the late P. A. Murray of this city, who was one of the club's most active members.

SCHOOL HEALTH SERVICE

Interesting Study and Important Recommendations In Report to Newton Central Council

A very valuable piece of work which was conducted quietly during the spring months of last year was a survey of the School Health Service of Newton, made by two students of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at the request of the Newton Central Council.

In his Foreword to the report of the study, Dr. Murray P. Horwood, Assistant Professor in the Department of Biology and Public Health at the Institute comments on the value of the periodic health survey.

"With the increasing development, extent, and complexity of public health work has come the need of stopping at periodic intervals, in order to take stock and find out whether we are proceeding wisely or doing all that we should. The value of the periodic survey depends however, on the intelligence, training, tact, and thoroughness with which the work is conducted. A survey properly conceived, and satisfactorily carried out may be a great potential inducement to the improvement of the people in any community.

"Of particular importance in the public health program of any community is the health supervision of the children in the schools. The increased opportunities for contact in the large numbers necessarily brings in its wake, and the great losses which communities still experience from the so-called diseases of childhood, make the duty of the community seem extremely obvious. Health supervision must be adequate, and must be conducted in such a manner as effectively to prevent disease and promote the health of the children. The realization that the physical body of the child grows to school as well as the mind, has brought about a marked transformation in our ideas concerning education since the beginning of the Twentieth Century. I am convinced that the future will see even greater progress in the protection of child life against disease and hazards of all sorts. We are also beginning to realize, more than ever before, that the time for the development of good health habits, as well as good habits in other directions, is during the period of childhood. The basis of the civilization of the next generation is being laid in the child life of today. It is our duty, therefore, to build that foundation as firmly and as effectively as our existing knowledge permits.

"The Newton Central Council through the Community Survey which it has undertaken, is attempting to promote intelligent planning for the City of Newton in this direction. We have been particularly fortunate to have the survey of School Hygiene and Sanitation conducted by two fine women of outstanding capability. Both of these are students in the Department of Biology and Public Health of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and were sent to that institution on scholarships provided by the American Child Health Association, after a nation-wide contest. One of these, Miss Florence H. M. Emory, is Supervisor of School Nursing for the Toronto Department of Public Health, while the other, Miss Helen P. Froehner, has been a member of the Faculty of the Washington Junior High School at Rochester, New York, since 1915."

A summary of the report follows: The whole-hearted co-operation of the Board of Health and the School Department made the study not an irksome duty to be done, but a worthwhile and pleasant task to be accomplished. There prevailed throughout a spirit of helpfulness and a desire to have conditions seen as they really existed in order that constructive suggestions for the improvement of the Service might be made.

According to the United States Census of 1920 the City of Newton has a population of 46,054. The city covers an area of 18 square miles and is essentially a city of homes.

The Public Schools, including the Classical, Technical and Vocational High and the Junior High School, number twenty-seven. The total enrollment in these schools is 9,221. Of this number 2,153 attend the High Schools, 522 the Junior High School, and 7,556 the elementary schools.

The Medical, Dental and Nursing Services of the Newton Public Schools are the responsibility of the Board of Health, the Chairman of which is Dr. Francis G. Curtis, who is essentially the Medical Director of Health. Directly responsible to him are seven part-time physicians, a full-time dentist, and five full-time school nurses. Miss Mabel C. Bragg, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, is in charge of health training in the elementary and high schools. A full-time psychologist is employed by the School Department to act as Mental Hygienist and Director of Special Classes for Retarded Children.

Medical Service

Each of the seven physicians has under his care a certain number of schools. His duties are to visit the school each day before 10:00 A. M. to readmit children who have been absent one day or more and who are thought to be suffering from a disease; to examine children for communicable disease; to examine children referred to him by the nurse or teacher; and to give the Schick Test and Toxin-Antitoxin immunization. Defects that are found are referred to the family physician or to the hospital clinics if the parents are unable to pay a physician.

An examination of the teeth of each child is not made each year. The school nurse refers defects which she finds to the family dentist for treatment or to the school clinic. The latter, conducted by the Board of Health, employs one full-time dentist and one full-time clerk.

Mental tests are given to groups of children by the principal and those who deviate from the normal are referred to the school psychologist for an individual examination.

The school nurse makes a general survey of all school children after long holidays, and if she has time, makes a routine inspection of every class once a month. All children absent because of illness are reported to the nurse, who in some instances, makes a visit to the home. She endeavors to follow up physical defects found by the school physician and visits each home once if a child is found to be suffering from some physical defect. There is seldom time for more than two visits to the home; consequently the educational work which the nurse might do in the home is limited.

Special Health Work

The following special classes are conducted by the School Department for physically and mentally handicapped children.

Four open air classes are being conducted in the Peirce School and provision for a fifth has been made in the new Underwood School. These classes are not for malnourished children, but serve the pupils of grades three to six inclusive. The temperature of the rooms is kept at 50 degrees F. and extra clothing is provided for cold days. Hot sodas may be purchased by the children at recess in the morning and afternoon if desired.

Special Health Classes have been established in seven schools by the School Department, through funds made available by the Health Committee of the Newton Welfare Bureau. These funds are obtained annually through the sale of Christmas Seals organized and conducted by a special committee of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs.

Children who are 10% or more underweight for their height, are invited to attend the classes, which are held on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, at which times the Newton schools are not in session. A teacher is present to take charge of the children and to see that health habits are emphasized. Each child is brought about a marked improvement in their ideas concerning education since the beginning of the Twentieth Century. I am convinced that the future will see even greater progress in the protection of child life against disease and hazards of all sorts. We are also beginning to realize, more than ever before, that the time for the development of good health habits, as well as good habits in other directions, is during the period of childhood. The basis of the civilization of the next generation is being laid in the child life of today. It is our duty, therefore, to build that foundation as firmly and as effectively as our existing knowledge permits.

Three classes for Mentally Retarded Children are held in the Barnard School, one in the Emerson, and one in the Vocational High School. Opportunity Classes have been established in Franklin, Davis and Stearns Schools.

Recommendations concerning admission to, and discharge from, special classes are made by the School Department. The teachers have been chosen because of special aptitude for the work, but have not had special training.

Health Work in the Curriculum

The hours of school are especially arranged with a view to lessening the fatigue of the child and promoting his maximum learning capacity.

With the exception of the Kindergarten, all the classes in the Newton Public Schools open at 8:30 A. M. and close at 3:30 P. M. The kindergartens commence one-half hour later and close at 11:30.

The first and second grades are given one hour and three-quarters for lunch, and have been effectively demonstrated in the Technical High School, the Junior High School, and some of the grammar schools.

Provision does not seem to have yet been made for a comprehensive program in Health Education in the Normal Schools of Massachusetts, but the Newton School Department has provided through the co-operation of its principals and teachers, that it is possible to correlate health with the various subjects of the curriculum in such a way as to create in their pupils a desire to form health habits which will make possible a well-rounded development, both physical and mental.

The excellent work in Health Education in the Newton Schools is largely due to the enthusiasm and intelligent direction of Miss Bragg. Her knowledge of health work, and her position as Assistant Superintendent, together with a sincere whole-hearted interest in the welfare of the children, have all been instrumental in effectively introducing a system of Health Education in the schools, which is not only unique but is one of the most outstanding systems in the United States.

Recommendations

Some of the recommendations which the Health Study committee adopted as suggested by the two surveyors follow:

1. That a full-time, well-trained Medical Director of School Health Service be appointed to replace the part-time Medical Inspectors employed at present; that he be required to give each child a thorough physical examination on admission, which shall be repeated at the end of the fifth grade; and furthermore that he be required to organize, direct and co-ordinate all activities in the schools for the maintenance and promotion of the health of the children. Such an individual, though appointed by the Board of Health, should work in closest harmony with the School Department.

An effective way of determining whether pupils are observing the rules of health, is the morning inspection. For the most part, it is left for the individual child to decide whether health objectives are reached.

The distribution of milk has been organized by the principals and teachers in every school. Pupils who desire milk pay 25c a week, which pays for half a pint daily including crackers and straws. The milk is served each morning about ten o'clock and does not diminish the time allowed for recess. A very small percentage of pupils who want the milk and cannot pay for it, are cared for by the surplus resulting from the payment of the other children; this is supplemented by money from the Junior Red Cross and also by the fund made available by the Health Committee of the Newton Welfare Bureau.

Lunchrooms are provided in the Classical, Technical and Vocational High School, and the Junior High School, where pupils are served carefully chosen foods at cost price. At the Junior High School, a hot dish, a green vegetable and a fruit form a part of the daily menu. No candy is sold. This lunch room is supervised by the Home Economics Department.

In the High Schools are under the care of a dietitian. In the Junior High School there are two health clubs—one for boys, and the other for girls. Membership in these clubs is restricted to underweight children. These children are allowed to leave their respective classes at 1:50 A. M. in order that they may be served at the lunch room without being required to stand in line. This diminishes the opportunity for unnecessary fatigue which they might experience otherwise. The trays of these children are carefully supervised to see that the food is both adequate and well balanced.

Girls attending the grammar schools who are unable to go home for lunch are few in number. Provision is made in a few schools for those who must lunch at school.

The interest of the children in healthful living is developed and maintained by various forms of motivation. Posters, scrap-books, health-books, graphs, rhymes, health plays, health stories, essays, slides, films and miniature radio stations for broadcast in health, have been utilized to create self-activity on the part of the child. In fact, in the Newton Schools, the very blackboards and walls, as well as the enthusiastic children, spell health. An interesting feature of the work amongst girls in the Vocational and Technical High Schools is the organization of Health Clubs. Their activities include monthly weighing and measuring of each member, and the supervision of younger girls in health matters.

Many procedures have been adopted to find out how many pupils are actually playing the health game. In addition to morning inspections, in many classes a record is kept of the kind of vegetables and fruits eaten, the amount of milk consumed, the hour of going to bed, and the regularity with which teeth are brushed.

Physiology and Hygiene are taught as a part of the regular curriculum, with emphasis on their practical application in healthful living. In the Home Economics Course in high and junior high schools, Health is the aim of all instruction in diet and clothing.

An instructor is employed by the School Department to teach Home and Personal Hygiene to pupils from the High and Junior high schools and some of the grammar schools. The instructor is a registered nurse with post-graduate training, and with teaching experience as a background. The text book used is the one published by the American Red Cross. It is unfortunate that so far it has been impossible to provide separate classroom facilities for the teaching of a subject so worthwhile to the adolescent girl.

The possibility of correlating Health and Science, has been effectively demonstrated in the Technical High School, the Junior High School, and some of the grammar schools.

Provision does not seem to have yet been made for a comprehensive program in Health Education in the Normal Schools of Massachusetts, but the Newton School Department has provided through the co-operation of its principals and teachers, that it is possible to correlate health with the various subjects of the curriculum in such a way as to create in their pupils a desire to form health habits which will make possible a well-rounded development, both physical and mental.

The excellent work in Health Education in the Newton Schools is largely due to the enthusiasm and intelligent direction of Miss Bragg. Her knowledge of health work, and her position as Assistant Superintendent, together with a sincere whole-hearted interest in the welfare of the children, have all been instrumental in effectively introducing a system of Health Education in the schools, which is not only unique but is one of the most outstanding systems in the United States.

Recommendations

Some of the recommendations which the Health Study committee adopted as suggested by the two surveyors follow:

1. That a full-time, well-trained Medical Director of School Health Service be appointed to replace the part-time Medical Inspectors employed at present; that he be required to give each child a thorough physical examination on admission, which shall be repeated at the end of the fifth grade; and furthermore that he be required to organize, direct and co-ordinate all activities in the schools for the maintenance and promotion of the health of the children. Such an individual, though appointed by the Board of Health, should work in closest harmony with the School Department.

2. That a full-time dental hygienist be appointed whose duties it will be to inspect the teeth of all children yearly, to do all the prophylactic work, and to assist the dentist in any other way that the work will permit.

3. That a Supervisor of School Nursing be appointed who shall be responsible to the Health Officer and whose function it shall be to organize, direct and supervise the work of the school nurses. Said Supervisor shall co-operate to the fullest possible extent with the Medical Director of School Health Service recommended above. It is important that such a Supervisor should have had post-graduate training in Public Health Nursing, and executive experience. She should be a person of recognized executive ability.

4. That at least one additional staff nurse be appointed. It is desirable that newly appointed staff nurses have one year's post-graduate training in Public Health nursing, in addition to the present requirement of state registration.

Sanitation

Miss Emory and Miss Froehner visited each school building in Newton, making a thorough inspection of classroom facilities, gymnasium and playground provisions, lavatory accommodations, fire protection, ventilation, etc. They submitted recommendations for improvements in each school, and in addition, prepared a list of general recommendations. Some of these recommendations follow:

1. That an adequate teachers' lunch and rest room, comfortably furnished, be provided in each school.

2. That a Health Service Room, with Waiting Room, should be provided for the school doctor and nurse in each school. In new schools adequate provisions have been made. In many schools other rooms are used. This arrangement is not satisfactory. The equipment of such rooms should include the following: a couch, a desk, a pair of scales (these are provided in all Newton Schools), a cabinet for holding medical supplies, a filing case for records, a waste basket, several chairs, a table, and a washbowl with hot and cold running water, and a sanitary soap dispenser. Provision should be made for the adequate lighting of eye-testing cards.

3. That individual lockers should be provided in building new schools and should be placed in present buildings where possible. It seems inadvisable in new schools to make no provision whereby the clothing of each child can be kept separate.

4. That a gymnasium or indoor playground should be provided in building new schools and such facilities, where possible should be provided in old schools.

5. That drinking fountains should be provided for every seventh child. Fountains of the improved bubbler type are recommended for use in new schools. With this type of fountain it is impossible for the washings of the mouth to come in contact with the office of the bubbler.

6. That warm, running water should be available in the basement of every school. Paper towels and soap should be available so that children can wash their hands before lunch when in the building, and after using the toilet.

7. That police protection should be provided for every school where there is danger from passing vehicles.

8. That the entire lighting area should be at the left of the pupil. In new schools this is observed. In older schools, additional light comes from the back. Blackboards should not be placed between windows.

9. That, from the standpoint of fire protection, the narrow wooden stairs in some of the older buildings should be replaced with wider ones made of metal or concrete.

10. That the good example set by the Angier school be followed by having linoleum placed on the floor of every kindergarten.

11. That in the construction of new schools, particular emphasis should be placed on the desirability of ventilating classrooms through the use of open windows alone. This will not only reduce the cost of operation but will likewise prove more effective. Such classrooms should also be provided with air deflectors located at the window sills.

12. That a greater attention be directed against the over-heating of classrooms, especially during the spring and fall months, and that teachers be instructed to ventilate their rooms to a greater degree than exists at the present time. The temperature of classrooms should preferably be maintained between sixty degrees and sixty-eight degrees F.

13. That when possible classroom facilities be made available for the Instructor of Home and Personal Hygiene.

14. That more careful attention be given to the adjusting of seats and desks in order to make good posture possible.

15. Although the Newton Schools were found to be remarkably free from over-crowding, portables do exist in connection with two schools, and these should be eliminated as soon as possible.

The winners of the various events were as follows, the troop number following the scout's name:

40 yard swim, first Patterson (4), second Cobleigh (4) third Ladd (7). Time 25 seconds.

80 yard swim, first Perry (11) second Hayden (5) third Hymers (5) Time 1 minute.

20 yard breast stroke, first Hapgood (7), second Cobleigh (4) third Hymers (5).

Plunge, Pratt (11) 43 feet, second Clifford (7) third Hymers (5).

Back stroke, first Patterson (4), second Hymers (5) third Cobleigh (4).

Relay race, first troop 4, second troop 5, third troop 11.

In addition to the contestants there were about forty scouts and officers present. Mr. Walter Lovejoy was in charge with Mr. Donald Houghton assisting. Mr. G. E. Morris, the Y. M. C. A. physical director and his senior swimming team acted as timekeepers and judges. There were also present the Commissioner, Mr. J. M. Carley, Deputy Commissioner Stone, Scoutmaster Underwood of troop 7, West Newton, and Assistant scoutmaster, Collins of troop 4, Newton Highlands.

Scoutmasters' supper and meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Dec. 3rd at 6:30 P. M. Those interested in being leaders are welcome at this meeting, which will be the first of a series of instruction meetings. The President of the Council, Mr. Jas. C. Irwin, will give the address, followed by Mr. E. R. Kimball on programs. Any who wish to come to the supper are requested to send in their names to the commissioner before Tuesday the 2nd.

NEWTON'S COMING PUGILIST

Mickie Esposito of Newton is putting himself in the limelight as a 112-pound amateur boxer.

Last Thursday evening at the Dilboy Post boxing tournaments he exhibited a fine brand of scientific and game boxing. This makes him the predominating figure in the 112-pound class for the New England amateur championship bouts.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT

Mr. George Robert Aston, a resident of Newton for the past fifty years, died last Monday at his home on Oakland street after a long period of failing health. Mr. Aston was born in Liverpool, England, 77 years ago and was a paper hanger by trade. He was prominent in the Odd Fellows, a Past Grand of Lafayette Lodge of Watertown and had served as a District Deputy Grand Master for this district. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Beatrice L., the wife of Henry A. Heath, Isabelle V., the wife of Edmund C. Sawin and one son, Mr. G. Albert Aston.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Tuesday afternoon and the burial was in Evergreen Cemetery, Boston.

D. A. R.

"The Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, D. A. R., of Newton Highlands, of which Mrs. Sanford E. Thompson is regent, held their second meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Stephen A. Smith, 15 Woodville road, on Tuesday afternoon, November twenty-fifth. The usual opening exercises were held followed by the business of the afternoon. Miss Evelyn Burdick assisted by a committee consisting of Mrs. H. W. Langley, Mrs. M. L. Cudworth, Mrs. E. E. Fewkes and Mrs. W. M. Brown, and Miss Kathryn Smith, together with a coterie of her young lady friends.

W. C. T. U.

The West Newton W. C. T. U. will hold a supper and sale at the First Baptist Church on December 16th, afternoon and evening.

CHORAL CONCERT

The tenth concert of the Newton Choral Society to be given Thursday evening, December 11, at Central Church, will be notable for the broad range of its program. The director, Mr. William Lester Bates, has a special gift in the selection of programs and those which he arranges always have a very representative character including many different types of music and appealing to many varieties of taste.

The selections to be given December 11 include "By Babylon's Wave" by Gounod, a most impressive and dramatic composition by one of the masters of church music. Then there is Elgar's "Land of Hope and Glory," which is impressive and inspiring, "The Long Day Closes," which is romantic and dreamy, and one of the most pleasing of Arthur Sullivan's works, "The Immortal," a graceful expression of poetic sentiment by Chadwick, and "Drake's Drum," one of Coleridge-Taylor's stirring and dramatic productions. A spirit of happy merriment appears in a hunting song by Julius Benedict, and Adam's "O Holy Night" with its lovely soprano solo is one of the most beautiful Christmas anthems ever composed. Two negro spirituals add touches of humor and dramatic power to this remarkable program.

The Fiedler Trio from the Boston Symphony Orchestra will make a very notable addition to this concert.

HELP THE CARRIERS

The Shop Early, Mail Early campaign inaugurated by Postmaster General New last year proved to be an unqualified success. It was of great benefit to the people and also enabled post office employees to deliver all the Christmas mail before noon on December 25. The Department again this year asks the hearty cooperation of the public in order that the record made last year may be equalled, if not exceeded.

When you shop early and mail early you are helping the clerks in the post office to eat their dinners at home and you are greatly benefiting yourselves. You have a greater chance to secure a better selection of gifts from the stores, you have more time to wrap them securely and you are sure that they will arrive at their destination in time to be opened Christmas morning. You are also relieving the burdens on the clerks behind the counters in the stores, and you are giving a practical demonstration of the good will that Christmas time signifies. Acting Postmaster General John H. Bartlett requests that you refrain from using small envelopes in sending your Christmas cards as this very greatly retards the sorting and distribution of the mails. Let all of us pull together this year, do our shopping early and do our mailing early, let's make it a genuine old-fashioned Christmas celebration.

ABBOT BASSETT

Abbot Bassett, for thirty-seven years a resident of Newtonville, died at his home on Central avenue, on Monday, November 24th. He was born in Chelsea, March 10, 1845, and was a member of the first class to be graduated from the Williams School. He entered the Chelsea High School but left before the end of the first year to enter the hardware business. In 1872 he started a weekly paper "The Chelsea Public," and continued in newspaper work until 1887. His connection with bicycling interests began when he became business manager of the "Bicycling World." In 1886 he started a paper of his own called "The Cycle," which was devoted to the news of the sport.

In 1887 he accepted the position of Secretary of the League of American Wheelmen which was organized in 1880, and he held that position up to the time of his death. The secretaryship carried with it the editorship of the League's official organ known as the "Official Bulletin" which was published until a year ago when failing health obliged Mr. Bassett to stop the paper.

He moved to Newtonville in 1887 and was a member of the Newton School Committee from 1901 to 1911. He was always interested in civic affairs though not identified with any clubs except the Every Saturday Club of which he was once president.

He married in 1873 Helen E. Drew of Chelsea who survives him. In 1923 they celebrated their golden wedding. There are also two daughters, Marion Drew Bassett and Mrs. Royal T. Lapham, also of Newtonville.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. Paul S. Phelan of the West Newton Unitarian Church were held at the home on Wednesday, November 26th and the body was cremated at Mt. Auburn.

HALLET—WRAFTON

Miss Ethel T. Wrafton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Wrafton of 25 Bowers street, Newtonville, and Henry George Hallet of 1298 Commonwealth avenue, Alston, were married Wednesday evening at the Church of Our Lady, Newton, Rev. Walter J. Roche performing the ceremony.

The bride was attended by Miss Viola W. Taylor of Newtonville, as maid of honor, and Mrs. Albion Noyes Doe, of Jackson Heights, Long Island, N. Y., her sister, as matron of honor. Frank Dannahy of Dorchester was best man, and George W. Taylor was usher.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hallet were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Wrafton. After a wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Newtonville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stuart Pratt observed the fortieth anniversary of their marriage by giving a dinner at their home in West Newton on the evening of Tuesday, November 25.

Five of the six bridesmaids, Mrs. Arthur G. Hosmer, Mrs. Ellery Peabody, Mrs. Francis Newhall, Miss Fanny B. Carpenter and Miss Gertrude Elder, as well as the best man, Mr. Herbert G. Pratt, and one usher, Mr. Ellery Peabody, were present.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Pratt were their four children, Mrs. Davis M. DeBard, Mrs. Lucius G. Pratt, Mrs. Clifford Trull and Mr. A. Stuart Pratt, Jr., together with their husbands and wives, and their two oldest grandchildren, Elizabeth and Stuart DeBard.

Other guests present were Mrs. Herbert G. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Pratt, Mr. Arthur G. Hosmer, Mr. Francis Newhall, Miss Caroline A. Love and Mr. Arthur T. Lovett.

Mr. and Mrs. Pratt are the third generation to make their home at 73 Highland street, called "The Homestead" and members of six generations of the family have occupied one of the bedrooms during the past eighty years.

MASQUE OF PEACE

A Masque of peace, written by Mrs. Cyrus E. Dallin, was presented in Elliot Chapel on Wednesday evening before a large and appreciative audience.

If, as some have said, the way to bring about peace is to write it in the hearts of the children, then, no finer way could be found than through such a pageant as Elliot Church presented this week.

The theme was the age-long struggle of man for peace and the vision of its final victory. This involved episodes leading to the consecration of all of the powers of man to the attainment of Peace, and the enthronement of the latter.

The leading parts were taken as follows: Mrs. Carl J. Thornquist as Goddess of War; Mrs. Henry I. Harri-man as the Mourning Mother; Miss Margaret Pitts as Education; Miss Alice Williamson as Peace; Miss Doris Mason as Everheart; Miss Phyllis Baker as a Child; Miss Bessie Stratton, Director of the Masque, as the Voice of Humanity.

A chorus of fifty assisted in the production. The scriptural setting was presented by Rev. Henry A. Arnold, and a hymn appropriate to the occasion was sung by the audience.

Throughout the entire performance there was present a spirit of reverence. An entering into the meaning of the pageant was observable on the part of all, both participants and members of the audience.

Mr. William McCormack was the director of the chorus. He was assisted in the musical part of the performance by Mrs. Philip Horne, Mrs. James Bosdan, Mr. William R. Ferry, and Miss Alice Williamson. Mr. Philip Horne had charge of the lighting, and William Duncan and Robert Sprague of the secretary.

CHRISTMAS BASKETS

Newton Council, Knights of Columbus announces two Big Christmas Baskets. They will take place at the Community Theatre on the evenings of November 30th and December 14th and will include high class vaudeville acts, a feature picture, a comedy picture and a news picture.

Next Tuesday evening the Council will have Neil O'Hara for a guest and entertainer.

There will be "Turkey Whist parties" tonight, and again on December 5 and December 12, while December 13th will be observed as Lawyers' Night.

MISS BURT BURIED

The funeral of Miss Grace M. Burt, club editor of the Graphic, was held at Channing church Friday afternoon, Nov. 21. There was a large attendance of Miss Burt's friends and associates in club and church work, including a representation of practically every women's club in this city.

Among the profusion of floral tributes were roses from Miss Mary E. Wooley, president of Mt. Holyoke College; a wreath of pink roses from Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer; a spray of yellow chrysanthemums from friends in the faculty of Mt. Holyoke, and many more from individuals and organizations. Rev. Chester A. Drummond conducted the service and Rev. Harry Lutz, formerly minister of Channing church and now of Sanford, Maine, paid a high tribute to Miss Burt's serviceable and purposeful life. Miss Ruth Thilton, organist of Channing church, played the following selections before the service: "Adante," by Hailing; "Meditation," by Ketelby, and "Prayer," by Loret. Miss Marion L. Moorhouse of Wollaston, cellist, played during the service an aria by Tenaglia, Handel's "Largo" and "Lead, Kindly Light," Robert D. Holt and Dr. Edward Mellus were the ushers. The interment was in the Newton Cemetery.

Mr. Lutz's address was as follows:

Address of Rev. Harry Lutz

The serviceable life, the purposeful life, the life well done, is the complete biography of the child of God. With deep earnestness and heartfulness we can utter those words today as the biography of this our friend, about whose silent form we have gathered this afternoon. We have gathered in former days when this form was animated with a spirit of devotion and of purpose, a rare spirit of determination to win the excellencies of life and to share them with others in all manner and kind of service.

It was expressed in that constant and faithful and devoted relationship with this church which brought her always to the accustomed place in the services here of meditation and of worship, and which expresses her life more deeply and more highly than any other act or any other incident.

Our gathering together here this afternoon in this memory and with this tender tribute brings these memories and renews them, renews the ties that bind in earthly relationship, and makes us feel more deeply their strength—yes, and makes us to know something of their reality, that this

Saved by Roosevelt's Idea of Square Deal

When Roosevelt was getting ready for his African trip various sportsmen friends, as a matter of course, volunteered suggestions.

"When you get to Nairobi," said one —a Mr. Blank, a happy-go-lucky, careless, prosperous chap, who had dived into the jungle and out again two years before—"whatever you do, don't hire a guide by the name of W—. He is capable enough, but not trustworthy."

The day Roosevelt reached Nairobi he inquired about this particular guide. He sent for the repudiated guide and got his side of the story, says the Milwaukee Journal.

Just as Roosevelt had divined, it was a mountain made out of a mole hill. The damming word dropped by Mr. Blank without warrant had left stark misery in its wake for the guide. After that he could get no employment from any hunter who came to Nairobi.

Roosevelt heard all this. By way of rejoinder he smashed his itinerary. He rearranged it over night to include a ten days' expedition never before dreamed of in that section of the country. He hired the Nairobi guide to take entire charge of the trip.

When the expedition got back in scheduled time Nairobi's houseboys heard from Roosevelt. He said: "That guide is the most intelligent, the most industrious, the most reliable and the most satisfactory guide I have ever had."

The rehabilitation of the wounded guide dated from this utterance and this act of Roosevelt's. Again the man began to be sought after by hunters.

Outlaw Queen Could Be All Feminine at Times

Belle Starr, outlaw queen of the old days in Texas and Oklahoma, wore her hair short and was particularly sweet to women, says the Detroit News. She lived for years on the proceeds of loot and lined up a gang of the meanest-looking, hardest cursing, wildest riding and shooting hard-boiled customers in her particular parts of the cow country.

She used to call at women's houses on her way home from leading her band on a robbery, and she would talk feminine things with them, sing religious songs and tell stories to the children.

Several stories are told of the way Belle Starr met her death. The generally accepted one is that she was assassinated by a man named Edgar A. Watson, who had gone to Oklahoma in the '80s and started farming near her place. It is told they became enemies in a dispute over land rental. Anyway, February 3, 1889, so the version has it, a double-barreled shotgun did the work.

Long Pedigrees

Royalty, as in the Hatfield chart, which traces Queen Elizabeth's descent from Adam, is not alone in claiming long pedigrees. On the tomb of a former town clerk of Burton-on-Trent that worthy is described as thirty-seventh in descent from Alfred the Great. Again, a distinguished French family, the Magons (an Admiral Magon was killed at Trafalgar) shows a pedigree deriving from Magu, the brother of Hannibal.

An Italian nobleman, the Marchese Porro, traces his line back to Porus, the Indian monarch who fought against Alexander the Great, while the Samson family who own estates near Lyons claim that their descent is from the strong man of the Bible, and in support of the claim bear on their coat-of-arms the broken column of a temple.—Manchester Guardian.

Real "Robinson Crusoe"

Alexander Selkirk was an adventurer, born in Largo, Scotland, in 1676. He was a skillful seaman and made several voyages to the South sea, in one of which, having quarreled with his commander, he was put ashore on the island of Juan Fernandez with a few supplies. Here he lived alone for four years and four months, when he was rescued by Capt. Woods Rogers. He returned to England in 1711, and is said to have given his papers to Defoe, who, from them, wrote the story of "Robinson Crusoe." Selkirk died on the ship Weymouth in 1723.

Famous the World Over

Epsom, England, is in the county of Surrey, 15 miles southwest of London. Epsom was formerly celebrated for a mineral spring from the water of which the well-known Epsom salts were manufactured. A number of the sons of medical men are educated at the Royal Medical college, and adjoining the school is a home for aged physicians or their widows. The principal attraction is the grand race meeting held on the downs, which is attended by hundreds of thousands of persons.

Characters of History

Bazil or Itazus was an Arabian physician who lived from 852 to 932. He is noteworthy as being the first man to describe smallpox and measles in an accurate manner. Hughald or Hu-bald was a Benedictine monk and writer of music. He was born at Tournai, France, about 840. He later started a school of music and other arts at Nevers. He was the inventor of the gamut. The only work positively ascribed to him is the Harmonica Institute. He died in 930.

Amusing Things, Those Very Superior Beings

It is curious how differently people regard human beings, William Lyon Phelps comments in Scribner's Magazine. Some, upon entering a trolley car, hate everyone else in the vehicle; some look upon the crowd at a street corner with disgust; it must be wonderful to have such a sense of superiority, to have such childlike unquestioning faith in one's own splendid intellect.

The most amusing thing is to enter a fashionable hotel, and as you advance to the office desk, followed by your traveling bags, to glance for a moment at those individuals who, having already been there some days, now gaze at you from their settled and comfortable chairs. They look at you as though you were garbage.

In the same way, many people, traveling in foreign lands, hate all their fellow countrymen whom they meet. This scorn used to distress me, just as I used to be disturbed by the contempt of a waiter in a hotel or a butler in a fashionable mansion; now I am only amused; and instead of being sorry for myself, I am sorry for those who sit in the seat of the scornful.

One may have a certain satisfaction in a feeling of complacency or superiority, but such an emotion is not so desirable as the cheerfulness produced by a general sympathy for mankind.

Cow's Milk Largely Used in Manufactures

Should the humble cow ever aspire to trade-mark her products, the average shopper would be amazed at the labels "Made from milk" which would adorn his purchases—purchases ranging from horn-rim spectacles to chessmen, magazines to radio sets.

Three per cent of casein in cow's milk is the raw material for a kaleidoscopic array of manufactured products. Nor does this take into account that at our present rate of consumption every 12 persons consume the milk product of one cow.

Bread has a reputation of being the "stuff of life," but milk more nearly fulfills that definition. Substitutes for our customary breads may be had; but there is no substitute for milk. Even the elimination of the casein from milk, the element which provides most of the by-products, would be inconvenient. Chemically, casein is the principal nitrogenous constituent of milk; popularly it is the "curd," and its first and principal use is for cheese.

Alas, Quite Uncivilized

If there is any doubt that the inhabitants of New Guinea are uncivilized beings, we need cite only their attitude toward paying taxes—which, according to the Argonaut, is as follows:

Travelers in New Guinea occasionally pick up good stories concerning native manners and peculiarities. A tax collector had an amusing experience when he was on his rounds. He had been to one village to collect taxes, and when he left he was met by the people of a neighboring village.

"What wrong have we done that we should be ignored by the government?" they asked. "Come, we have money; we will show it to you. The idea of those Kerepunu people paying taxes and we not! We are just as proud as they."

The tax collector had to pacify them by taking their money.—Youth's Companion.

Goths a Divided Race

The Goths were a warlike race which at one time inhabited the country in the vicinity of the Baltic, and afterward moved toward the Black sea and the lower Danube where, about 250 B. C., it divided into two branches. Those that remained in the eastern part of the Roman empire were termed western (Visi) Goths, says the Kansas City Times. The Ostrogoths, after ravaging eastern Europe, established under Theodoric a kingdom in Italy which lasted from 493 to 554 A. D., when the country was recovered by Narses and annexed to the eastern empire. The Visigoths, after various successes against the Romans, sacked Rome under Alaric in 410. They afterward settled in Spain and founded a kingdom that lasted until that country was conquered by the Saracens.

Gibbet Superseded Cross

Crucifixion as a method of punishing criminals remained in force throughout the Roman empire until the early part of the Fourth century. The death by the cross was abolished by the Emperor Constantine and was replaced by the gibbet, which continued as a means of execution until comparatively recent times. It figures frequently in the history of England. It was also used as an instrument of punishment in the British colonies and was so employed in the island of Newfoundland, where there are several "Gibbet Hills," marking the site of hangings.

The Word Factory

Slang is the great manufacturer of words, for it is constantly originating new ones which eventually are approved by the lexicographers and get into the dictionaries. But radio has made a record in its responsibility for 5,000 new words added to our speech in a very short time. Golf has added its contribution of a few hundred, but it has been more deliberate, in keeping with the nation which is sponsor for the game. The automobile must be given credit for its share and aviation has added quite an array.

Able to Endure Long Periods of Fasting

Some curious facts with respect to the capacity for fasting as exhibited by various animals are cited by Siegmund Urahn in the Unchuck (Frankfurt), according to the Detroit News. He begins by observing:

"The power of the camel to do without taking food is regarded in most works on zoology as representing scientific peculiarities of animals. But if there were a general knowledge of the ability of many animals to fast for very long periods of time these instances would not be so overemphasized. It is, indeed, generally known that even mammals are able to fast for months during their winter hibernation, but it seems to be almost unknown that the same power exists among the lower animals. The power of fasting is much more widespread in them than was formerly supposed."

Mr. Urahn then refers to an experience of his youth when he put certain snails which had already withdrawn into their shells and closed the opening thereof, as is their custom, into a box, whereupon he forgot them for a period of more than a year and a half. He supposed they were inevitably dead, but when he put them into a vessel filled with water, much to his surprise, they came out of their shells and crawled gaily about on the table.

Plants Set Traps, for Unwary Insects

Certain plants, like certain people, require strong foods. Not satisfied with the nourishment derived from the soil, they require flesh and blood. Such plants exist by the consumption of insects and small animals, and are to be found in bogs and marshes in tropical countries. All carnivorous plants are endowed with a sense of taste, and a tasty morsel of meat is speedily devoured! The side-saddle plant, found in parts of America, sets water traps for its victims. This plant holds up to the sunlight vase-like leaves, around the mouths of which are glands that secrete honey. Tempted by the scent, the insects make their way across the leaves to the mouth of the plant; farther and farther they wander down the tube, looking for the honey. Detentive hairs prevent their exit and, tired and weary, they eventually fall into the pool secreted at the bottom of the leaf. The common sundew captures dragonflies and ants. Attracted by the gummy appearance of the rosy leaves, the feet of the visitors become securely fixed to the gum, and the red tentacles close in on the unwary insects.

Superficial Existence

We live in the sun and on the surface—a thin, plausible, superficial existence—and talk of music and prophet, of art and creation. But out of our shallow and frivolous way of life, how can greatness ever grow? Come now, let us go and be dumb. Let us sit with our hands on our mouths, a long, austere, Pythagorean lustrum. Let us live in corners, and do chores, and suffer, and weep, and drudge, with eyes and hearts that love the Lord. Silence, seclusion, austerity, may pierce deep into grandeur and secret of our being, and so diving, bring up out of secular darkness the sublimities of the moral constitution. How mean to go blazing, a gaudy butterfly, in fashionable or political salons, the fool of society, the fool of notoriety, a topic for newspapers, a piece of the street, and forfeiting the real prerogative of the russet coat, the privacy, and the true and warm heart of the citizen!—Emerson.

Punctual Monarch

All the clocks at the royal estate at Sandringham for more than half a century have been kept half an hour in advance of standard time. The idea was introduced by the late King Edward VII when he was prince of Wales, and was borrowed from a neighbor, the late earl of Leicester, to whom at Holkham, in the early days of their married life, the then prince and princess of Wales were frequent visitors. It was the earl's custom to keep all the clocks at Holkham half an hour fast to secure punctuality. So punctual was King Edward in keeping his appointments that he gained the reputation of "never being late."—London Mail.

Pepsin Has Rival

Pepsin, the digestive substance derived from the pig and largely used by medical men in treating cases of digestion, finds a rival in pharmacy in "papain," a digestive ferment isolated from the juice of the half-ripe fruit of the papaw tree. This substance is said to digest fibrin and albumen more readily than pepsin does. The fruit is sometimes made into jam, though the necessary boiling would probably kill the digestive ferments. Anglo-Indians say that a tough steak becomes tender when placed for a few minutes between two slices of papaw fruit, or even placed near a papaw tree.

Northern Lights

Prof. Lars Vegard, attached to Christiania university, by assuming that frozen nitrogen is responsible for the beautiful greenish blue that preceded any outbreak of the northern lights, has dissipated the mystery of the green hue that has always been unexplained by scientific men. The scientific world has not entirely accepted his assumption, but regards it as more satisfactory as an explanation than the old theory that certain luminous gases caused this exceptionally beautiful effect just before the fantastic flashes.

WE CALL FOR BAGGAGE CHECKS

Newton Upper Falls

—Gas Company Salesroom at Newton open Friday evenings until 9.
—Miss Olive DeGrasse of Chilton place is ill at the Newton Hospital.
—Mr. Wilson Weidner of New York is visiting his parents on Linden street over the holidays.

The arrangements for the Christmas Pageant to be given by the young people of the M. E. Church are almost completed, the pageant promises to be one of the best thus far presented.
—A Union Thanksgiving service was held last Wednesday evening at the Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Shaw of the Methodist Church preached the sermon.

A new flag pole with handsome silk standard was raised on the Emerson School grounds last Tuesday morning by Mr. F. R. Hodge, principal of the school. The grade children gave a short patriotic entertainment in the hall.

Twenty-six members of the Newton Girls' Community Club gave a very pleasing entertainment at the Stone Institute last Saturday afternoon. Music dancing and reading completed, the pageant promises to be one of the best thus far presented.
—A very creditable minstrel show was given at Emerson Hall last Monday evening by the Upper Falls Women's Club. The audience was a large one and greatly enjoyed the wide variety of peppy songs and dances, solos, acrobatic stunts and the patriotic finale.

—One of the prettiest weddings ever held in the Catholic Church of this village occurred last Monday morning at nine o'clock nuptial mass when Miss Anna O'Shaughnessy of this village and Mr. Ralph Chambers were united in marriage by the Rev. Fr. Donovan. The bride was charmingly arrayed in white Duchesse satin, with long tulle veil, with Juliet pearl crown, and carried a bridal bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Marion Shaughnessy, cousin of the bride, was prettily dressed in orchid satin with hat to match and carried a bouquet of orchid sweet peas and maidenhair ferns. The best man was Mr. Walter Chambers, brother of the groom. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast and reception was held at the bride's home, after which the happy couple departed on their honeymoon, which will be spent at New York.

Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Charles F. Towne, Associate Principal of Lasell Seminary, gave a very interesting talk at the Fellowship Club on Monday evening, November 24th, on "America As It Was, As It Is, and As It May Be." There were a large number present. They showed their appreciation by hearty applause. Next Monday the Club will meet as usual at 8.30. All young men are invited.

Among the new arrivals at the dormitory rooms this week are: Charles D. Mills, and Lester J. Clark.
During the past week in the 1000-point athletic contest some exceptionally good marks were turned in. Phil Hardy was displaced as leader in last event when Harry Gray ran 100 yards in 12 2-5 seconds, beating Hardy's mark of 12 3-5. Several of the men turned in time of 13 seconds or under which is very good for 100 yard dash indoors. This week's event will be the standing hop, skip and jump. Marks will be taken on Tuesday and Thursday evening as usual.

There will be a basket ball game this Wednesday evening in the "Y" between a Cambridge team and a picked light weight team of the local players. On Saturday evening two teams will be taken to the Hyde Park "Y" for a game with that association. A junior swimming team and leaders club are being organized by the Boys' and the Physical Departments. The swimming team will meet Saturday morning and it is hoped that there will be strong enough material to meet other association during the season.
Everyone would like to budget his income and regularly save a certain amount each pay-day, provided it could be done easily and with little effort. For those who dislike this practice there is a promise of help. Unforeseen circumstances such as illness, business opportunities, etc. which call for ready cash are likely to arise when a bank account or negotiable securities may prove invaluable. In the long run saving does pay. The National Thrift Committee, leading a national movement sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. and co-operating with 48 national, civic, commercial, educational, and religious organizations, has just published a Diary and Budget Account for 1925. The little book has not magic powers. It cannot help you save and spend wisely unless you have will-power and perseverance. But it can help you in the science both of spending and saving and the sight of its neatly ruled columns will make even the bookkeeping seem easier.

The diaries are available through Y. M. C. A.'s or direct from the National Thrift Committee, 347 Madison avenue, New York City.
Square boys and not square miles make a city.—St. Louis Red Triangle.
The basket ball teams are rapidly taking form. Two teams, one weighing 135 pounds, another 150 pounds are being organized. The material for the varsity teams will no doubt be picked from these two teams later in the season with the addition of heavier men.
The senior swimming team is practicing steadily for the coming season, and a busy schedule is anticipated. Meets with Boston University, M. I. T. and other associations are anticipated.

Fifth of a series of advertisements regarding the telephone situation in New England

Growth

New England's large and varied telephone requirements constitute a challenge to foresight and engineering skill.

In scores of communities large office buildings are under construction and new manufacturing and residential sections are developing.

To illustrate how New England is progressing we show the prospective telephone growth of a few of its larger communities:

Communities	Telephones in service Nov. 1, 1924	Estimated telephones Jan. 1, 1926
Metropolitan Boston	387,470	521,000
Worcester	36,140	47,400
Springfield	36,894	47,600
Portland, Me.	22,441	29,000
Manchester, N. H.	14,428	19,500
Rutland, Vt.	4,080	4,900
Providence, R. I.	56,714	78,600

Each new subscriber added at present-day costs increases the average cost of serving all subscribers in any community, but each new subscriber also adds to the value of the service of his community.

The many millions of new money which will be needed to provide facilities for new subscribers can be obtained if the Company is enabled to earn a fair return on its property devoted to giving telephone service. It cannot be obtained unless the Company can earn a fair return; therefore it is obliged to ask for an increase in rates.

HORACE MANN IN NEWTON

Education Week has been most interesting to many of us, who have read with keen appreciation the words of those who are foremost in our educational work in Massachusetts. We have all felt a thrill of pride in realizing that the man, whose name was most lauded by all educators, lived in Newton when he was doing his great work for America. Horace Mann had been a member of the House of Representatives and had served in the State Senate earlier, and through his personal exertions, Massachusetts established a Board of Education, and Mr. Mann was at once placed at its head, as Secretary. During his residence in West Newton, in addition to other duties, he wrote the reports of the board for the people of the State. These reports discussed in a forcible manner, many new questions on education, and they had a great influence in elevating the standard of public sentiment and of school instruction, not only in Massachusetts, but throughout the whole country and world, as they were published in many languages. His earnestness in advocating new methods and new plans started the great movement in public school education, which is more strikingly American, than any system which we call American in distinction from others called European. Besides the work as Secretary of the Educational Board, he had general care and superintendence of the erection of three Normal School buildings, one of which had been started in West Newton. Mr. Mann himself said: "I have labored in this educational cause an average of not less than fifteen hours each day, from the beginning to the end (eleven years), never took a single day for recreation." Mr. Mann erected his home in West Newton at the corner of Highland and Chestnut streets, and there with his wife, children, and a group of friends, lived delightfully, until called to Washington, for at the death of John Quincy Adams, Mr. Mann's services were needed in the National Congress. While in West Newton, Mrs. Mann's sister, Elizabeth Peabody, the pioneer and interpreter of Froebel to the Americans, lived with the Manns. Mrs. Mann, herself, was a most cultured and refined woman, a daughter of Dr. Peabody of Salem, and an authoress of some distinction, while always sharing and assisting in her husband's educational duties. Miss Katherine Beecher, the sister of Harriet Beecher Stowe and Henry Ward Beecher, lived also at the Manns. Miss Rebecca Pennell, too, a remarkable teacher of mathematics, shared their home, and my father, Nathaniel T. Allen, enjoyed the privilege of the home, when he first came to West Newton, as a teacher in the Model Department of the Normal School. It was Horace Mann who urged my father to open a private school, which he was principal of for nearly fifty years.

We all rejoice that the educators of Boston placed a laurel wreath at the base of the Horace Mann statue, on the State House grounds, and eulogized the man, whom we are proud, accomplished his great work while he was a resident of Newton.

LUCY ELLIS ALLEN.

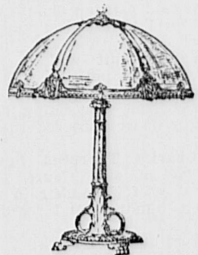

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Last Saturday evening was a gala night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Young of Newton Upper Falls. The occasion being the 15th anniversary of their marriage. At 5.30 P. M. dinner was served on a table tastefully decorated with pink and chrysanthemums. Fifteen relatives and friends including the bridesmaids, Mrs. Herbert Marshall and sister of North Andover, Mass., who attended the couple 15 years ago, also Mr. George W. Young of Newton Centre were present.

At 7 P. M. some forty invited friends came in and joined in the celebration. Refreshments were served, games and singing and dancing were enjoyed till a late hour. The couple were recipients of many beautiful gifts of which they are very proud.

FUNERAL OF MISS BURT

indeed is our life. It was, and it is, and it will be. This, then, is not the end, but, as the poet says, though life be dead, it means not that life has ended, it means just laid aside the material vesture which was worn for a while.

If I should attempt to enumerate the many serviceable activities that have engaged this one, I should certainly speak to you for some time, for they are so many and they are known to all of you. First, those memories of service in connection with the home. Those of us of the more advanced acquaintance know with what self-giving devotion she made life for others in the home, and so made a place that is now widely vacant and leaves a pain of loss which we are helpless to relieve.

But that, my friends, is a silent tribute to the devotion of this one given to make a home for others, and with a devotion that lives in the hearts and the lives of others.

Then we might follow the widening circle of relationships and of duties performed in the community in connection with the club work, the press work, the college work, and the wider service during the great conflict that engaged us all some years ago, where she gave fidelity to the public service. Not only has it expressed itself through the church and the various clubs and organizations in which she was active, but there was the constant personal devotion to friendships.

Now I shall not attempt to enumerate. You know as I know, and as this life comes to us now in beautiful memory I dare say we all agree in recalling one thing that characterized the life above all else and wends its way through all the various duties and relationships,—and that was a fidelity to the right,—what is true and what ought to be so, a constant gauge and aim of Miss Burt's activities and purposes, always interested in the cultural life, to bring truth and light into life, and for a purpose, and always she was true to that purpose, that it should contribute something to the making of life. I dare say we all are of one mind in that regard.

And now as we gather here with her life in memory, this fidelity begins to take on a new light of meaning. Here indeed was the meaning of the life.

She had strong convictions. Her aim was constantly the right. She might not always agree in opinion with the friends that knew her well. But what is it that makes opinions different? It is strength of conviction; it is a sense of right and of truth that takes form in individual life. What makes life is the purpose running through, the purpose to be right, the purpose to be true. This is that unifies life, calls individuals together and holds them in the constancy of fellowship and friendship and kinship. Then the differences fall away and the unities of life assert themselves and they grow stronger with the years and they deepen with life's deepening experiences, and when the sad time comes and the parting, then it is realized what life has been. Now we understand what the Apostle said when he said that the things unseen are the things that are eternal. Lay the frail vesture by and the purposeful life is now understood to be the endless life, for the purposes that actuated our friend have no end. Had she lived many more years her purposes would have outrun it and been far beyond.

What does it mean? It means that God is speaking to us through that life. Those purposes are unfulfilled in the seeing world but move to their fulfillment in the glory that today we cannot see. And so, if she were to speak to us it would be words of cheer. Look up, not down; look on, not back; beautiful and lovely are the memories, but not back; forward, forward.

Speaking of things that are to be. "Tis not what a man does that exalts him," said the poet, "but what man would do!" Here is the purpose of God speaking in the purpose of a noble life. And then, my friends, as we gather here to pay our tribute let us do as our friend would have us do,—go with uplifted eyes and with a cheerful spirit and with a courage and constancy that though life has apparently ended it has only here begun, and in the days that are to come, whether we linger here a short or a longer time, it will only be an incident in the forward way. If she were to speak to us she would say, "Come on, with cheer and with a great trust. There is more work to do. We have the finer and the better world yet."

The God-given purpose that spoke the fidelities of the life that here comes to its peaceful close is but the challenge, the high call, to the tasks of the morrow,—yes, and the glories of their achievement.

To the many relatives and friends of Grace M. Burt who by tender ministrations, by spoken or written words, by the gift of flowers, and by numberless other acts of kindness have expressed their sympathy, her family extend heartfelt thanks.

ST. JAMES THEATRE—"The Gold Diggers" from the wit-tipped pen of Jerry Hopwood comes to the St. James theatre week—a farce as bright as Broadway, a comedy of modern manners. Mr. Hopwood tells the story of chorus-girls after the footlights have gone out. He seems actuated by a great motive,—to present the chorus girl in her true lights, as earnest, hard-working, intelligent, light-hearted and kind-hearted. He does well by them,—this gallant champion of the fair, and under his hand they are an enchanting crew, even in the early morning. The firmest Puritan jaw would relax after ten minutes of the play.

Dr. Edward Samuel Niles, D. M. D., of 60 Elmwood street, who for many years has been a successful dentist in Copley Square and Commonwealth avenue, Boston, has so far recovered that he is receiving patients at his home office, 62 Elmwood street, Newton Corner. Advertisement. ff Piney Point Estates are Ready!

In picturesque Marion, on Buzzard's Bay, comprising over 200 acres of seashore and woodlands, with some two miles of shore front.

OBJECT—A realization of what is most desirable in climate, scenery and all the elements of summer enjoyment, with building sites of varying size, suited to every taste and to any degree of expenditure.

NATURAL ADVANTAGES—A picturesque point of land jutting far out into Buzzard's Bay with a broad curving beach on one side and a sheltered anchorage on the other.

DEVELOPMENT—A residential seashore park for summer and winter homes, with proper restrictions as to ownership, size of lots and character of development.

ENVIRONMENT—Adjoins some of the finest seashore estates in this region, yet off the beaten track of travel, giving it desired privacy; two hours by motor from Boston.

RECREATIONS—Adjoins the Kittansett Golf Club, with its 18-hole course, playable practically all the year, and the Beverly Yacht Club, whose large clubhouse and pier are close to the property.

ROADS AND LANDSCAPING are in the hands of Loring Underwood, the noted landscape architect. A fine entrance gate typifies the artistic arrangement of the grounds. Town water, electric lights and telephone connections will be available.

Contour maps show plots and tentative location of houses on them. The charm and environment of Piney Point Estates will be found compelling in their appeal to those seeking for the ideal in a seashore location. The place, however, should be seen to have the scope and unusual character of its development appreciated.

I shall be glad to show the properties to those interested or to send a descriptive pamphlet.

NEWTON CLUB

The first Sunday afternoon concert held recently at the Newton Club was a great success, about 150 being present. The Club house was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The music was furnished by a trio consisting of a violinist, a cellist, and a pianist. The hostesses of the occasion were Mrs. Arthur Quimby, Mrs. Fred Woodcock, and Mrs. Herbert Summer.

Mr. Allan Salmon of Madison avenue was the winner of the Thanksgiving turkey at the stag progressive bridge party held at the club last Saturday night.

A Rapid Worker

"I hear, Jackson, that your wife got a divorce and returned to Alabama. Who will do my washing now?" "Don't worry, mum; I've co'tin' again, and Ah co'ts rapid,"—Yale Record.

Newton Centre

—Gas Company Salesroom at Newton open Friday evenings until 9.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. Newton Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. H. Fred Lesh are among the arrivals at Pinehurst, No. Carolina.

—A religious census of Newton Centre is now being taken by the Massachusetts Bible Society. All the Protestant Churches of the village are combining in this.

—At 4.30 next Wednesday Miss Dai Buell will play a Russian selection at the International Peasant Art Exhibit at the home of Mrs. Frederick S. Blodgett on Prince street, West Newton.

—At the Newton Centre Unitarian Church on Sunday, Nov. 30, the minister, George Lawrence Parker, will preach on "Jesus' Parable of the Leaven and the Meal." On Dec. 7 the entire church will observe "Golden Rule Sunday" for the Near East in a unique way. Instead of having the advised frugal dinner at homes the congregation will adjourn after morning service to the Parish House where the Stebbins Alliance, assisted by the Laymen's League and the Hale Union, will serve dinner for everybody. Boxes will be at the doors and the people are expected to put into them their offering for the Near East. The hour the occasion, the cause and the fellowship will make this a memorable occasion. Not often do churches give young and old, men and women the chance to dine together at an hour when no one can find an excuse to stay away. It is anticipated that the offering for the Near East will surpass that ever given before even though this church in the past two years has given most liberally to this wonderful cause. Visitors who worship in this church on Dec. 7 will be most welcome to attend the dinner. On Dec. 4 the Laymen's League will give a concert at the Sailors Haven in Charlestown. The Stebbins Alliance will meet on Monday, Dec. 8 at the new hour of 12.30 noon. Luncheon will be served and the business session will follow.

EDITORIAL

One of the questions to be voted upon at the coming city election is the repeal of the present preferential form of voting at municipal elections in this city.

The editor has been called the "father" of preferential voting in Newton, and in point of fact, had a hand in its adoption some years ago. He is therefore fairly well qualified to express an opinion on its merits as it has worked out during recent years.

Preferential voting is just what its name indicates—the voters have the opportunity to "prefer" some candidates over others by exercising a first choice, a second choice and sometimes a third choice.

If no candidate has a majority of first choice votes, then the first and second choice votes for each candidate are added together and the leading candidate in those totals is elected.

In theory, the plan is admirable, but it simply will not work in practice as it has been repeatedly found that large numbers of voters will NOT exercise their rights to a second and third choice, and limit their franchise to a first choice only. This gives the few persons who do vote for second or third choice candidates an undue influence and in several instances has elected persons who did not receive the highest number of first choice votes, with subsequent ill feeling and disgust on the part of candidates and their friends. In addition, the preferential form of voting makes it necessary for each candidate to wage his or her own campaign with little or no responsibility to the electorate.

We believe that the preferential plan should be repealed and that the city should return to the former method of nominating candidates by municipal primaries and we shall oppose the suggestion that in place of the preferential form we shall embark on another experiment such as proportional representation, non-partisan primaries and the like. We know how the old method worked; we know that the present experiment has not been a success and common sense indicates that we get onto solid ground once more before we experiment again.

In the death of Miss Grace M. Burt, the community in general and the readers of the Graphic in particular, suffers a serious loss. Miss Burt was always active in all forms of community service, always loyal to high ideals and had won a high place in the respect and regard of a large circle of friends. As an associate editor of the Graphic, she manifested unusual newspaper ability and brought to her work a devotion and conscientiousness which could not be excelled. Her death is a personal loss, not only in this community, but to many clubwomen throughout the state.

The evident lack of interest in candidates for the city government is a conclusive reason why there should be some recognized political organization like the Republican city committee authorized to take some responsibility in the selection of candidates. The present method makes it easy for self-seeking persons to obtain office.

The movement to place a memorial pulpit in the West Newton Unitarian church for the late Rev. Julian C. Jaynes, its minister, will meet the hearty approval of all who knew and loved him. A wonderful preacher, a loyal friend and a sincere Christian, the pulpit will be but the outward symbol of the feeling of many a heart.

The Older Boys' Conference to be held in Newton beginning next Friday gives a splendid opportunity to show our hospitality. About 600 boys are expected and, in the absence of hotel accommodations, it is imperative that private homes shall be opened for them.

The announced purpose of the leaders in the order of Elks to take steps towards eliminating automobile accidents is most commendable and should be followed by all the other fraternal organizations.

NEWTON ROTARY CLUB

At the usual luncheon on Monday the Club passed resolutions on the death of its vice president Mr. Thomas J. Sullivan. The Boys Work Committee made an interesting report and Mr. Hess of the Y. M. C. A. told of the coming Older Boys' Conference to be held in Newton next week.

GIRLS' BOOKS

Nov. 28, 1924.

There are plenty of good books for younger people. There are wonderful books that older boys can enjoy. But books that are really interesting and satisfying to the girl in her teens are not to be found on every book shelf. She does not want children's books. She may enjoy an occasional book that is distinctively a boy's book; but she craves something else, nor do all books that are read by adults interest her. The following are suggested as a few that can be recommended as both interesting and satisfying:

Books for girls, 13-15 years

Mehitable (school life in France) by Adams.

Midsummer (summer in Sweden) by Adams.

Red caps and lilies (French Revolution) by Adams.

Wisp (a girl of Dublin) by Adams.

Two college girls (American college story) by Brown.

Little Princess Nina (Russian) by Charskaya.

Master Simon's garden (colonial Massachusetts) by Meigs.

Secret of Hallowdene Farm (English life) by Pocock.

Silver shoal light (adventure story of merit) by Price.

Four cousins Norway (by Zwiłgmeyer) by Price.

Letters to his children, by Roosevelt.

—JER677-RB

A hundred things a girl can make, by Snow—JY-S67.

Rainbow gold, by Teasdale—JYP-9T22r.

Books for older girls, 16-18 years

Pride and prejudice, by Austen.

Little minister, by Barrie.

Jane Eyre, by Bronte.

David Copperfield, by Dickens.

Black tulip, by Dumas.

Mill on the floss, by Eliot.

Broad highway, by Farnol.

So big, by Ferber.

Home fires in France, by Fisher.

Bent twig, by Fisher.

Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come, by Fox.

Cranford by Gaskell.

Maria Chapdelaine, by Hemon.

Four feathers, by Mason.

Vandemark's folly, by Quick.

Kenilworth, by Scott.

Monsieur Beaucaire, by Tarkington.

Alice Adams, by Tarkington.

Virginian, by Wister.

Non-fiction

Atlantic book of Junior plays, by Thomas—Yd-9T36.

Elephant's Last Walk

The autograph of an elephant on the way to his own funeral, an event which occurred some million years or so ago, has been found in Nevada. The footprints of the great beast are clearly seen as he made them when he plodded wearily along through the soft sand, subsequently hardening into rock. That it was his last walk was discovered when the scientists excavated the rock and traced the footprints to where the fossil bones of this denizen of the forests of ancient times laid.

SCHOOL NOTES

The F. A. Day Junior High School

The Girls' Athletic Association gave the first dance of the season in the school auditorium on November 21st. There were many there and an orchestra consisting of a pianist, a violinist, a drummer and a saxophone player furnished good music for them. They had an elimination dance during the afternoon. The winners were Helen Madden and Gladys Jerauld.

During the Assembly November 26, an admirable program was given by the following: Melvin Rodney, William Richardson, Ruth Black, Beatrice Armstrong, Audrey Bartington, Esther Coleman, Mary Coleman, Alice Collier, Winifred Evans, Patty Wright and Audrey Bartington. There were also songs by the Glee Club, and the Proclamation by Carl Pescosolido.

The F. A. Day boys defeated Waltham Junior High boys at Claffin Field, November 20, 22-0, following the example set by their seniors. On the opening line-up Gadsden was at quarterback and J. Brown started in place of S. Brown. The stars proved to be Gadsden, Casteau and J. Brown.

Coach Simmons said: "The gang played well, their tackling was good—better, I think, than the Senior High tackling. They were up against stiffer opposition than they have had to face before. They deserved a successful close to a successful season. The school may well be proud of such a team."

The school has enjoyed unusual cooperation from the parents during the past week. Many readjustments have been made as a result of the informal conferences with the principal, teachers and parents.

Stearns School

Education Week was observed in the school last week Friday being special visiting day. Many parents were present at the weekly entertainment given by the sixth grade. At this meeting Miss Walker sang and Miss Broughton played the violin. These numbers added a great deal to the program presented by the children.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Goddard and Miss Trask invited the parents of their children to a tea in Miss Trask's room. The parents observed the work of their children and were served tea and cakes by some of the little girls.

On Wednesday morning of this week a Thanksgiving program was given in the hall. A fine play was presented by the fourth grades.

Last week all the children were examined by the doctors.

Mason School

The sixth grades enjoyed lantern slides showing a trip through Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Some of the pupils are now writing a description of their trip in an illustrated booklet.

Rooms eleven and twenty-one are reading "Hawthorne" in their literature work and last week saw the school set of lantern slides which they greatly enjoyed.

Education Week in the Mason showed the genuine interest which the parents of Newton Centre have in the progress of their boys and girls. The eighteen rooms had over two hundred visitors.

Franklin School

Angelina Yerardi, a member of the Franklin Kindergarten, invited the children to visit her turkey-yard. It was a new experience for many of the children had never seen live turkeys. The proud teacher showed them about displaying their beautiful fans, much to the delight of the children.

The children gave a Thanksgiving Party to Miss Doran. Games were played, and at lunch time the fruits of the harvest season were enjoyed.

The third grade in Miss Bradley's room presented a play entitled "The First Thanksgiving Day." The cast was as follows: Gov. Bradford, Norman Henley; Capt. Miles Standish, Joseph Powers; John Alden, Herbert Mingace; Priscilla Mullins, Laura Gentile; Massasoit, Besiliss Gorgone; Squanto, John Kerr; Samoset, Albert Castaldi.

Lasell

A Thanksgiving offering of candy, preserves and other articles was made by the Lasell Student Body under the direction of the Lasell Missionary Society, a box was sent to the Morgan Memorial, Salvation Army and Union Rescue Mission.

School closes for the Thanksgiving recess at noon on Wednesday, November 26. Classes will be resumed on Monday afternoon, December 1.

HIGH SCHOOL WOMAN'S CLUB

The Newton High School Woman's Club presents "The Intimate Strangers" by Booth Tarkington for the Benefit Fund on Saturday evening, Dec. 6th in Players Hall, West Newton at 8 o'clock.

WEST NEWTON MUSIC SCHOOL

Our pupils are now working on the Christmas Mystery Play of the Nativity by Miss Ryffe and Miss Ekman, which they are to give at the Congregational Church in Newtonville, on Sunday, December 14th.

There will be a Thanksgiving recess beginning Wednesday, Nov. 26th, and lasting for the rest of the week.

Newton Lower Falls

—Gas Company Salesroom at Newton open Friday evenings until 9.

—The sermon next Sunday at St. Mary's Church will be given by Rev. Henry E. Bray, and there will be a special service for the men.

—The Ladies of Perrin Memorial Church will hold their Annual Fair and Sale on Wednesday and Thursday afternoon and evening, Dec. 3 and 4, in Early Hall. There will be a supper Wednesday at 6.30 P. M., and on Thursday evening an entertainment at 7.45.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONFERENCE

The Young People's Council, composed of representatives from churches within the Norumbega District Sunday School Association, is promoting and conducting a Young People's Conference. This will take place at the Central Church, Newtonville, today and tomorrow. Afternoon sessions begin at 2 P. M. This evening at 6 P. M., a cafeteria lunch will be served, followed by the evening session. On Saturday at 6 P. M. comes the banquet with big feed, toasts, special features and an address by the Director of the Conference. Admission to banquet is dependent on attendance at the previous Conference sessions.

The ages of young people admitted to the Conference, are from 15 to 24 years of age. No exceptions can be made as to these age limits, except that two adults from each church are privileged and invited to attend. Ten young people, in addition to Council members, are allowed to each church in the District.

Conference officers are as follows: Director, Professor H. C. Mayer of Boston University; Assistant Director, Miss Lullona Barker, Executive Secretary of the Norumbega District; President, Raymond Rockwood of Newton Centre; Vice-president, Helen Spurrier of Newton; Treasurer, Albert Hoffman of Waltham; Chairman, Registration Committee, Kenneth Barton of Newton; Chairman of Banquet Committee, Helen Spencer of Newtonville; Chairman of Badge Committee, Robert Mosher of Waltham; Chairman of Cafeteria Committee, Leonie Bellamy of Newtonville; Chairman of Publicity, Doris Barton of Newton.

The program is to include many interesting talks and conferences on leadership, on the four-fold life, on the organized Sunday School class, on program building for the Sunday Evening Young People's Meeting, etc. The purpose of the Conference is expressed in the phrase, "Here to Learn, Home to Serve," for new ideas useful in all the churches of the District will be acquired. The whole project is one of leadership training, and the young people selected to attend should be those of potential leadership ability.

Among the Conference leaders are Professor H. C. Mayer, of Abundant; Mr. Hayden L. Stright, Director of Religious Education at the Newtonville Methodist Church; Miss Thelma L. Bishop, Director at the Newton Centre Trinity Episcopal Church; Professor J. L. Berkeley and Mr. Herbert Harlan of Newton Centre Baptist Church; Rev. Charles L. Seasholes of the Watertown Baptist Church; Miss Lullona Barker of the Watertown Methodist Church and Mr. Erwin L. Shaver of the Congregational Education Society. Some of these leaders will be assigned to the adult group who attend the Conference and for whom separate sections are provided.

DEATH OF MR. BANNON

Mr. Thomas Bannon, who died last Friday after a long period of illness at the age of 28 years, was before his sickness an aviator in the Navy Department.

Funeral services were held on Monday morning at his home on Murray road, Abundant, and a requiem mass was celebrated at St. Bernard's Church at 9 by Rev. William T. A. O'Brien. The burial was in Calvary Cemetery. The bearers were William M. Noone, Hubert Lyons, Frank Donnelly, Edward White, Edward Tuohy and Howard Fanning. A delegation from Newton Council, K. of C., attended. Mr. Bannon leaves, besides his mother, four brothers, Sergeant Richard Bannon, of the Newton police, Charles, Frank, and Joseph Bannon.

CITY HALL

—City Clerk Grant states that an explanation of the two referenda to be voted upon at the coming city election, has been prepared by City Solicitor Bartlett and will be left at each house on Wednesday next week.

Woods in Ball Bats

Some of the most popular ball bats used by professional ball players contain several kinds of wood and some a bit of rubber. Willow makes up the body of the bat usually, but to make the handle springy cane is included for splicing, and a piece of rubber sometimes is used to give the handle the additional spring needed for some hitters.

Last Tuesday afternoon, the Junior Girl Reserves, assisted by members of the Triangle Club, presented a very delightful autumn pageant. The story of the play was the coming of Autumn, the Scarlet Knight, to woo summer and carry her away with him. The cast of the play was as follows:

Summer, Beulah Angell; The Spirit of Spring, Catherine Ambrose; Summer's Attendants, Helen Harrington, Olive Clark, Bernice Leacy and Isabelle Orr; The Spirit of Autumn, Margaret Pitts; Autumn's Herald, Catherine Ambrose; Autumn's Pages, Pauline Beaufort and Olga Currier; The Scarlet Knight, Dorothy Taylor; Summer Dancers, Beulah Hopwood, Mary Ellen McFadden, Rachel Bloom, Bernice Bloom, Mary Teed, Katherine McFadden, Lillian McVean, Dorothy Mabey, Florence Gates and Jean McVean.

Before the pageant there were piano solos by Edith Boothby, a reading by Katherine Ward, and dances and readings by Lois Hammond.

Miss Margaret Sheridan has been elected captain of the Basket Ball team of the Newton Y. W. C. A. and Beatrice Clark, manager.

TIE SCORE

The annual football clash between Brookline and Newton High school took place yesterday morning on Clafin Field and resulted in a scoreless tie.

The field was muddy and spoiled many a good play.

In the first quarter Newton reached the visitors' one-foot line, but was held for downs. Carver, Newton, missed in tries for field goals in the second and last periods. In the closing quarter the local team made five first downs, at one time reaching Brookline's seven-yard line to be stopped once more.

Brookline's only threat was made in the opening period when Capt. Vachon blocked a punt and Jerome recovered, traveling to Newton's 10-yard line. Gentle missed a field goal.

Newton's record this year has not been as favorable in former years. The team has defeated Quincy, New Bedford, Providence Tech, Cambridge Latin, Waltham, Somerville, and has been beaten by Everett, Medford and Rindge.

Post Road Farm Milk

Your Milk Supply Is Important

You should demand that your milk is received from a herd of cows that are clean and healthy:

That the stable in which these cows are kept is clean and sanitary;

That the milking is done in a sanitary, careful way;

That the milk is carefully bottled and delivered;

That the tuberculin test be applied to the herd of cattle supplying you with milk, and that you receive milk from a tubercular free herd.

Unless you are getting milk handled under these conditions, you are not getting the best.

It is important to study the source of your milk supply, which will easily, determine its quality.

We invite you to inspect our dairy.

If you order from the Post Road Farm, you will get rich, clean milk of fine flavor.

We deliver in Brookline and a large part of the Newtons.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

EMMA D. COOLIDGE, Editor

State Federation

The Fall Meeting of the State Federation—the first open meeting at which its President, Mrs. Frederick Glazier Smith, has presided—took place last Wednesday, November 19th, at Lowell. The meeting was held in the Memorial Auditorium, a magnificent new building erected by the citizens of Lowell in tribute to all Lowell men who have fought in our country's wars. Mrs. Charles Hobson, President of the Middlesex Women's Club, which was hostess, told of the Memorial and its purposes, in her welcoming address.

In such a setting it was not strange that reverence and inspiration became the keynote of the assemblage, and Mrs. Smith, in responding to the address of welcome, voiced these sentiments.

"The young men in whose honor this beautiful building has been erected fought for a principle and won. They had a vision of the world safe for democracy, which led them through many hardships, even to make the supreme sacrifice. Our Federation was the dream of a group of wise women who could look ahead into the future and see the possibilities of organized womanhood. Let us clothe ourselves with the garments of education and information."

Twenty-six years ago the Middlesex Club entertained for the first time this Federation, and today one of the two women who presided at that meeting, Miss O. M. E. Rowe, was on the platform, and brought a greeting to today's clubwomen across that span of hopes and dreams.

Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, General Federation Director, told of plans to raise a maintenance fund of $50,000 for headquarters in Washington, and the request that will be made for $1 contributions from the 3,000,000 club members of the country.

Mrs. Arthur D. Potter told of the value of the New England Conference by which we become aware of one another's interests, and are inspired hereby. The next one will be held in Maine, in September, probably at Poland Springs.

In lighter vein was community singing, led by Mrs. Barstow. "Swanee River" and "Long, Long Trail" brought out the voices, and those who attended the Swampscott meeting last May do not need to be told of Mrs. Barstow's "pep," even to the sacrifice of the proper hang of her garments.

Description of the new Headquarters on Boylston street, with their treasures of new furniture, art loans, and business equipment, was splendidly told by Mrs. Leach, First Vice-President.

A thrilling surprise was sprung when Prof. Boris Mokobin of the University of Prague was presented, and he extended greetings from the women of Czechoslovakia, who, he said, enjoyed equal rights and privileges with the men. Someway we of America forget that we are not the only women of the world to hold this proud recognition, and we sometimes even get a shock to discover that some of those "dreadful" foreign countries the women are even more emancipated and more recognized in high office than we are of this supposedly most democratic country of the world.

Luncheon was served in the High School Annex, which was attractively decorated. Seven long tables, the entire length of the drill shed, accommodated the more than one thousand delegates.

The afternoon session opened with a musical program: William C. Heller, organist, and Alessandro Niccoli, violinist. The address of the afternoon was given by Glenn Frank, Editor of Century Magazine. His subject was "The Outlook for Western Civilization."

In opening his talk he said that the women may have read what he had to say in "Century," if so, he could quote what he overheard in Canada a canny Scotchman say to the chairman of a meeting at which he had spoken. "How did you like the lecture, Donald?"

"It was verra, verra good," came the answer, "but it was not original."

"Not original? How's that?"

"Why now, I read it four months ago in the Century!"

Mr. Frank brought out the wisdom of looking into the future of our civilization, just as would any business man look ahead for his prospects, but he asked that we discount the pessimism that is finding utterance in regard to it. Some of the most alert and incisive intelligences of our time believe that our western civilization is doomed; that in the next twenty-five years we shall see a new dark age. And having so declared themselves, all the biologists, scientists, psychologists, economists, and every manner of specialist, is thrown into gloom, and adds his doleful voice of woe to the prophecy. After which there will be a period of reaction, and we will return to old safe, familiar ground. Signs of it are in the three "catchwords" applied to political figures of the day: "Harding's normalcy," "Bonar Law's tranquility," and "Coolidge's stability."

Humorously he suggested that we might even try H. G. Wells' comedy, and apply humor or comic relief even to our architecture, as that novelist declared that we are about entering into a new era of humor, or fun. He added that had Mr. Wells seen some of the Missouri architecture he might have thought that we had already entered that age of comic relief therein.

The outstanding business announcement of the day was the organization of a new department, to be in conformity with the work of the General Federation—a Division of Homemaking, of which Mrs. Charles R. Scott of Westboro has been appointed Chairman. Specialists in this work to pass on plans and programs to clubs are: Mrs. S. A. Weston of Wellesley, Home Budget; Mrs. S. A. Chevalier of Boston, Insurance; Mrs. Helen Flint Taylor of Newton Centre, Textiles; and Mrs. Gladys B. Jones of Auburndale, Nutrition. This sounds very intriguing, and already plans are under way for a two-day State conference, Jan. 21 and 22, at Boston University. Surely no work can be of more value than one that has for its ideal the bettering of the American Home.

A Joint Conference on the proposed change of the compulsory school age in Massachusetts, under the direction of the Education, Legislative, and Social and Industrial Conditions Committee of the State Federation, was held last Friday morning at Pilgrim Hall, Boston. In view of the recent Child Labor Amendment and the controversy it engendered, it is well to report this conference somewhat fully to club members, that they may be informed on the opinions of educators on this problem of our State. It is well, too, to call attention to the fact that this conference was a joint one, a most wise getting-together of club committees.

Mrs. Charles B. Hall, a State Federation, struck the keynote on this wisdom when she opened the meeting by saying that our club committees might well be likened to musical instruments, each of which was capable of beautiful music, but that played in conjunction, each carrying the theme, instead of overlapping in effort, a most effective piece of music was composed, and its power or harmony in the progress of our work could not be calculated.

Mrs. Kimball, Education Chairman, wished it made clear that the Federation is neither for nor against any proposed change in the school age of our law that may come up in the next session, but is bringing this before us for study.

Research work is being done by the Mass. School Superintendents Ass'n, each member of which is a chairman to investigate some phase of the problem. Education Commissioner, Payson Smith, sits in at these committee meetings, and is giving wholehearted support to the effort.

Mr. Charles S. Clark, Chairman of this association, pointed out the need of becoming generally informed on this subject, amusing his audience by speaking of the confusion of utterances that confront the citizen, as was proven by the vote on the Child Labor Amendment, when loudness of assertion rather than weight of argument won; in other words, the vote became a victory of stentorian voices, he said.

The aim of all should be not the cost of the change, not the arguments as to what is best for parents, schools, or industry, but what is best for the child, and best for the State, in making children the highest type of citizens.

Miss Ethel Johnson's record of the Value of Child Labor in Industry stated that about forty-five thousand children are in industry—children under sixteen—and yet these represent only two percent of those who are employed, so that child labor is not turning the wheels of industry. About one-third of these children are in textile mills; the others are in various factories and stores.

Of those who left school for work, investigation has shown that 68 percent, have forfeited chance for real success, by lack of education, have come under evil influences during employment, and as a consequence have wasted their years. Many, because not adapted by capacities, drift in unemployment, so neither earning nor learning. Comparing the earning power of those who continued through High School, and those who left before sixteen years old, the person who left school gets a maximum salary at thirty years of less than $1,200, which falls off at fifty years, because the work is physical, and the entire money earned during the years 14 to 18 to compensate is only $2,000. Whereas the person who has graduated from school at eighteen, reaches a salary of approximately $4,200 by forty years of age, and remains at this figure, because the work is such as requires educational ability.

Many stores and the telephone companies do not want children under sixteen, having learned that they are not wise investment.

Mr. S. Howard Chase showed charts comparing school and age requirements of the various States. Two States require children to start to school at six years, seven at seven years, eighteen at eight years (this was a surprise), and one not until nine years. Thirty have an upper age limit of sixteen years, and the rest are not so good. But the amazing thing was that there are twelve States—Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, Virginia, Washington and Wyoming—that have no educational requirements, provided the age law is obeyed. In other words, it does not matter whether the student knows anything after his required school attendance or not.

Mr. John F. Scully told of the Type of School that would be Required by the Proposed Change, pointing out that children may leave school on account of "economic necessity," which can be stretched to cover a multitude of excuses. The real problem is the child that is not "book-minded," but could be taught in vocational and mechanical schools—if only we had appropriated the money for such schools as are needed—and developed into a type of citizen of which our State might be proud, and made a success in life that would lift him from the drudgery he now hopelessly experiences or not.

Going on with Continuation Schools, Mr. Robert O. Small said we had not begun to touch the potentialities here, or the vast good that more part-time schools, and factory schools, such as big industries are establishing, in our State can do. It made very real the need for us not to be penny-wise and pound foolish, in refusing money for this work, while spending lavishly for other things that are not nearly so vital. Household art for girls, manual trades for boys, open up a new world to those not "book-minded," and thousands of students in these schools have been placed in employment that was remunerative and self-respecting.

In giving some idea of the Finances Involved, Mr. Harvey S. Graver told how many rooms in schools we need now to house adequately the pupils we already have, and how many more would be needed if the age limit should be raised to 15 or 16 years. About eight million dollars is lacking today according to our laws, by way of giving fair education to those who now look to us for it. Should the age be raised to 16 we should need about twenty-two million more, including new building cost. Now it is evident that, should we raise this school age, one of two things will happen—we cut down the opportunities of those already in school by having to share them with new comers, provided we do not open our hearts and purses, or we must pay the twenty-two million cheerfully, in full fairness to the students we require to go to our school until 16 years old.

Are we ready to face this responsibility, to play fair, and murmur not? There is no doubt that we should be, and if we agree on this, suppose we start on a campaign to stop foolish expenditure in many lines, upon which we have been winking for so long.

Recent Events

In announcing their bazaar recently the New Newton Women's Educational Club gave this clever plea: "Money, money, money, Oh, come and spend it freely—Our pet charities are calling. So we need it, really, really!" Now it would be impossible to turn a deaf ear upon such advertising, and that it was impossible is attested by the official report that the bazaar proved very successful, a substantial sum having been realized for the club treasury. The hall presented an attractive appearance, with prettily decorated tables, and equally attractive

RECTORY FOR TRINITY CHURCH

The will of Mrs. Abby Y. Burr of Newton, widow of Charles C. Burr, filed at the East Cambridge probate court this week, leaves her homestead, 983 Centre street, Newton Centre, to the Rev. Edward T. Sullivan, rector of Trinity Church, Newton Centre, to be used by him for a home during his lifetime, or the net income from it he prefers not to live there. At his death the property, together with an adjoining lot, is to go to the parish to be used as a rectory.

Mrs. Burr leaves to the American board of commissioners for foreign mission $10,000 and to the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children $200. Two servants, Ellen Donahue and Mary Kedigan, are bequeathed $1000 each. More than $100,000 is disposed of in private bequests to relatives.

The mockingbird's back is ashen gray, his wings a brownish tinge with a large white patch, and his throat and outer tail feathers are white, with the under parts brownish white.

It is when the mockingbird works himself up into a passion of song that one realizes the wonder of his voice. He imitates the sounds of the woods and the other birds, but he improves on them.

No Regular Nail Sizes

Up until about the Fifteenth century nails in England were sold by the hundred. Nails which sold for 10 cents a hundred were called 10-penny nails, those which sold for 6 cents, 6-penny nails, etc. When the prices changed the names persisted and, finally, came to be used to designate size, says the Detroit News.

The "d" is used as a sign of penny and is derived from the Latin "denarius." According to Webster's International dictionary, the explanation that "penny" in this connection is a corruption of "pound" is wrong. There are no regular standard sizes for nails by "pennies." For instance, the length of 10-penny nails varies, depending upon the kind of nails and the firm manufacturing them.

Size of Alaska

United Alaska spreads over 17 degrees north and south, or as far as from New Orleans to Duluth, so that some variation of climate might reasonably be expected within its borders. And east and west the stretch is 58 degrees, or considerably more than from New York to San Francisco. Plenty of elbow room this way, too, for diversities. The total area is nearly 600,000 square miles, or one-fifth the size of the entire United States.—Mary Lee Davis in Scribner's Magazine.

Kisses

The safest time to kiss is midnight. The most dangerous time is early in the morning, germs having accumulated during the night. As the hours roll by germs are gradually eliminated from their favorite nest—mouth and lips. Even at four in the afternoon kissing still is risky.

This important information is supplied by an official of a life insurance company.

Reins of Power Held in Hands of People

As far back as the Middle ages, the doctrine of state was responsible, not only to the crown, but also to parliament, according to a writer in the London Times. For instance, in 1341 a pledge was exacted from Edward III that the chancellor and other great officers should be appointed in parliament, and their work tested by parliament. In 1378 another similar pledge was given. These pledges were not always kept, but parliament never lost sight of them, and their spirit survived. At times this responsibility bore down upon bad ministers with tragic effect. Several such ministers were impeached by parliament, found guilty and beheaded—Stafford, for instance, in the reign of Charles I.

What may be called the modern doctrine of responsible government was first put into practice in the reign of William and Mary, that is, a few years after the revolution of 1688-89. Before that time the ministry was often composed of men of different political affiliations, and it was no uncommon thing for the secretary of state and the lord treasurer to vote on opposite sides in parliament. A ministry so composed was not efficient or harmonious, and William began the practice of selecting all the ministers from one political party, that party being the one that had the majority in the house of commons. From that beginning has grown our present system of a responsible ministry that is absolutely dependent for existence upon the will of the house of commons.

English County Has Its Own Salt Lake

Every one who has swum in a lake or pond as well as in the sea knows the extra buoyancy of salt water as compared with fresh. This effect of salt on water is demonstrated strikingly at Droitwich, the Worcestershire spa, where there is water in which it is impossible to sink.

You can float on the water, sit on it, and even go to sleep on it, without fear of drowning. The better the swimmer you are, indeed, the worse you will fare, because the moment you try to strike out your feet fly upward, to give you an unpleasant emetic!

So high is the percentage of salt that the crystals completely coat the skin, unless drying is resorted to immediately on leaving the water.

Some of the cures effected by the baths are remarkable. Anemia, neuralgia ailments, and rheumatism sometimes yield as if by magic under the treatment, which is becoming increasingly popular.—London Answers.

Mocking Bird and Robin

To the south the mocking bird is what the robin is to the north. He is known as far north as British Columbia, but is seldom found nesting there, while those found in the southern United States live there the year round, writes a contributor to "Bird Lore."

The female builds her nest the latter part of March, lays her greenish-blue eggs, speckled with brown, early in April, and by May the eggs are hatched. A second brood is often reared by the same pair of birds.

The mockingbird's back is ashen gray, his wings a brownish tinge with a large white patch, and his throat and outer tail feathers are white, with the under parts brownish white.

It is when the mockingbird works himself up into a passion of song that one realizes the wonder of his voice. He imitates the sounds of the woods and the other birds, but he improves on them.

The Minstrel Show put on Monday evening by the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club filled Emerson Hall to overflowing. There were over six hundred spectators, one hundred extra seats having to be placed at the last moment, and even every inch of standing room being taken. The Director was Mr. John Cronin, well known in such clever work, and the chorus was made up of club members and their children. Soloists and dancers were Upper Falls talent or from the adjoining Newtons and Needhams.

Mrs. Grace Aiken was not only chairman of the affair, she was one of the entertaining "end men," and her partners in this performance were Miss Alice Jones, Thomas E. Lees, Robert Sawyer (who was a most amusing drum major), George Shannon and Herbert Kestle. The latter was responsible for a special song and dance stunt. Any one who has seen a minstrel show does not need to be told that upon the end men falls the task of especial nonsense. Their garb of red coats, trimmed with black buttons, and their horrible tin horns, and silly little hats, combined in amusement and shudders. The red pleated skirts of the women, below which—much below which—showed white bloomers, became the funnier from the status of the wearers in this community.

Mr. F. B. Parsons, husband of the President of the club, took full advantage of his opportunities and authority as interlocutor.

A tambourine drill, in which all took part, to popular music, was a special feature of fun.

The Shannon Family, gifted in such merriment, contributed many song and dance numbers, that being semi-professional, added greatly to the cleverness of the show.

A group of Girl Scouts from the Upper Falls Troop, some in scout costume, others in Red Cross garb, gave the Finale, a drill in which they came on, bearing the flags of six nations. Miss Ruth Doane, one of the Red Cross nurses, rendered several songs through the show.

Besides the merriment engendered, there is the even more pleasing feature that from a financial viewpoint the Minstrel Show was a tremendous success, for clubs must subsist, as well as be of service.

Coming Events

The regular monthly business meeting of the Social Science Club will be held on Wednesday, December 3, at 10 o'clock.

On December 2nd the Newtonville Women's Club will be told by John Clair Minot "What's What among the New Books," and will be musically entertained by the Double Quartette. There will also be an exhibition of children's books in charge of Miss Chase of the Newton Public Library. This is an excellent opportunity to make up a Christmas list for young people.

Contributions of clothing, toys, and money for the Children's Christmas Party may be made at this meeting or sent to Mrs. Alfred D. Rice. Such a "real party" is one that any club may well be proud as giving.

Miss Welmer, of the Washburn Crosby Co., will give to members of the Newton Community Club, and to others who may care to join her cooking class on Monday afternoon, December first, some "Afternoon Tea Suggestions." She gives also from a fund of humor remarks that add another spice to her recipes.

On December 4th Prof. Brewer G. Whitmore will give his second lecture on Current Events. Those who heard his first lecture will not fail to attend this one, and probably the fame of his fund of facts and wit will cause many others to come out.

Do not forget the Symphony Concert for Children, to be given under the auspices of the Waban Woman's Club, at Angier School on December 4th, at 3 P. M. This opportunity to hear the Symphony Ensemble is worth grasping, and the Education or Music Committees will take pleasure in supplying you with tickets—for a moderate price.

In aid of the scholarship fund, the annual bridge and whist party of the West Newton Women's Educational Club takes place this Friday afternoon at the Brae Burn Country Club. During the thirteen years since this scholarship fund was established many splendid Newton girls have been helped to a higher education. For the past two years a student at Radcliffe College has been assisted, and also a young girl who is studying commercial art in Boston. Mrs. George W. St. Amant of Auburndale is chairman of the affair.

The program for the Auburndale Review Club for the December 2nd meeting is stated as "American Drama." This will include, beside the major subject, a discussion of "The One-Act Play," and "The Little Theatre Movement." Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Scott, and Mrs. Ride are to present the three topics. Interest in things American is refreshing, in these days when things Russian, Polish, and all manner of other nationalities, seem to absorb attention.

December 3rd might be called "Health Day" for the Community Service Club of West Newton, when Miss M. E. Bragg, chairman of the Health Committee, will be in charge of the program. Dr. H. D. Chadwick will speak on "The Ten Year Program for School Children"; Dr. F. G. Curtis on "The Physical Examination of School Children"; and Mrs. W. A. Bedford, chairman for the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, on "Our Milk Supply."

Mrs. Hector M. Holmes, chairman of Dramatics for the Waban Woman's Club, announces for December first Annual Dramatics.

Two One-act Plays will be put on, under the direction of the Dramatic Committee, of the property mistress, Mrs. John White, and of Mr. George Cape Town is popularly known among maritime men as "The Tavern of the Seas," principally because it is the harbor of many strange craft—probably more than any other port so far off the transoceanic paths. Recently a tiny craft arrived after a voyage of 17,000 miles. It was only a 27-ton yacht and was manned by three Danes.

A feature of the program was the singing of two songs, the words by Joyce Kilmer and the music by his mother, Mrs. Kilburn Kilmer.

A HOT RACE

After a thrilling automobile chase over five miles of wet, slippery streets, Clifford Phippen, aged 25, colored, of 115 Elm street, Newton, was arrested Monday afternoon in a yard in Watertown by Patrolmen Glidden and Savage of the Watertown Police and Policeman James F. Gaquin of the Newton Police. Phippen was locked up in Newton on a charge of driving an automobile after his license had been revoked.

Patrolman Gaquin, who knew Phippen, sighted the colored man running his auto in West Newton shortly after noon Monday and started after him in a light car. Officer Gaquin came abreast of Phippen and told the latter to pull in to the side of the road. Instead of obeying police orders, Phippen stepped on the gas and led the policeman on a spirited chase down Watertown street, West Newton, through Newton and Newtonville into Watertown. People along the streets over which the cars passed said they were moving at a rate close to 50 miles an hour.

Reaching through Beacon square, Watertown, with the colored man's car in the lead, Patrolman Gaquin signaled to Officer Glidden on traffic duty there to stop the auto. Patrolman Savage, who was in plain clothes and in conversation at the time, made an effort with Glidden to stop the oncoming car, but the colored man pulled clear of them and raced by at top speed. Gaquin's car was close behind but not catching up.

Patrolmen Glidden and Savage recognized the Newton officer as his car tore by and then commanded an approaching truck and gave chase also. The pursuit took them down North Beacon street and as they were about to turn into School street their light truck skidded and swung about three or four times before it righted itself.

When Glidden and Savage got going again they followed the trail but by this time Phippen, after attempting to make his way back to Newton by Arsenal street, swung into the yard of John Lamplier in an effort to elude the police.

In court Tuesday he was sentenced to three months in the House of Correction for driving after his license had been revoked. He was also fined $50 for refusing to stop when ordered to do so by an officer, but Judge Weston revoked this fine when Inspector Walter Healy of the State Motor Vehicle Department explained that inasmuch as Gaquin was in citizens' clothes, and displayed no badge when he ordered Phippen to stop, that his command carried no authority. Phippen appealed from the sentence.
